Waivers

The waiver system is a procedure by which player contracts or NFL rights to players are made available by a club to other clubs in the League. During the procedure, the 27 other clubs either file claims to obtain the players or waive the opportunity to do so — thus the term "waiver." Claiming clubs are assigned players on a priority based on the inverse of won-and-lost standing. The claiming period normally is 10 days during the offseason and 24 hours from early July through December. In some circumstances, another 24 hours is added on to allow the original club to rescind its action (known as a recall of a waiver request) and/or the claiming club to do the same (known as withdrawal of a claim). If a player passes through waivers unclaimed and is not recalled by the original club, he becomes a free agent. All waivers from July through December are no recall and no withdrawal. Under the Collective Bargaining Agreement, from the beginning of the waiver system each year through the trading deadline (October 19, 1993), any veteran who has acquired four years of pension credit is not subject to the waiver system if the club desires to release him. After the trading deadline, such players are subject to the waiver system.

Active/Inactive List

The Active/Inactive List is the principal status for players participating for a club. It consists of all players under contract who are eligible for preseason, regular-season, and postseason games. In 1993, teams will be permitted to open training camp with no more than 80 players under contract and thereafter must meet two mandatory roster reductions prior to the season opener. Teams will be permitted an Active List of 45 players and an Inactive List of eight players for each regular-season and postseason game during the 1993 season. Provided that a club has two quarterbacks on its 45-player Active List, a third quarterback from its Inactive List is permitted to dress for the game, but if he participates in the game, the other two quarterbacks are thereafter prohibited from playing. Teams also are permitted to establish Practice Squads of up to five players who are eligible to participate in practice, but these players remain free agents and are eligible to sign with any other team in the league.

August 24 ..... Roster reduction to 60 players
August 30 ..... Roster reduction to 47 players
August 31 ..... Teams may add six players for an Active/Inactive List total of 53 and establish a Practice Squad of up to five players

In addition to the squad limits described above, there also is an overall roster limit of 80 players that is applicable to players on a team's Active, Inactive, and Exempt Lists, and any players on the Practice Squad and on the Reserve List as Injured, Physically Unable to Perform, Non-Football Illness/Injury, and Suspended.

Reserve List

The Reserve List is a status for players who, for reasons of injury, retirement, military service, or other circumstances, are not immediately available for participation with a club. Players on Reserve/Injured are not eligible to practice or return to the Active/Inactive List in the same season that they are placed on Reserve.

Players in the category of Reserve/Retired or Reserve/Did Not Report may not be reinstated during the period from 30 days before the end of the regular season through the postseason.

Trades

Unrestricted trading between the AFC and NFC is allowed in 1993 through October 19, after which trading will end until 1994.

Tie-Breaking Procedures

The following procedures will be used to break standings ties for postseason playoffs and to determine regular-season schedules.

To Break a Tie Within a Division

If, at the end of the regular season, two or more clubs in the same division finish with identical won-lost-tied percentages, the following steps will be taken until a champion is determined.

Two Clubs

1. Head-to-head (best won-lost-tied percentage in games between the clubs).
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the division.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, if applicable.
5. Best net points in division games.
6. Best net points in all games.
7. Strength of schedule.
8. Best net touchdowns in all games.
9. Coin toss.

Three or More Clubs

(Note: If two clubs remain tied after a third club is eliminated during any step, the tiebreaker reverts back to step 1 of the two-club format).

(Note: If one team wins multiple-team tiebreaker to advance to playoff round, remaining teams revert to step 1 of applicable two-club format, i.e., either in division tiebreaker or Wild Card tiebreaker. If two teams in a multiple-team tie possess superior marks in a tiebreaking step, this pair of teams revert to top of applicable two-club format to break tie. One team advances to playoff round, while other returns to original group and step 1 of applicable tiebreaker).

1. Head-to-head (best won-lost-tied percentage in games among the clubs).
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the division.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games.
5. Best net points in division games.
6. Best net points in all games.
7. Strength of schedule.
8. Best net touchdowns in all games.
9. Coin toss.

To Break a Tie for the Wild Card Team

If it is necessary to break ties to determine the three Wild Card clubs from each conference, the following steps will be taken.

1. If the tied clubs are from the same division, apply division tiebreaker.
2. If the tied clubs are from different divisions, apply the following steps.

Two Clubs

1. Head-to-head, if applicable.
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, minimum of four.
4. Best average net points in conference games.
5. Best net points in all games.
6. Strength of schedule.
7. Best net touchdowns in all games.
8. Coin toss.

Three or More Clubs

(Note: If two clubs remain tied after third or other clubs are eliminated, tiebreaker reverts to step 1 of applicable two-club format.)

When the first Wild Card team has been identified, the procedure is repeated to name the second Wild Card, i.e., eliminate all but the highest-ranked club in each division prior to proceeding to step 2, and repeated a third time, if necessary, to identify the third Wild Card. In situations where three or more teams from the same division are involved in the procedure, the original seeding of the teams remains the same for subsequent applications of the tiebreaker if the top-ranked team in that division qualifies for a Wild Card berth.

1. Apply division tiebreaker to eliminate all but the highest ranked club in each division prior to proceeding to a step 2. The original seeding within a division upon application of the division tiebreaker remains the same for all subsequent applications of the procedure that are necessary to identify the three Wild Card participants.
2. Head-to-head sweep (Applicable only if one club has defeated each of the others or if one club has lost to each of the others).
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, minimum of four.
5. Best average net points in all games.
6. Best net points in all games.
7. Strength of schedule.
8. Best net touchdowns in all games.
9. Coin toss.

Other Tie-Breaking Procedures

1. Only one team advances to the playoffs in any tie-breaking step. Remaining tied teams revert to the first step of the division or Wild Card tiebreakers.
2. In comparing division and conference records or records against common opponents among tied teams, the best won-lost-tied percentage is the deciding factor since teams may have played an unequal number of games.
3. To determine home-field priority among division titlists, apply Wild Card tiebreakers.
4. To determine home-field priority for Wild Card qualifiers, apply division tiebreakers (if teams are from the same division) or Wild Card tiebreakers (if teams are from different divisions).

Tie-Breaking Procedure for Selection Meeting

If two or more clubs are tied for selection order, the conventional strength of schedule tiebreaker will be applied, subject to the following exceptions for all playoff teams:

1. The Super Bowl winner will be last and the Super Bowl loser will be next-to-last.
2. Any non-Super Bowl playoff team involved in the tie moves down in drafting priority within its tied segment as follows:
   A. For a loss in the Wild Card Playoffs, a plus-factor of one-half.
   B. For participation, win or lose in the Divisional Playoffs, a plus-factor of one.
   C. For a loss in the Conference Championship, a plus-factor of one.

NFL Passer Rating System

The NFL rates its passers for statistical purposes against a pre-fixed performance standard based on statistical achievements of all qualified pro passers since 1960. The system now being used replaced one that rated passers in relation to their position in a total group based on various criteria. The current system, which was adopted in 1973, removes inequities that existed in the former method and, at the same time, provides a means of comparing passing performances from one season to the next.

It is important to remember that the system is used to rate passers, not quarterbacks. Statistics do not reflect leadership, play-calling, and other intangible factors that go into making a successful professional quarterback. Four categories are used as a basis for compiling a rating:

— Percentage of touchdown passes per attempt
— Percentage of completions per attempt
— Percentage of interceptions per attempt
— Average yards gained per attempt

The base, or average standard, is 1.000. The bottom is .000. To earn a 2.000 rating, a passer must perform at exceptional levels, i.e., 70 percent in completions, 10 percent in touchdowns, 1.5 percent in interceptions, and 11 yards average gain per pass attempt. The maximum a passer can receive in any category is 2.375.

For example, to gain a 2.375 in completion percentage, a passer would have to complete 77.5 percent of his passes. The NFL record is 70.55 by Ken Anderson (Cincinnati, 1982). To earn a 2.375 in percentage of touchdowns, a passer would have to achieve an 11.9. The record is 13.9 by Sid Luckman (Chicago, 1943). To gain 2.375 in percentage of interceptions, a passer would have to go the entire season without an interception. The 2.375 figure in average yards is 12.50, compared with the NFL record of 11.17 by Tommy O'Connell (Cleveland, 1957).

In order to make the rating more understandable, the point rating is then converted into a scale of 100. For instance, if a passer completes 11 of 23 passes for 114 yards, with one touchdown and no interceptions, the four components would be:

— Percentage of Completions — 11 of 23 is 47.8 percent. The point rating is 0.890.

— Percentage of Touchdown Passes — 1 touchdown in 23 attempts works out to 4.3 percent for a rating of 0.860.

— Percentage of Interceptions — You can't do better than zero, so the passer receives a maximum rating of 2.375.

— Average Yards Gained Per Attempt — 23 attempts divided into 114 yards equals 4.96 yards per attempt for a corresponding rating of 0.490.

The sum of the four components is 4.615, which converts to a rating of 76.9. In order for a passer to achieve 100, his points would have to total 6.000. In rare cases, where statistical performance has been superior, it is possible for a passer to surpass 100.

The following is a list of qualifying passers who had a single-season passer rating of 100 or higher:

Figuring the 1994 NFL Schedule

As soon as the final game of the 1993 NFL regular season (Philadelphia at San Francisco on January 3) has been completed, it will be possible to determine the 1994 opponents of the 28 teams.

Each 1993 team schedule is based on a "common opponent" formula initiated for the 1978 season and most recently modified in 1987. Under the common opponent format, the first- through fourth-place teams in a division play at least 12 of their 16 games the following season against common opponents, and the fifth-place team in the division plays at least 10 common opponent games. It is not a position scheduling format in which the strong play the strong and the weak play the weak.

For years, the NFL had been seeking a more easily understood and balanced schedule that would provide both competitive equality and a variety of opponents. Under the old rotation scheduling system in effect from 1970-77, non-division opponents were determined by a pre-set formula. This often resulted in competitive imbalances.

With common opponents as the basis for scheduling, a more competitive and equitable method of determining division champions and postseason playoff representatives has developed. Teams battling for a division title are playing at least 75 percent of their games against common opponents.

In 1987, NFL owners passed a bylaw proposal designed to modify the common opponent scheduling format in the hopes of creating even more equity. Since then, the pairings with non-division opponents have been:

Prior Year's Finish in Division	Pairings in Non-Division Games Within Conference	Previous Pairings 1978-86
1	1-1-2-3	1-1-4-4
2	1-2-2-4	2-2-3-3
3	1-3-3-4	2-2-3-3
4	2-3-4-4	1-1-4-4

Under the common opponent format, schedules of any NFL team are figured according to one of the following three formulas. (The reference point for the figuring is the team's final division standing. Ties for a position in divisions are broken according to the tie-breaking procedures outlined on page 14. The chart on the following page is included for use as you go through each step.)

A. First- through fourth-place teams in a five-team division (AFC East, AFC West, NFC East, NFC Central).

1. Home-and-home round-robin within the division (8 games).
2. One game each with the first- through fourth-place teams in a division of the other conference (4 games). In 1994, the AFC East will play the NFC Central, the AFC Central will play the NFC East, and the AFC West will play the NFC West.
3. The first-place team plays the first-place teams in the other divisions within the conference plus a second- and third-place team within the conference. The second-place team plays the second-place teams in the other divisions within the conference plus a first- and fourth-place team within the conference. The third-place team plays the third-place teams in the other divisions within the conference plus a first- and fourth-place team within the conference. The fourth-place team plays the fourth-place teams in the other divisions within the conference plus a second- and third-place team within the conference (4 games).

This completes the 16-game schedule.

B. First- through fourth-place teams in a four-team division (AFC Central, NFC West).

1. Home-and-home round-robin within the division (6 games).
2. One game with each of the fifth-place teams in the conference (2 games).
3. The same procedure that is listed in step A2 (4 games).
4. The same procedure that is listed in step A3 (4 games).

This completes the 16-game schedule.

C. The fifth-place teams in a division (AFC East, AFC West, NFC East, NFC Central).

1. Home-and-home round-robin within the division (8 games).
2. One game with each team in the four-team division of the conference (4 games).
3. A home-and-home with the other fifth-place team in the conference (2 games).
4. One game each with the fifth-place teams in the other conference (2 games).

This completes the 16-game schedule.

The 1994 Opponent Breakdown chart on the following page does not include the round-robin games within the division. Those are automatically scheduled on a home-and-away basis.

What to Look For in 1993

• Don Shula, Miami, enters his thirty-first season as an NFL head coach. Shula, who leads all active coaches with 318 career victories, needs seven victories to become the winningest coach in NFL history. Shula would then surpass George Halas, who recorded 324 career victories during 40 seasons as coach of the Chicago Bears.

• Derrick Thomas, Kansas City, has recorded 58 sacks through four NFL seasons. He needs 15 sacks during the 1993 regular season to break Art Still's club career sack record of 72.5.

• Reggie Cobb, Tampa Bay, rushed for 1,171 yards on 310 carries in 1992 and became the first Tampa Bay running back since James Wilder (1,300 in 1985) to rush for 1,000 yards. Should Cobb rush for 1,000-or-more yards in 1993, he would become the first Tampa Bay running back to post back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons since Wilder did it in 1984 (1,544) and 1985.

• Anthony Carter, Minnesota, has caught 47 touchdown passes during eight NFL seasons. He needs 4 touchdown receptions to surpass Sammy White and become the club's all-time leader for receiving touchdowns.

• Clay Matthews, Cleveland, begins his sixteenth NFL season on opening day when the Browns face the Bengals. With one play against the Bengals, Matthews will have seen action in a club-record 217 regular-season games, which will eclipse the club record of 216 he currently shares with Hall of Fame tackle-kicker Lou Groza.

• Jim Everett, Los Angeles Rams, has passed for 22,106 yards during his seven-year NFL career. He needs 118 yards to overtake Roman Gabriel (22,223 yards) as the club's all-time leading passer. Everett, who has 134 career touchdown passes, needs 21 to surpass Gabriel's club record of 154.

• Barry Sanders, Detroit, has recorded 1,189 carries during his four NFL seasons. He needs 15 more to become the club's all-time leader with 1,204, which would surpass current leader Dexter Bussey.

• Eric Martin, New Orleans, is the club's all-time leading receiver with 6,904 yards on 466 catches. Martin, who has caught passes in 89 consecutive games, needs 34 receptions to become the first player in club history to record 500 career receptions.

• Dalton Hilliard, New Orleans, is second on the club's all-time rushing list with 3,999 yards. He needs one yard for 4,000 in his career and 269 to surpass George Rogers as the club's career rushing leader.

• Chip Lohmiller, Washington, has converted a club-record 198 consecutive extra points during five NFL seasons. He needs 37 more to break the NFL record of 234 held by Tommy Davis. Lohmiller also has a chance to lead the NFC in scoring for the fourth consecutive season. He led the NFC in total points with 131 in 1990, 149 in 1991, and 120 in 1992.

• Christian Okoye, Kansas City, has rushed for 4,897 yards during his six NFL seasons. He needs 103 yards to become the first player in club history to record 5,000 career rushing yards.

• Henry Ellard, Los Angeles Rams, has 46 career touchdown receptions. He needs eight to surpass Elroy (Crazylegs) Hirsch and become the club's all-time leader with 54.

• Monte Coleman, Washington, has played in 185 games during his 14-year NFL career. Should Coleman play in 15 games this season, he would become only the second player in club history to play in 200 games. Former Redskins player Dave Butz is the all-time leader with 203.

• Art Monk, Washington, begins his fourteenth NFL season as the league's all-time leading receiver with 847 catches. Monk, who has caught at least one pass in 148 consecutive games, needs one reception in his next three regular-season games for second-place on the all-time consecutive game receptions list ahead of former Cleveland Browns tight end Ozzie Newsome (150).

• Steve Young, San Francisco, completed 268 of 402 passes for 3,465 yards, with 25 touchdowns and 7 interceptions for a passer rating of 107.0 in 1992. It marked the second consecutive season that Young had achieved a passer rating greater than 100 (101.8 in 1991). Young, who has 908 career NFL completions, needs 92 to reach 1,000 for his career.

• Steve McMichael, Chicago, is a veteran of 13 NFL seasons and 181 games. McMichael needs to play in 10 games to become the club's all-time leader for most games played with 191.

• Dan Marino, Miami, has passed for 39,502 yards during his 10 NFL seasons. Marino needs 498 yards to become only the fourth quarterback in NFL history to pass for 40,000 yards. The others are Fran Tarkenton (47,003), Dan Fouts (43,040), and Johnny Unitas (40,239).

• Marino (290) also needs 10 touchdown passes to become only the second player in NFL history to reach 300 touchdown passes during an NFL career. Fran Tarkenton threw 342 scoring strikes during his 18-year NFL career.

• Marino's 17 games with at least 4 touchdown passes tie for the NFL lead with Johnny Unitas. Marino's next 4 touchdown-pass performance will make him the NFL's all-time leader in that category.

• Darrell Green, Washington, has intercepted 30 passes during his 10 NFL seasons. Green needs seven more interceptions to become the club's all-time leader, surpassing current leader Brig Owens, who had 36 career interceptions.

• Andre Tippett, New England, has 91.5 sacks during his 10-year career. He needs 8.5 sacks to become the first player in club history to record 100.

• Gary Clark, Phoenix, has 549 receptions during his eight NFL seasons. Should Clark catch at least 50 passes during the 1993 season, he will have recorded nine consecutive seasons with 50-or-more receptions.

• Bernie Kosar, Cleveland, has 21,097 career passing yards. He needs 2,617 to surpass Brian Sipe for the top spot on the Browns' all-time passing list. Kosar (1,774 completions and 3,012 attempts) needs 171 completions and 428 attempts to surpass Sipe for first place in those categories.

• Joe Montana, Kansas City, has completed 2,929 passes during his 13 NFL seasons. Montana needs 71 completions to become only the fourth player in NFL history to complete 3,000 passes in a career. The others are Fran Tarkenton (3,686), Dan Fouts (3,297), and Dan Marino (3,128).

• Dave Krieg, Kansas City, has passed for 29,247 career yards. He needs 753 to become only the sixteenth quarterback in NFL history to throw for 30,000 career yards. Krieg, who has 2,326 career completions, needs 174 to become just the ninth quarterback in league history to complete 2,500 passes.

• Vance Johnson, Denver, has 367 career receptions and needs 33 to become only the second player in club history to record 400 receptions.

• Eric Dickerson, Los Angeles Raiders, has rushed for 13,168 yards during his 10 NFL seasons. Dickerson needs 832 yards to become only the second running back in league history to record 14,000 rushing yards. Dickerson, who has scored 96 career touchdowns, needs 4 to become the ninth player in league history to record at least 100 touchdowns.

• Simon Fletcher, Denver, enters the 1993 season with 72 career sacks and needs two to surpass Rulon Jones (73.5) as the club's all-time leader.

• Chris Doleman, Minnesota, has forced 27 fumbles during his eight-year career. He needs two more to eclipse the club record of 28 set by Hall of Fame defensive tackle Alan Page.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

COACHING STAFF

Head Coach, Wade Phillips

Pro Career: Became the tenth head coach in Broncos history on January 25, 1993, moving into the head-coaching slot from his previous position as defensive coordinator. Under Phillips's leadership, the Broncos' defense led the American Football Conference in fewest points allowed in two of the past four seasons (1989 and 1991), and the 1991 Denver team was paced by a defensive unit that led the AFC in 12 different categories. In addition to his role as defensive coordinator with the Broncos, Phillips assumed the capacity of interim head coach during the 1990 preseason posting a win over Indianapolis. Going into his fifth season with Denver, Phillips came to the Broncos from Philadelphia, where he was the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach from 1986-88. He served as defensive coordinator at New Orleans from 1981-85, and was the interim head coach for the final four games of the 1985 season (1-3 record). Prior to joining the Saints, Phillips spent five seasons at Houston, coaching the linebackers (1976) and defensive line (1977-80). Career record: 1-3.

Background: Phillips began his coaching career at his alma mater, the University of Houston, in 1969, and then coached at Orange (Texas) High School for three years (1970-72) before moving to Oklahoma State (1973-74) and Kansas (1975).

Personal: The son of former NFL head coach Bum Phillips, Phillips was born in Orange, Texas on June 21, 1947. He attended Port Neches-Groves High School. He went on to be a three-year starter at linebacker at Houston under head coach Bill Yeoman. Wade and his wife, Laurie, live in Denver and have two children, Tracy and Wesley.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

Head Coach, Ted Marchibroda

Pro Career: Marchibroda ranks as the third-winningest head coach in Colts history with a 50-43 record. He returned to the Colts on January 28, 1992, after serving as head coach with the team from 1975-79. Marchibroda's first tenure produced a 41-36 overall record and three AFC Eastern Divisional titles (1975, 10-4; 1976, 11-3; and 1977, 10-4). He took over a Colts team that was 2-12 in 1974 and produced an eight-game improvement, then the best one-season turnaround in NFL history. It marked the first time a coach had taken a team from last to first place in one season. Marchibroda authored a 9-7 record last year, thus his 1975 and 1992 Colts squads posted two of the four eight-game seasonal turnarounds in NFL history. His three divisional championships represent the most titles won by a Colts head coach. Prior to returning to the Colts, Marchibroda served five years as an assistant with the Buffalo Bills, the last three as offensive coordinator. Marchibroda began his career as backfield coach with the Washington Redskins in 1961. He joined George Allen's staff with the Los Angeles Rams in 1966. He moved with Allen to the Redskins in 1971, where he served as offensive coordinator through the 1974 season. After his stint with the Colts, Marchibroda served as quarterback coach with Chicago in 1981, then moved on to Detroit as offensive coordinator from 1982-83. He served that same role in Philadelphia from 1984-85 before joining Buffalo in 1987. Marchibroda was the first draft pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1953 and played one year before serving in the Army. He returned to Pittsburgh for the 1955-56 seasons. His top year was 1956, completing 124 of 275 passes for 1,585 yards and 12 touchdowns. Marchibroda's playing career ended with the Chicago Cardinals in 1957. Career record: 50-43.

Background: Quarterback at St. Bonaventure 1950-51 and University of Detroit 1952. Led nation in total offense at Detroit. He was a football, basketball (all-state selection), and baseball player at Franklin (Pa.) High School.

Personal: Born March 15, 1931, Franklin, Pa. Ted and his wife, Ann, reside in Indianapolis. They have two daughters, Jodi and Lonni, and two sons, Ted Jr. and Robert.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List, Inactive List, Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List, Inactive List, Reserve/Injured, or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

Pro Career: In four seasons as head coach of the Kansas City Chiefs, Schottenheimer has established the highest winning percentage in franchise history (.614). Moreover, his .619 regular season winning percentage is fifth highest among active NFL coaches with at least four full seasons of experience. He has directed the Chiefs to four of their six winning seasons since 1974 and has taken Kansas City to the playoffs three consecutive years, a team record. As head coach of the Cleveland Browns from midseason in 1984 through 1988, he led the club to four playoff berths, three AFC Central Division titles, two AFC Championship Game appearances, and captured AFC coach of the years honors (1986). He first joined the Browns in 1980 as defensive coordinator after serving as linebackers coach of the Detroit Lions in 1978-79. His first NFL coaching job came with the New York Giants, where he was linebackers coach and later defensive coordinator from 1975-77. He also served as an assistant coach with the Portland Storm (WFL) in 1974. A seventh-round draft choice of the Buffalo Bills in 1965, he played linebacker with the Bills until 1968 and finished his pro playing career with the Boston Patriots in 1969-70. Career record: 86-58-1.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

Head Coach, Bruce Coslet

Pro Career: Became New York's eighth head coach on February 6, 1990, and is now entering his fourth year as head coach of the Jets. After leading New York back to the playoffs in 1991 for the first time since 1986, the Jets struggled last year and were devastated by injuries. The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

Head Coach, Tom Flores

Pro Career: Named the fourth head coach in the history of the Seahawks on January 6, 1992. Had served as president and general manager from February 22, 1989. Flores previously served as the head coach of the Oakland/Los Angeles Raiders from 1979 through 1987. He won two Super Bowl titles with the Raiders, 27-10 over the Philadelphia Eagles in Super Bowl XV after the 1980 season, and 38-9 over the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl XVIII in 1983. Those are the only Super Bowl triumphs by an AFC team in the 1980s. The 1980 Raiders are the only Wild Card team to win the Super Bowl. Flores was a member of the Raiders' organization for 22 seasons, as a quarterback (1960-61, 1963-66), assistant coach (1972-78), and head coach (1979-87). Also played for the Buffalo Bills (1967-68) and Kansas City Chiefs (1969-70), and coached with the Bills (1971) before returning to the Raiders as a coach. Is one of two players in league history to have Super Bowl rings as a player (Kansas City, Super Bowl IV), assistant coach (Raiders, Super Bowl XI) and head coach (Raiders, Super Bowls XV and XVIII). Still holds the Raiders' record with six touchdown passes in a 1963 game. Career record: 93-70-0.

Background: Quarterback at Fresno, California, Junior College 1954-55 and the College of the Pacific 1956-57. Coached at his alma mater in 1959 before joining the Raiders as a quarterback in 1960.

Personal: Born March 21, 1937, in Fresno, California. Tom and his wife, Barbara, live in Kirkland, Washington, and have twin sons, Mark and Scott, and a daughter, Kim.

Head Coach, Jerry Glanville

Pro Career: Led Atlanta to a 10-6 regular-season record in 1991 and a spot in the NFC playoffs for first time since 1982. Named Falcons' head coach on January 14, 1990. Served as Houston Oilers' head coach from the last two games of the 1985 season through 1989. Guided Oilers to three consecutive playoff berths (1987-89), posting a 28-19 mark in the process. Under his direction, Houston was one of only four NFL teams to make the playoffs during those years. The 51-year-old Glanville took over a team that had suffered five consecutive losing seasons and turned the club into winners in his second season at the helm. As an assistant coach, he was part of three playoff teams and one division title winner in Atlanta. He helped the 1977 team establish the modern-day record for fewest points allowed in a season (129 over 14 games) with his attacking "Gritz Blitz" defense. Career record: 57-63.

Background: Attended Montana State in 1960 before transferring to Northern Michigan, where he played linebacker from 1961-63. He coached in the Ohio high school system from 1964-66 before accepting an assistant coaching post at Western Kentucky in 1967. From 1968-73, he was an assistant at Georgia Tech, helping the Yellow Jackets to three bowl games.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

Head Coach, Wayne Fontes

Pro Career: Became the Lions' seventeenth head coach on December 22, 1988, after serving five weeks as interim head coach (2-3 record). Fontes led the Lions to a 7-9 record in 1989, including five consecutive season-ending wins, and a 6-10 record in 1990. Under Fontes, the Lions finished 12-4 and won the NFC Central Division in 1991. The Lions notched their first playoff victory since 1957 and made their first appearance in the NFC Championship Game in 1991. He began the 1988 season as Detroit's defensive coordinator and secondary coach, following a nine-year stint with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. A former defensive back with the New York Jets, Fontes advanced from secondary coach to defensive coordinator to assistant head coach of the Buccaneers during his years with Tampa Bay. As a player with the Jets, his brief pro career was cut short by a broken leg after two seasons (1963-64). However, his 83-yard interception return against Houston (12-15-63) did stand as the Jets' team record until it was broken in 1989 by Erik McMillan's 93-yard return. Career record: 33-38.

Background: A former two-sport star (football and baseball) at Michigan State, Fontes earned all-Big Ten honors at defensive back for the Spartans. He earned his bachelor's degree in education and biological science and later earned his master's degree in administration, all from Michigan State. Fontes became defensive backfield coach at Dayton in 1968. He also served in the same capacity at Iowa (1969-71) and Southern California (1972-75).

Personal: Born February 17, 1939, New Bedford, Mass. Fontes and his wife, Evelyn, live in Rochester Hills, Mich., and have three children — Mike, Scott, and Kim.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

Head Coach, Dan Reeves

Pro Career: Became the fourteenth head coach in Giants' history on January 27, 1993, after 12 years as head coach of the Denver Broncos. He compiled a 117-79-1 record with the Broncos, including an 8-8 mark in 1992. In 1991, Reeves led the Broncos to a 14-4 record, the AFC Western Division title, and a berth in the AFC Championship Game. Reeves took the Broncos to five first- and three second-place finishes in the division, along with six playoff berths and four AFC Championship Game appearances. He comes into the 1993 season in fifteenth place on the all-time pro coaching victory list. Denver was 5-11 in 1990, but Reeves's Broncos won the AFC championship in 1986, 1987, and 1989, making Denver the only AFC team to reach three Super Bowls during the decade of the 1980s. Denver posted regular-season records of 11-5 (1986), 10-4-1 (1987), and 11-5 (1989) in those championship seasons. Reeves has played or coached in eight Super Bowls, the most by any single participant in the NFL's Championship Game. He led Denver to an 11-5 record in 1985, barely missing a playoff berth. Reeves also guided the Broncos to an AFC West championship with a 13-3 record in 1984, and a 9-7 mark and playoff berth in 1983. His teams were 10-6 in 1981 and 2-7 in 1982. He joined the Dallas Cowboys as a free-agent running back in 1965 and became a member of the coaching staff in 1970 when he undertook the dual role of player-coach for two seasons. Reeves was the Cowboys' offensive backfield coach in 1972 and from 1974-76, and became offensive coordinator in 1977. Reeves was an all-purpose running back during his eight seasons as a player, rushing for 1,990 yards and catching 129 passes for 1,693. Career record 117-79-1.

COACHING STAFF

Head Coach, Rich Kotite

Pro Career: Became the eighteenth head coach in Eagles' history on January 8, 1991. After a 3-5 start in his rookie year as head coach, marked by a season-ending injury to quarterback Randall Cunningham on opening day and subsequent injuries to backup Jim McMahon, Kotite rallied the Eagles. Philadelphia narrowly missed the playoffs after winning seven of their last eight games on the strength of the league's best defense. In his second season, the Eagles returned to the playoffs for the fourth time in five years, recording an 11-5 mark along the way to give the club five consecutive seasons of 10-or-more wins. Kotite originally served as the team's offensive coordinator in 1990 when the club led the NFL in rushing and time of possession, and also topped the NFC in scoring and touchdown passes. Kotite had previously served as the New York Jets' offensive coordinator and receivers coach from 1985-89 after originally joining the club as receivers coach in 1983. In each of Kotite's years at the helm of the New York offense, the Jets finished near the top in the AFC in total offense, including a third-place ranking in 1985. Kotite began his pro coaching career with New Orleans in 1977 before joining Cleveland the following year. Kotite was the Browns' receivers coach from 1978-82. He aided in the development of Cleveland's perennial all-pro tight end Ozzie Newsome. During his playing career, he was known as a scrappy tight end and outstanding special teams performer with the New York Giants (1967, 1969-72) and Steelers (1968). Career record: 22-12.

Background: Attended Poly Prep in Brooklyn, N.Y. After a brief boxing career at the University of Miami where he was the school's heavyweight champ, he served as a sparring partner for Cassius Clay, later known as Muhammad Ali. Kotite became a Little All-America tight end at Wagner College in Staten Island, N.Y.

Personal: Born in Brooklyn on October 13, 1942. He and his wife, Elizabeth, live in Mt. Laurel, N.J. and have one daughter — Alexandra.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List, Inactive List, Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List, Inactive List, Reserve/Injured, or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

Head Coach, George Seifert

Pro Career: Named 49ers' head coach on January 26, 1989, after serving as the team's defensive coordinator since 1983. Immediately earned a place in league history, winning a record 17 games his first year and becoming only the second rookie head coach to lead his team to a Super Bowl title (Don McCafferty of Baltimore in 1970 was the first). Recorded the NFL's best won-loss mark in 1990, posting a 14-2 record and guided San Francisco to its fifth consecutive NFC West title. In 1991, the 49ers recorded a 10-6 mark, missing the playoffs for the first time since 1982. Again posted the NFL's best won-loss record in 1992, going 14-2 and advancing to the NFC Championship Game. Joined 49ers as secondary coach in 1980. In only his second season in the pro ranks, San Francisco had the second best defense in the league and won a Super Bowl (XVI) title, despite starting three rookies in the defensive backfield. Appointed the team's defensive coordinator in 1983. Finished 1987 with the top defense in the NFL and a 13-2 record. No pro playing experience. Career record: 57-14.

Background: Linebacker at University of Utah (1960-62). Served a six-month tour of duty with the U.S. Army following graduation. Returned to Utah as a graduate assistant in 1964. Named head coach at Westminster College in Salt Lake City in 1965. Assistant at Iowa (1966), Oregon (1967-71), and Stanford (1972-74). Left Stanford to become head coach at Cornell (1975-76). Joined Bill Walsh's staff at Stanford in 1977 and helped the Cardinal to a two-year mark of 17-7, including victories in the Sun and Bluebonnet Bowls. Received bachelor's degree in zoology (1963) and master's degree in physical education (1966) from Utah.

Personal: Born January 22, 1940, in San Francisco. He and his wife, Linda, have two children — Eve and Jason — and live in Los Altos, Calif.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List, Inactive List, Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List, Inactive List, Reserve/Injured, or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

Sunday, September 6

Cincinnati 21, Seattle 3—at Kingdome, attendance 65,851. Linebacker Ray Bentley and safety Fernandus Vinson each returned fumbles for touchdowns to help give 33-year-old Dave Shula a victory in his first game as head coach. Seattle led 3-0 in the second quarter until wide receiver Doug Thomas fumbled when hit by Bengals linebacker James Francis. Bentley, a Plan B free agent playing in his first game with the Bengals, picked up the loose ball and ran 75 yards for the only points Cincinnati would need. The Bengals put the game away with 2 touchdowns in a span of 3:15 of the fourth quarter, the final score coming on Vinson's 22-yard fumble return with 8:17 left. Cincinnati's Harold Green mustered most of the day's offense, rushing for 123 yards on 21 carries and catching 5 passes for 18 yards.

Indianapolis 14, Cleveland 3—at Hoosier Dome, attendance 50,766. Linebacker Chip Banks had 4 sacks as a relentless defense lifted the Colts to their first season-opening victory since 1983. Quentin Coryatt, the second overall pick in the 1992 draft, added 2 sacks and Steve Emtman, the top pick, had 1 as Indianapolis tied a club record by dropping Browns quarterback Bernie Kosar 11 times. The Colts only had 29 sacks the entire 1991 season. Aided by 72 yards in losses on sacks, Indianapolis limited Cleveland to only 13 first downs and 145 total yards.

Chicago 27, Detroit 24—at Soldier Field, attendance 63,672. Jim Harbaugh's 6-yard, fourth-down touchdown pass to Tom Waddle with one second left capped a wild fourth quarter and gave the Bears their ninth consecutive opening-day victory. The score was tied 10-10 when the fourth-quarter dramatics started. The Lions' Barry Sanders, apparently stopped after a short gain, gave his team the lead when he broke free and scored on a 43-yard run with 9:56 left. The Bears countered with Kevin Butler's 38-yard field goal and Neal Anderson's 18-yard touchdown run with 2:55 to go for a 20-17 advantage. But Detroit quarterback Rodney Peete, who passed for 273 yards and 2 touchdowns, drove the Lions 80 yards in four plays, passing 27 yards to Willie Green to make it 24-20 with 1:02 to go. The Bears rallied by marching 74 yards in 9 plays to the winning touchdown. Harbaugh passed for 227 yards and 2 touchdowns and had a key 14-yard scramble on the final drive. Sanders led all rushers with 109 yards on 19 carries.

Kansas City 24, San Diego 10—at Jack Murphy Stadium, attendance 45,024. Rookie cornerback Dale Carter raced 46 yards for a touchdown on his first NFL punt return and also intercepted a pass as the Chiefs beat San Diego for the fifth consecutive time. Carter's punt return came just 1:39 into the game, and gave Kansas City a quick 7-0 advantage. But neither team could generate much offense, and the Chiefs led just 10-3 until late in the third quarter. The Chargers drove to the Kansas City 18-yard line before Chiefs cornerback Kevin Ross intercepted a tipped pass from Bob Gagliano at the 1-yard line and raced 99 yards down the left sideline to make it 17-3. The defenses for both teams dominated the game, as Kansas City managed only 188 total yards and San Diego just 155.

Buffalo 40, L.A. Rams 7—at Rich Stadium, attendance 79,001. Running back Thurman Thomas scored 4 touchdowns and wide receiver James Lofton became the NFL's career leader in receiving yards during the Bills' rout. Thomas, who scored on touchdown runs of 10, 6, and 1 yard and caught a 10-yard pass for another touchdown, ran for 103 yards and totaled 136 yards from scrimmage. His third touchdown came early in the second quarter to give Buffalo a 21-0 lead, and the Bills never were seriously threatened. Defensive backs Henry Jones and Nate Odomes each intercepted 2 passes to help keep the game out of reach and spoil Chuck Knox's debut in his second tenure as Rams head coach. Lofton entered the game needing 55 yards to break former Seahawks star Steve Largent's NFL record of 13,089 career receiving yards. He broke the record on his sixth and final catch of the day, a 6-yard reception midway through the fourth quarter, and finished the day at 13,091 yards.

Minnesota 23, Green Bay 20—at Lambeau Field, attendance 58,617. Terry Allen's 45-yard run positioned Fuad Reveiz for his game-winning 25-yard field goal with 4:40 remaining in overtime. The Packers had forced the extra period on Chris Jacke's 24-yard field goal with 1:57 left in regulation. Allen, who also had a 51-yard run to set up the Vikings' go-ahead touchdown in the fourth quarter but fumbled following a 17-yard gain earlier in overtime, finished with 140 yards on only 12 carries. Minnesota quarterback Rich Gannon passed for 266 yards as the Vikings amassed 425 total yards. Don Majkowski completed 27 of 38 passes for 189 yards and running back Vince Workman had 89 rushing yards and caught 12 passes for Green Bay. The game marked the head-coaching debuts of the Vikings' Dennis Green and the Packers' Mike Holmgren.

Free-agent running back Herschel Walker, playing in his first game for the Eagles, rushed for 114 yards on 26 carries and caught a 2-yard touchdown pass as Philadelphia edged the Saints. Eagles quarterback Randall Cunningham, back after missing nearly all of the 1991 season with a knee injury, passed for 165 yards and 2 touchdowns despite being sacked 6 times and fumbling 3 times. Philadelphia, which in 1991 became only the fifth team in NFL history to lead the league in rushing defense, passing defense, and total defense, held the Saints to only 8 first downs and 202 total yards. New Orleans quarterback Bobby Hebert completed just 12 of 30 passes for 156 yards and was intercepted twice, but did throw a 10-yard touchdown pass to Wesley Carroll with 3:14 left in the game to pull his team within two points.

Atlanta 20, N.Y. Jets 17—at Georgia Dome, attendance 65,585. The Falcons built a 17-0 advantage in the first quarter, then hung on for the victory in their first regular-season game at the new Georgia Dome. Norm Johnson kicked a 25-yard field goal on Atlanta's first possession and Chris Miller completed touchdown passes of 14 and 11 yards to Michael Haynes to give the Falcons their early lead. But the Jets rallied behind 366 passing yards from Browning Nagle in his first NFL start. Nagle's 37-yard touchdown pass to Chris Burkett with 7:14 left in the third quarter pulled New York within three points. However, despite totaling 411 yards in offense, the Jets could not score again, losing a fumble inside the Atlanta 10-yard line and missing field-goal attempts of 42 and 41 yards in the second half.

Pittsburgh 29, Houston 24—at Astrodome, attendance 63,713. Neil O'Donnell's 9-yard touchdown pass to tight end Adrian Cooper with 8:06 left to play gave the Steelers and rookie head coach Bill Cowher an upset over the Oilers. Houston jumped out to a 14-0 lead in the opening 10 minutes of the game and still had a 24-16 advantage at halftime. After a pair of Gary Anderson field goals trimmed Pittsburgh's deficit to 24-22, the Oilers marched to the Steelers' 3-yard line early in the fourth quarter. But on second-and-goal, Warren Moon scrambled to his right and threw across the field to his left. Pittsburgh's Rod Woodson intercepted the pass at the goal line and returned it 57 yards. The Steelers scored five plays later. O'Donnell passed for 223 yards and 2 touchdowns, while Barry Foster added 107 rushing yards for Pittsburgh. Lorenzo White rushed for 100 yards for the Oilers and Moon completed 29 of 45 passes for 330 yards, but was intercepted 5 times.

Fullback Tom Rathman, a short-yardage rushing specialist who had caught only 4 touchdown passes in his previous six seasons in the league, caught both touchdown passes from Bono as well as 1 from Young, who was knocked out in the first quarter with a concussion. Ricky Watters ran for 100 yards on 13 carries in his NFL debut after missing all of the 1991 season with a broken foot. The victory was the seventh consecutive regular-season triumph for San Francisco, which closed 1991 with six straight wins and also won all five of its preseason games in 1992.

Denver 17, L.A. Raiders 13—at Mile High Stadium, attendance 75,418. Reggie Rivers ran 1 yard for a touchdown with 55 seconds remaining to lift the Broncos past the Raiders. Rivers's run came on his only carry of the game and capped a dramatic 85-yard drive as Denver snapped a five-game losing streak to the Raiders. The five losses had come by a combined total of only 15 points, and the Broncos appeared headed for another narrow defeat in this game when they were mired on their own 15-yard line and trailing 13-10 with 2:51 left. But Broncos quarterback John Elway, who had completed only 7 of 20 passes for 99 yards to that point, connected on 3 of his next 4 attempts, including a 48-yard pass to Arthur Marshall that moved the ball to the Raiders' 8. A pass interference penalty in the end zone positioned the ball at the 1 and set up Rivers's game-winning score.

Emmitt Smith rushed for 139 yards and Dallas's special teams played a big role as the Cowboys overwhelmed the defending Super Bowl-champion Redskins. Issiac Holt blocked a punt out of the end zone for a safety on Washington's first possession, and Smith, who broke the 100-yard mark for the fourth consecutive game against the Redskins, ran 5 yards for a touchdown to give Dallas a 9-0 lead in the first quarter. It was 16-7 midway through the third period when Kelvin Martin put the game out of reach by returning a punt 79 yards for a touchdown. Washington, which finished fourth in the NFL in total offense en route to its victory in Super Bowl XXVI, was limited to only 264 total yards. The Cowboys, meanwhile, rolled up 390, including 216 through the air from quarterback Troy Aikman.

Sunday, September 13

Washington 24, Atlanta 17—at RFK Stadium, attendance 54,343. Rookie Desmond Howard returned a punt 55 yards for a touchdown to spark the defending Super Bowl-champion Redskins to their first victory of the season. Washington, which beat Atlanta in the divisional playoffs en route to its Super Bowl XXVI triumph, led 7-0 early in the second quarter when Howard took a cross-field lateral from teammate Brian Mitchell, who had fielded a Falcons' punt, and sprinted for the first touchdown of his career. Atlanta's Deion Sanders returned the ensuing kickoff 99 yards for a touchdown, but the Falcons never could get closer than 7 points. Redskins linebacker Kurt Gouveia ended Atlanta's last chance with a diving interception in the end zone with 3:41 to go.

Buffalo 34, San Francisco 31—at Candlestick Park, attendance 64,053. Thurman Thomas ran 11 yards for a touchdown with 3:04 left in the game and the Bills held on to win when the 49ers' Mike Cofer missed a potential game-tying 47-yard field goal with 54 seconds remaining. The wide-open game featured 1,086 yards of total offense, the fourth-highest single-game total in NFL history. Neither team punted, the first time in league annals that happened. San Francisco amassed 598 total yards but could not hold first-half leads of 14-3 and 24-13. Buffalo rallied from an 11-point halftime deficit on a pair of third-quarter touchdown passes from Jim Kelly to tight end Pete Metzelaars. The 49ers countered with a 54-yard touchdown pass from Steve Young to John Taylor to regain the lead at 31-27 before Thomas capped a 72-yard drive with his sixth touchdown of the young season. Kelly completed 22 of 33 passes for 403 yards and 3 touchdowns. Young was 26 of 37 for 449 yards and 3 scores. Four players caught passes for more than 100 yards: the Bills' Andre Reed (10 for 144) and Metzelaars (4 for 113), and the 49ers' Mike Sherrard (6 for 159) and Taylor (5 for 112).

Bobby Hebert threw a pair of long touchdown passes in the second half and the Saints' defense tacked on 2 more scores as New Orleans beat the Bears. Chicago led 6-0 until Hebert, who had been just 3 of 14 passing for 23 yards in the first half, teamed with Eric Martin on a 52-yard touchdown pass early in the third quarter. Fifty-eight seconds into the fourth quarter, he found Wesley Carroll on a 72-yard scoring play to put the Saints ahead 14-6. Hebert was 10 of 11 for 241 yards and the 2 touchdowns in the second half. New Orleans's 2 defensive touchdowns came only 81 seconds apart late in the game and sealed the Bears' fate.

Dallas 34, N.Y. Giants 28—at Giants Stadium, attendance 76,430. The Cowboys built a 34-0 advantage in the third quarter, then withstood a furious rally by the Giants to hang on for the victory. Dallas jumped to a 17-0 lead in the first quarter in part by blocking 1 punt (which Robert Williams returned 3 yards for a touchdown) and deflecting another (to set up a field goal) on New York's first two possessions. The Cowboys took a 34-point lead when Troy Aikman threw a 27-yard touchdown pass to Michael Irvin 1:30 into the second half. But behind Phil SImms, who tossed 3 touchdown passes, the Giants scored 4 times in a span of 17:15 of the third and fourth quarters to pull within six points. But after the last touchdown, a 2-yard pass from Simms to Howard Cross with 6:52 left, New York got the ball back only once, and was forced to punt. Simms passed for 273 yards and became the thirteenth player in NFL history to pass for 30,000 yards in his career. He finished the day at 30,008.

Moon completed 29 of 39 passes, including a 69-yard touchdown to running back Lorenzo White midway through the first quarter and a 2-yard touchdown to Haywood Jeffires to open a 17-3 advantage with 6:41 left in the third period. Cleveland Gary capped 2 short drives following turnovers with touchdown runs and the Rams snapped an 11-game losing streak dating back to the 1991 season. The game was scoreless until late in the third quarter, when Los Angeles linebacker Roman Phifer recovered a fumble by Patriots quarterback Hugh Millen at the New England 39-yard line. A pass interference penalty in the end zone moved the ball to the 1, and Gary scored on the next play. In the fourth quarter, cornerback Todd Lyght intercepted Millen's pass at the Patriots' 34 and returned it to the 11, setting up Gary's 9-yard touchdown run with 2:08 left in the game. Lyght's theft was 1 of 4 for the Rams' defense, which also recorded 7 sacks. Los Angeles kicker Tony Zendejas entered the game with a string of 23 consecutive field goals made, 1 short of tying the NFL record, but missed all 3 of his tries.

Pittsburgh turned over the ball 5 times itself, including 3 on fumbles by Foster. But it was the third-year running back's 54-yard run 55 seconds into the fourth quarter that broke a 10-10 tie and gave the Steelers the lead for good. The Jets' comeback efforts were thwarted by 4 interceptions, 1 of which was returned by Pittsburgh safety Larry Griffin 65 yards for the clinching score with 3:40 left. Miami 27, Cleveland 23—at Cleveland Stadium, attendance 74,765. Mark Higgs dived 1 yard for a touchdown with seven seconds remaining to give the Dolphins a season-opening victory and spoil a brilliant fourth-quarter comeback by the Browns. Miami was playing its first game of the season after hurricane damage in the south Florida area forced its scheduled opener against the Patriots on September 6 to be moved to October 18. The Dolphins appeared to be breezing to the victory, leading 20-3 midway through the fourth quarter. But Cleveland rallied, scoring 2 touchdowns in a span of 67 seconds to trim the deficit to 20-17. First, Bernie Kosar threw a fourth-down, 6-yard touchdown pass to Michael Jackson with 7:46 left in the game. Then, on Miami's next series, Browns linebacker Mike Johnson stripped the ball from Higgs. Linebacker Mike Brandon scooped up the loose ball and ran 32 yards for a touchdown with 6:39 to go. After the Dolphins punted, Cleveland marched 77 yards to Kosar's 3-yard touchdown pass to Mark Bavaro for a 23-20 advantage with 1:18 to go. But the Browns' lead was short-lived, as Miami marched 84 yards to the winning score. Dan Marino, who passed for 322 yards in all, completed each of his 4 attempts for 68 yards on the drive. The Dolphins also were aided by a roughing-the-passer call.

Green Bay 24, Cincinnati 23—at Lambeau Field, attendance 57,272. Brett Favre's 35-yard touchdown pass to Kitrick Taylor with 13 seconds left lifted the Packers to a dramatic victory and gave rookie head coach Mike Holmgren his first win. The touchdown pass capped a furious fourth-quarter rally by Green Bay, which trailed 17-3 early in the period. But rookie cornerback Terrell Buckley, playing in his first NFL game, got the comeback started by returning a punt 58 yards for a touchdown with 12:43 remaining. Late in the game, Jim Breech's third field goal, a 41-yarder, gave the Bengals a 23-17 advantage with 1:07 left. But Favre, working with no timeouts, marched the Packers 92 yards in only five plays. The key gain was a 42-yard completion to Sterling Sharpe. Favre was in the game only because starter Don Majkowski injured an ankle in the first quarter. Taylor was in the game because Sharpe injured his ribs on the final drive. Harold Green rushed for 101 yards on 21 carries for Cincinnati.

Cleveland 28, L.A. Raiders 16—at Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, attendance 48,102. Eric Metcalf caught 3 touchdown passes and ran for another score as the Browns, playing without injured starting quarterback Bernie Kosar, beat the Raiders. Kosar, who played much of the previous Monday night against the Dolphins on a broken ankle, was replaced by Todd Philcox. Philcox completed 10 of 20 passes for 200 yards and the 3 touchdowns in his first NFL start. Two of the scores were short passes that Metcalf turned into long touchdowns. The most critical came late in the third quarter, after the Raiders pulled within 14-13 on Jeff Jaeger's 30-yard field goal. But on the next play from scrimmage, Metcalf caught a pass from Philcox and turned it into a 69-yard touchdown. Todd Marinovich made his first start of the season for the struggling Raiders and completed 33 of a club-record 59 passes for 395 yards, but was intercepted 3 times. Los Angeles had 464 total yards to only 231 for Cleveland, but suffered 5 turnovers and 5 sacks. The Browns did not turn the ball over and did not permit a sack.

The Eagles allowed Denver only 4 first downs and 82 total yards, while limiting Broncos quarterback John Elway to 8 completions in 18 attempts for 59 yards. Denver had only 40 plays from scrimmage and was 0-for-11 on third-down opportunities. Cunningham completed 18 of 25 passes for 270 yards. He threw touchdown passes of 24 yards to Calvin Williams and 34 yards to Fred Barnett as Philadelphia built a 17-0 halftime advantage, then added a 49-yard score to Williams late in the third quarter. The Lions had a chance to tie the game with 1:42 remaining but rookie Jason Hanson, who earlier had kicked a 52-yard field goal, missed from 49 yards. Washington held Detroit to only 8 first downs and 206 total yards, and kept running back Barry Sanders in check, limiting him to only 34 yards on 14 carries.

The winning kick came only two plays after Houston cornerback Cris Dishman jarred the ball loose from Chiefs wide receiver J.J. Birden and Oilers defensive tackle Doug Smith recovered at the Kansas City 23. Del Greco's field goal was his third of the game, 1 of which was a career-best 54-yarder on the final play of the first half. Quarterback Warren Moon completed 19 of 28 passes for 279 yards and a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns that rallied the Oilers from a seven-point deficit to a 20-13 lead. Miami drove 76 yards on its first possession and 60 yards on its second for a quick 14-0 advantage. Pete Stoyanovich added a 36-yard field goal late in the first quarter. The Rams got as close as 20-10 when Tony Zendejas kicked a 31-yard field goal 26 seconds into the fourth quarter, but the Dolphins quelled any comeback hopes by eating up more than seven minutes on a 71-yard drive en route to the third of Stoyanovich's 4 field goals. The Falcons had taken a 7-0 lead on a 14-yard touchdown pass from Chris Miller to Mike Pritchard just 24 seconds before halftime. Neil O'Donnell threw 2 touchdown passes and ran for another and Bill Cowher became the first head coach in Steelers history to begin his career 3-0 when his team downed the Chargers. San Diego trailed only 7-6 midway through the third quarter before the game got out of reach. First, kicker John Carney missed a 25-yard field-goal try that would have given San Diego the lead. Then Pittsburgh took possession and drove 80 yards to O'Donnell's 6-yard touchdown pass to Dwight Stone 46 seconds into the fourth quarter. Linebacker David Little's interception on the next play from scrimmage set up O'Donnell's 1-yard run that increased the Steelers' advantage to 20-6.

Young threw a 5-yard touchdown pass to Jerry Rice in the first quarter and passed 8 yards for a score to tight end Jamie Williams just 40 seconds before halftime. In between, he also ran 10 yards for a touchdown as the 49ers took a 24-0 halftime advantage. Ken O'Brien completed 23 of 42 passes for 264 yards for New York. Quarterback Hugh Millen had driven the Patriots from their 20-yard line to the Seattle 25, but underthrew intended receiver Irving Fryar on the deciding play. New England could not tie the game with a field goal on its final drive because of a costly missed extra-point attempt following its lone touchdown. Seahawks running back Chris Warren rushed for a career-high 122 yards and 1 touchdown on 24 carries. Defensive tackle Cortez Kennedy had 2½ sacks and forced a pair of fumbles. Salisbury replaced starter Rich Gannon, who was knocked from the game with an injured wrist, which he suffered when he threw a 30-yard scoring pass to Carter in the first quarter. After Carter's score, Minnesota fell behind 13-7. But Terry Allen, who rushed for 87 yards, ran 1 yard for the go-ahead touchdown with 9:28 left in the third quarter. Interceptions by linebacker Michael Brooks and safety Dennis Smith set up Treadwell's second and third field goals, and Denver put the game away by driving 94 yards to the final three-pointer with 3:28 left in the game. Reggie Rivers got that drive on track by breaking a 48-yard run from the Broncos' 5-yard line. The Browns used free-agent signee Mike Tomczak at quarterback after Todd Philcox, who had been filling in for injured starter Bernie Kosar, broke his thumb in a victory over the Raiders one week earlier. Tomczak completed only 9 of 19 passes for 75 yards and 2 interceptions. Anthony Pleasant and Rob Burnett each had 1½ sacks for Cleveland, which dropped Denver quarterback John Elway 5 times.

Dan Marino shook off a mild concussion and completed a 15-yard touchdown pass to Fred Banks with 2:45 left in the game to give the Dolphins the victory. The Miami quarterback was injured when hit while throwing an incomplete pass on the winning drive, which covered 80 yards in 12 plays. He left the game and was replaced by first-year quarterback Scott Mitchell, who converted a key third-down-and-10 with an 18-yard completion on his first NFL pass. Marino, who completed 24 of 39 passes for 260 yards, then came back in the game and found Banks for the winning score three plays later. Pete Stoyanovich kept the Dolphins in position to win by making all 4 of his field-goal tries, including a 27-yarder 1:24 into the fourth quarter to give Miami a 12-10 lead. But minutes later, linebacker Terry Wooden's interception set up a 4-yard touchdown run by John L. Williams that gave the Seahawks a 17-12 advantage with 9:51 to go.

Both of Green Bay's touchdowns came on one-play drives. With the score tied 3-3 in the second quarter, the Packers' Vinnie Clark blocked a 20-yard field-goal try by Gary Anderson. On the next play, Favre hit Sterling Sharpe on a 76-yard touchdown pass for a 10-3 lead. Early in the fourth quarter, Green Bay fell on Rod Woodson's fumbled punt return at Pittsburgh's 8-yard line. Favre's 8-yard touchdown pass to rookie wide receiver Robert Brooks provided the final points. The Steelers drove 57 yards to Anderson's 35-yard field goal on their first possession of the game, but could not score after that. Pittsburgh's Barry Foster ran for 117 yards on 12 carries, his third 100-yard effort in four games, and Dwight Stone caught 5 passes for 101 yards. Favre completed 14 of 19 passes for 210 yards for the Packers.

Stan Humphries completed 22 of 38 passes for 219 yards for San Diego, but was intercepted 3 times. The Chargers fell to 0-4 for the first time since 1971.

Tampa Bay 27, Detroit 23—at Pontiac Silverdome, attendance 51,374. Vinny Testaverde's 14-yard touchdown pass to tight end Ron Hall with 49 seconds left gave the Buccaneers their first road victory after 15 consecutive losses and ended the Lions' 11-game winning streak at home. Tampa Bay's win wasn't secured, however, until cornerback Milton Mack tackled Detroit wide receiver Brett Perriman at the Buccaneers' 3-yard line as time expired. The lead changed hands three times in the final 6:01. First, Tampa Bay rookie defensive tackle Santana Dotson caught a fumble out of the air and returned it 42 yards for a touchdown to put the Buccaneers on top 20-16. The Lions' Mel Gray returned the ensuing kickoff 89 yards for a touchdown and a 23-20 lead for Detroit. But Tampa Bay marched 80 yards in 14 plays, converting three third-down opportunities along the way, to the winning score. Testaverde passed for 248 yards and Reggie Cobb rushed for 107 for the Buccaneers, who rolled up 395 total yards. The Lions nearly matched that, recording 368. Rodney Peete passed for 323 yards and Perriman caught 9 passes for 117 yards.

Sunday Night, September 27

San Francisco 16, New Orleans 10—at Louisiana Superdome, attendance 68,591. Struggling kicker Mike Cofer connected on 3 field goals and Eric Davis intercepted a pass in the end zone in the closing seconds to preserve the 49ers' victory. Cofer, who came into the game only 3 of 7 on field-goal attempts for the year, successfully converted all 3 of his kicks, including a pair in the fourth quarter to break a 10-10 tie. After his 42-yarder with 6:54 left gave San Francisco a six-point lead, the Saints drove to the 49ers' 24-yard line before fumbling the ball away. New Orleans had one more chance and reached the 2 in the final minute until a holding penalty pushed the ball back to the 12 and Davis intercepted Bobby Hebert's pass in the end zone with 10 seconds to go. Hebert completed 25 of 40 passes for 267 yards, but was intercepted 3 times. The Saints outgained San Francisco 336-333, but turned over the ball 5 times. 49ers rookie running back Ricky Watters rushed for 76 yards and caught 7 passes for 52 more.

Dave Krieg ran for 2 touchdowns as the Chiefs kept pace with the Broncos for the AFC Western Division lead and dropped the Raiders to 0-4 for the first time in 28 years. Los Angeles took the lead 14 seconds into the second quarter on Eric Dickerson's 40-yard run, his first touchdown as a Raider. But the first of Krieg's 2 touchdown runs, a 3-yarder 6:03 before halftime, tied the score, and Nick Lowery's 22-yard field goal with 1:03 left in the half gave Kansas City the lead for good. Rookie safety Charles Mincy intercepted his first NFL pass and returned it 25 yards for a touchdown to close the scoring late in the fourth quarter. The Chiefs' Barry Word rushed for 125 yards on 27 carries.

Sunday, October 4

Minnesota 21, Chicago 20—at Metrodome, attendance 60,992. Roger Craig's 1-yard touchdown run with 1:46 left in the game capped a stirring fourth-quarter comeback in which the Vikings erased a 20-point deficit to beat the Bears. The victory, coupled with the Buccaneers' loss to the Colts, lifted Minnesota into sole possession of first place in the NFC Central Division. Chicago appeared to be in complete control after taking the second-half kickoff and holding the ball for 10:27 on a 91-yard touchdown drive that lifted its advantage to 20-0. But safety Todd Scott intercepted a Jim Harbaugh pass and returned it 35 yards for a touchdown 57 seconds into the fourth quarter to ignite the Vikings' comeback. Minnesota's Rich Gannon completed 20 of 25 passes for 187 yards, including a 16-yard touchdown pass to Cris Carter that trimmed the deficit to 20-14 with 9:37 to play. Gannon connected on all 7 of his attempts on the Vikings' 2 touchdown drives. By winning, Minnesota improved its record to 4-1 for the first time in 15 years.

Two of Miller's scoring tosses went to Andre Rison, giving the wide receiver 5 touchdown receptions in two weeks. The pair teamed on a 10-yard score late in the first quarter, and on a 21-yard score to secure the outcome with 6:07 left in the game. Former Falcon Brett Favre completed 33 of 43 passes for 276 yards for Green Bay. Wide receiver Sterling Sharpe had 9 catches for 107 yards, including a 15-yard touchdown in the third quarter.

Indianapolis 24, Tampa Bay 14—at Tampa Stadium, attendance 56,585. Jeff George, playing in his first game since injuring the thumb on his throwing hand in the preseason, passed for 2 touchdowns in the second half as the Colts came back to beat the Buccaneers. Indianapolis controlled the ball for only 30 seconds in the first quarter and for 6:30 of the first half, but found itself trailing just 14-7 at the intermission, thanks to a 46-yard interception return by Chris Goode that set up Rodney Culver's 2-yard touchdown run. The Colts then marched 71 yards with their first possession of the second half, tying the score on George's 34-yard touchdown pass to Jessie Hester. Dean Biasucci's 45-yard field goal with 5:49 left in the third quarter put Indianapolis ahead for good, and George added a 14-yard touchdown pass to tight end Kerry Cash midway through the fourth quarter. After a slow start (2 of his first 3 passes were intercepted), George finished with 15 completions in 33 attempts for 234 yards. Tampa Bay's Vinny Testaverde was 23 of 47 for 286 yards.

Denver 20, Kansas City 19—at Mile High Stadium, attendance 75,629. John Elway's 2 touchdown passes in the final two minutes, including a 12-yard completion to Vance Johnson with 38 seconds to go, gave the Broncos a dramatic victory and sole possession of first place in the AFC Western Division. After Nick Lowery's fourth field goal of the game gave the Chiefs a 19-6 lead with five minutes remaining, Elway jumpstarted a lackluster Denver offense that had not scored a touchdown in 12 quarters. First, the Broncos moved 80 yards in 14 plays to trim the deficit to 19-13 on a 25-yard touchdown pass from Elway to Mark Jackson. After Kansas City failed to make a first down, rookie Arthur Marshall returned a punt 28 yards to the Chiefs' 27-yard line to set up the winning touchdown pass. Elway shook off 5 sacks, including 3 by defensive end Neil Smith, to complete 23 of 38 passes for 311 yards, including 9 for 118 yards to tight end Shannon Sharpe. Kansas City's Dave Krieg was 22 of 31 for 301 yards, including a 50-yard touchdown to wide receiver Willie Davis in the second quarter. Davis caught 5 passes for 127 yards.

San Francisco 27, L.A. Rams 24—at Candlestick Park, attendance 63,071. Mike Cofer kicked a 21-yard field goal with one second remaining to give the 49ers the victory after a furious fourth quarter. San Francisco entered the period leading 10-7 but the Rams rallied, tying the score on a 33-yard field goal by Tony Zendejas with 12:56 left. Los Angeles then took the lead on cornerback Robert Bailey's 24-yard interception return just 26 seconds later. The 49ers countered with touchdown runs of 8 and 39 yards by quarterback Steve Young, the latter coming at the 3:55 mark. The Rams drove 69 yards to tie it again on a 9-yard touchdown pass from Jim Everett to Willie Anderson with 1:50 left. But Young passed 43 yards to Brent Jones and 26 yards to Jerry Rice on the ensuing 77-yard march that set up Cofer's winning field goal.

Safety Louis Oliver returned 1 of his 3 interceptions an NFL record-tying 103 yards for a touchdown to help lead the Dolphins past the previously undefeated Bills. Oliver's interception return equaled the league record established by San Diego's Vencie Glenn against Denver in 1987, and gave Miami an insurmountable 31-10 advantage with 4:38 left in the third quarter. Oliver finished with 170 return yards on his thefts, and cornerback J.B. Brown added 48 more yards on a second-quarter interception return that set up a touchdown. Dan Marino passed for 282 yards and 3 touchdowns, including a 24-yard pass to tight end Keith Jackson, who had signed as a free agent earlier in the week. Buffalo's Jim Kelly completed 25 of 48 passes for 306 yards, but was victimized by the 4 interceptions.

New Orleans 13, Detroit 7—at Pontiac Silverdome, attendance 66,971. The Saints' defense registered 6 sacks and limited the Lions to 187 total yards while handing the defending NFC Central Division champions their fourth loss in five games. New Orleans also converted the game's lone turnover into the deciding touchdown midway through the third quarter. Defensive end Frank Warren recovered a fumbled handoff at the Detroit 17-yard line, and four plays later rookie Vaughn Dunbar ran 1 yard for the touchdown that gave the Saints the lead. New Orleans made the advantage stand up by controlling the ball for more than 40 of the game's 60 minutes, and by not allowing the Lions to move the ball past the Detroit 34 in the second half. Linebacker Pat Swilling and defensive end Wayne Martin each had 2 sacks for the Saints. Kicker Morten Andersen had a 50-yard field goal, his NFL record-tying nineteenth career three-pointer of 50 or more yards.

L.A. Raiders 13, N.Y. Giants 10—at Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, attendance 43,103. Jeff Jaeger atoned for a pair of missed field-goal attempts earlier in the game by kicking a career-best 54-yarder with 7:15 remaining to give the Raiders the victory, their first after seven consecutive regular-season defeats dating back to the 1991 season. The Giants led 10-0 at halftime, though it could have have been more—they were forced to settle for Matt Bahr's 18-yard field goal two seconds before intermission after driving 79 yards, only to be turned away at the 1. Jaeger's 26-yard field goal and a 68-yard touchdown pass from Todd Marinovich to Tim Brown, who outleaped New York cornerback Mark Collins for a short pass and then sprinted to the end zone, tied the score before Los Angeles drove 44 yards to the go-ahead field goal. Marinovich, who completed 14 of 23 passes for 216 yards with no interceptions, passed 33 yards to Willie Gault for the key play on the winning drive. The Raiders' defense held after that, allowing the Giants to get no closer than Los Angeles's 42.

Miller, who had 9 receptions for 142 yards, also caught a 5-yard scoring pass 12 seconds before halftime to give San Diego a 17-3 lead at the intermission. The Chargers' defense limited the Seahawks to 11 first downs and 180 total yards. Seattle quarterback Kelly Stouffer suffered a dislocated shoulder when sacked by Chargers defensive end Leslie O'Neal in the second quarter. Stouffer's replacement, Dan McGwire, completed 12 of 21 passes, but for only 70 yards. He was intercepted 3 times and sacked 3 times.

Chris Chandler's 9-yard touchdown pass to running back Larry Centers with 41 seconds left gave the Cardinals a stunning come-from-behind victory. Phoenix cornerback Robert Massey ignited the rally by returning a pair of fourth-quarter interceptions for touchdowns. Washington led 24-6 through three quarters. But Massey struck on the first play of the fourth quarter, stepping in front of a pass intended for Art Monk and returning it 31 yards to make it 24-13 nine seconds into the period. He returned his second theft 41 yards to trim the deficit to 24-20 with 8:05 to play. After a Redskins' punt, Chandler marched the Cardinals 85 yards to the winning score, completing all 6 of his attempts along the way. The Redskins still had a chance to tie, but Chip Lohmiller's 40-yard field-goal try failed as time expired.

Browning Nagle passed for 2 touchdowns and Cary Blanchard, claimed on waivers from New Orleans earlier in the week, kicked 3 field goals in his first game with the Jets. The victory was the first of the season for New York, and left the Patriots as the NFL's lone team without a win in 1992. Nagle's 7-yard touchdown pass to Terance Mathis gave the Jets a 17-0 lead 31 seconds before halftime. His 19-yard touchdown pass to Rob Moore put the game out of reach at 30-14 with four minutes remaining. Hugh Millen completed 23 of 33 passes for 259 yards for the Patriots, but was intercepted 2 times and sacked 7 times, twice each by Marvin Washington and Paul Frase. Former Cowboys running back Herschel Walker rushed for 86 yards and 2 touchdowns, and the Eagles forced 4 turnovers en route to their victory over Dallas. Philadelphia's 3 interceptions and 1 fumble recovery led to 3 Eagles touchdowns. Walker helped capitalize on 2 of the miscues by rushing 9 yards for a touchdown in the third quarter and 16 yards for a score in the fourth. Those runs turned a tight 10-7 game into a 24-7 rout. In addition to intercepting Dallas quarterback Troy Aikman 3 times, Philadelphia recorded 4 sacks. Despite constant pressure, Aikman managed to complete 19 of 38 passes for 256 yards. Miami 21, Atlanta 17—at Joe Robbie Stadium, attendance 68,633. Mark Higgs ran 1 yard for a touchdown with 5:01 left in the game as the Dolphins averted an upset to stand as the lone undefeated team in the NFL. The Falcons were in control, leading 17-7 late in the third quarter, until Miami safety Vestee Jackson intercepted a pass from Chris Miller and returned it 30 yards to trim the margin to 17-14. Higgs's winning run concluded a 77-yard drive, the key play a 46-yard pass completion from Dan Marino to Tony Martin. Marino passed for 250 yards and Higgs, who also had a 14-yard touchdown run in the first quarter, scored twice. Miller completed 26 of 41 passes for 254 yards and 2 touchdowns for the Falcons. Andre Rison caught 7 passes for 101 yards, including a 22-yard touchdown to give Atlanta its 10-point lead midway through the third quarter.

Todd Marinovich passed for 2 touchdowns and the Raiders didn't allow the NFL's top-ranked offense to reach the end zone. Marinovich's 2-yard scoring toss to running back Eric Dickerson put Los Angeles ahead 7-0 in the first quarter, and the Raiders built a 14-3 cushion in the second period when Tim Brown took a short pass from Marinovich and bolted 52 yards for a touchdown. The Bills got 302 passing yards from Jim Kelly and amassed 350 total yards, but had a pair of fourth-quarter drives stall deep in Los Angeles territory. The Raiders also got to Kelly for 5 sacks, including 2 each by defensive ends Howie Long and Anthony Smith. The Bill's scoring output was their lowest since they scored 3 points against the Bears in 1988.

Houston 38, Cincinnati 24—at Riverfront Stadium, attendance 54,254. Warren Moon threw 5 touchdown passes and Lorenzo White rushed for a career-high 149 yards to help the Oilers breeze past the Bengals. Haywood Jeffires caught 3 of the touchdown passes and Ernest Givins grabbed the other 2 as Houston won its fourth consecutive game and moved into sole possession of first place in the AFC Central. Cincinnati entered the game with the poorest pass defense in the NFL and decided to take the long pass away from Moon. Though the Oilers' quarterback was held in check with 216 yards on his 32 pass attempts, he matched his career mark for touchdown passes, throwing his fifth with 8:25 to play in the third quarter, by which time his team led 38-10. Houston amassed 418 total yards, including 202 rushing.

Indianapolis 6, N.Y. Jets 3—at Hoosier Dome, attendance 48,393. Dean Biasucci's 47-yard field goal 3:01 into overtime gave the Colts—who won only one game all of 1991—their third victory of the season. After Jets rookie Cary Blanchard tied the game on a 35-yard field goal with 30 seconds left in regulation, Indianapolis took the kickoff in the extra session and marched 34 yards in 8 plays to the winning kick. The Colts had big advantages in most statistical categories: 22-8 in first downs, 282-147 in total yards, and 39:10-23:51 in time of possession. They were particularly dominant in the first half, running 46 plays to New York's 13. The Jets also were whistled for 10 penalties. But until the overtime, Indianapolis couldn't capitalize as Biasucci missed 3 field-goal tries, and quarterback Jeff George threw an interception in the end zone when his receiver turned the wrong way

Kansas City 24, Philadelphia 17—at Arrowhead Stadium, attendance 76,626. The run-oriented Chiefs took to the air to hand the Eagles their first loss of the season, as quarterback Dave Krieg passed for 272 yards and 3 touchdowns. Philadelphia entered the game with the league's best defense overall and against the run, so Kansas City came out firing. Krieg threw passes on each of the game's first five plays, the fifth a 43-yard touchdown to J.J. Birden. He added a 24-yard touchdown to Birden just 20 seconds before halftime, then gave the Chiefs what proved to be an insurmountable 21-3 advantage with a 74-yard bomb to Willie Davis midway through the third quarter. Eagles quarterback Randall Cunningham, who was sacked 6 times and threw 2 interceptions, rallied his team with a pair of fourth-quarter touchdown passes to tight end Pat Beach, but it wasn't enough. Davis caught 5 passes for 167 yards for Kansas City. Outside linebacker Derrick Thomas had 3 sacks and defensive end Neil Smith added 2. Krieg's 3 touchdown passes gave him 201 for his career. He was the fifteenth player in league history to reach the 200 mark.

N.Y. Giants 31, Phoenix 21—at Giants Stadium, attendance 70,042. Rodney Hampton rushed for a career-high 167 yards to lead the Giants to their ninth consecutive win over the Cardinals. Jeff Hostetler, making his first start of the season in place of injured Phil Simms, passed for 142 yards, including a 25-yard touchdown to Ed McCaffrey. Hostetler also scrambled 16 yards for a touchdown midway through the third quarter to give the Giants a 28-14 lead. The Cardinals' Ernie Jones caught a 72-yard touchdown pass on the fourth play of the game to give his team an early lead. But Hampton responded with a 63-yard touchdown run to pull New York even, and the Giants scored on each of their next two possessions to build a 21-7 advantage. New York finished the game with 260 rushing yards and 399 total yards.

Cleveland 17, Pittsburgh 9—at Cleveland Stadium, attendance 78,080. Kevin Mack's 1-yard touchdown run capped a 90-yard, third-quarter touchdown drive and provided the winning points in the Browns' victory. Mack's run gave Cleveland a 10-6 advantage with 5:20 remaining in the third quarter. After the Steelers' Gary Anderson kicked his third field goal of the game, a 40-yarder with 13:52 left to pull his team within one point, the Browns added an insurance touchdown on Mike Tomczak's 47-yard touchdown pass to Michael Jackson with 10:44 to go. Pittsburgh dominated the game statistically, recording 20 first downs to Cleveland's 12, totaling 350 yards to 253, and maintaining possession for nearly 35 minutes. But the Steelers had a touchdown called back by a penalty, had 1 field-goal attempt hit the upright, and were forced to settle for three-pointers on 3 other occasions. Steelers quarterback Neil O'Donnell, who completed his first 11 passes, finished 25 of 32 for 241 yards. Barry Foster gained 133 yards rushing and receiving.

San Francisco 24, New England 12—at Foxboro Stadium, attendance 54,126. Ricky Watters's 2 fourth-quarter touchdowns lifted the 49ers past the stubborn Patriots. New England, still winless in 1992, took a 12-10 advantage—their first lead of the season—on Hugh Millen's 11-yard touchdown pass to tight end Ben Coates late in the third quarter. But Watters began a 75-yard march to the go-ahead score with a 30-yard run, and ended it by catching a 2-yard touchdown pass from Steve Young with 8:52 left in the game. He put the game out of reach by running 1 yard for the clinching score with 2:21 to go. Young passed for 234 yards and also had a 32-yard scoring toss to Jerry Rice in the second quarter. Watters ran for 104 yards on 19 carries and caught 8 passes for 84 yards. The Patriots scored all of their points following special-teams mistakes by San Francisco: the touchdown and a field goal after fumbled punt returns, and another field goal after a bobbled snap aborted a punt attempt.

Dallas 27, Seattle 0—at Texas Stadium, attendance 62,311. The Cowboys set a club record by limiting the Seahawks to only 62 total yards while recording their first regular-season shutout since 1978. Dallas's defense recorded 7 sacks, including 2 each by ends Tony Tolbert and Jim Jeffcoat, recovered 2 fumbles, and intercepted a pass, which safety Ray Horton returned 15 yards for a touchdown. Seattle managed only 6 first downs and 24 net yards passing. The Seahawks, already playing without injured starting quarterback Kelly Stouffer, suffered another blow when his replacement, Dan McGwire, was knocked out of the game with hip and shoulder injuries. Emmitt Smith rushed for 78 yards and a pair of short touchdowns for the Cowboys. Michael Irvin caught 6 passes for 113 yards.

New Orleans 13, L.A. Rams 10—at Louisiana Superdome, attendance 68,591. Morten Andersen's 30-yard field goal with 3:37 left was the difference as the Saints edged the Rams. Los Angeles was poised for an upset after Cleveland Gary capped a 75-yard drive with a 1-yard touchdown run late in the third quarter to tie the game at 10-10. But New Orleans rookie Marcus Dowdell, playing in his first NFL game, returned a punt 34 yards to the Rams' 37-yard line to position his team for the winning drive. The Saints allowed Los Angeles only 196 total yards while sacking quarterback Jim Everett 4 times. Linebacker Rickey Jackson had 3 of the sacks. New Orleans wide receiver Eric Martin caught 6 passes for 103 yards, including a 5-yard touchdown catch in the first quarter.

Washington 34, Denver 3—at RFK Stadium, attendance 56,371. Quarterback Mark Rypien accounted for 3 touchdowns and wide receiver Art Monk became the NFL's all-time leading pass catcher during the Redskins' rout. Rypien completed 16 of 26 passes for 245 yards, including a 44-yard touchdown to Gary Clark in the second quarter. He also twice sneaked 1 yard for scores. Meanwhile, Washington's defense was allowing the Broncos only 7 first downs and 128 total yards while forcing 4 turnovers and making 5 sacks. Linebacker Wilber Marshall returned an interception 20 yards for a touchdown 42 seconds before halftime to put the Redskins ahead 24-3. Monk caught 7 passes (for 69 yards) to give him 820 receptions for his career, 1 better than Steve Largent, the previous record holder. He caught 3 consecutive passes on a fourth-quarter drive, the record-breaker coming on a 10-yard catch with 3:12 left.

Minnesota 31, Detroit 14—at Metrodome, attendance 52,816. The Vikings scored touchdowns on their first three possessions, added a field goal on their fourth, and cruised past the Lions. Quarterback Rich Gannon threw touchdown passes of 47 yards to Anthony Carter and 43 yards to Hassan Jones, and after an interception by cornerback Carl Lee, Terry Allen ran 1 yard to give Minnesota a 21-0 lead in the first quarter. Gannon left the game early in the second quarter with a hyperextended knee and was replaced by Sean Salisbury, who threw a 29-yard touchdown pass to Cris Carter in the fourth quarter. Anthony Carter had 109 yards on 5 catches for the Vikings, who totaled 393 yards of offense. Brett Perriman caught 8 passes for 124 yards for the defending NFC Central Division-champion Lions, who lost their fourth straight.

San Francisco 56, Atlanta 17—at Candlestick Park, attendance 63,302. Steve Young passed for 399 yards and 3 touchdowns, and wide receiver Jerry Rice and running back Ricky Watters each scored 3 touchdowns as the 49ers blasted the Falcons. San Francisco rolled up 590 total yards en route to setting a club single-game scoring record, eclipsing the old mark established in its 55-10 victory over the Broncos in Super Bowl XXIV. Young, who completed 18 of 28 passes, had 336 passing yards in the first half alone as the 49ers built a 42-10 lead by intermission. Rice caught 7 passes for 183 yards and ran 26 yards for a touchdown on a reverse in the third quarter. He became only the eighth player in NFL history to score 100 career touchdowns and finished the day with 102, good for sixth on the all-time list. His 2 touchdown receptions gave him 97 for his career, only 3 behind Steve Largent's league-record 100. Watters, the first-year player, scored 3 touchdowns in a game for the first time and had 132 rushing and receiving yards.

Cleveland 17, Green Bay 6—at Cleveland Stadium, attendance 69,268. Kevin Mack capped a pair of long scoring drives with touchdown runs to lead the Browns to their third victory in four games. Mack's 4-yard run at the end of a 73-yard drive broke a 3-3 tie and gave Cleveland the lead for good at 10-3 with 3:54 left in the third quarter. Midway through the fourth period, the Browns marched 80 yards to Mack's 5-yard run to put the game away. Meanwhile, Cleveland's defense stretched its string to 13 consecutive quarters without allowing a touchdown. The Packers managed 5 trips inside the Browns' 30-yard line, but could come away with only a pair of field goals.

Denver 27, Houston 21—at Mile High Stadium, attendance 74,827. Reggie Rivers's 20-yard touchdown run with 1:34 remaining capped another John Elway-led comeback that gave the Broncos the victory. The Oilers had taken a 21-20 lead on a 7-yard touchdown pass from Warren Moon to Haywood Jeffires at the end of a 94-yard drive with 1:56 to play. But Elway, the Denver quarterback who already had engineered 30 game-winning drives in the fourth-quarter or overtime in his career, including an 87-yard march to beat the Oilers in a 1991 divisional playoff game, marched Denver 80 yards in only 22 seconds for the winning score. From the Broncos' 20-yard line, Elway passed 39 yards to Mark Jackson, then found Vance Johnson for 21 yards to position Rivers for the winning run. It was Rivers's only rushing attempt of the day. Moon completed 23 of 39 passes for 321 yards and wide receiver Curtis Duncan had 133 yards on 5 receptions for the Oilers. But Moon, who had been sacked only 4 times all season entering the game, was dropped 4 times by the Broncos' defense, including 2½ times by linebacker Simon Fletcher. Denver's Gaston Green ran for 98 yards on only 8 carries, including a 67-yard touchdown run in the second quarter.

Dallas 17, Kansas City 10—at Texas Stadium, attendance 64,115. The Cowboys took over sole possession of first place in the NFC Eastern Division for the first time since 1986 by beating the Chiefs. Emmitt Smith's 2-yard touchdown run early in the second quarter gave Dallas a 14-3 lead and what proved to be all the points the Cowboys would need. Kansas City pulled within 14-10 at halftime on a 2-yard run by Barry Word, but Lin Elliott's third-quarter field goal for Dallas was the only scoring of the second half. The Chiefs' best chance to tie came after rookie defensive back Dale Carter intercepted a pass from Troy Aikman at the Cowboys' 47-yard line late in the game. But after reaching the 26, Kansas City was turned away by Dallas safety Ray Horton, who stepped in front of a pass from Dave Krieg to make an interception at the 8 with 3:27 to play, and the Cowboys held on for their tenth consecutive victory at Texas Stadium.

L.A. Raiders 19, Seattle 0—at Kingdome, attendance 56,904. The Raiders' defense recorded 6 sacks and a safety en route to shutting out the injury-riddled Seahawks. End Anthony Smith had 4 of the sacks as Los Angeles harassed Seattle quarterback Stan Gelbaugh, the team's third starting quarterback in as many weeks, into only 17 completions in 41 attempts. The Seahawks were just as ineffective on the ground, gaining only 41 rushing yards while getting shut out for the second straight week, the first time that had happened in franchise history. It also was their third consecutive game without a touchdown. The Raiders lost starting quarterback Todd Marinovich in the first quarter after he suffered a sprained knee while being sacked by Seattle defensive tackle Cortez Kennedy. But backup Jay Schroeder passed 4 yards to Willie Gault for a touchdown in the second quarter and Nick Bell ran 66 yards for a score in the fourth period. Bell finished with 97 yards on only 10 carries. Fellow running back Eric Dickerson gained only 24 yards on 9 carries, but moved past Tony Dorsett into second place on the NFL's career rushing list with 12,744 yards.

Miami 38, New England 17—at Joe Robbie Stadium, attendance 57,282. Dan Marino passed for 294 yards and 4 touchdowns in only three quarters of play and the Dolphins overcame a slow start to remain unbeaten and keep the Patriots winless. After spotting New England a 10-0 lead in the first quarter, Miami responded with 5 touchdowns and a field goal on its next 6 possessions. Marino tossed scoring passes of 44 yards to Mark Clayton and 43 yards to Mark Duper, and hit tight end Keith Jackson with 6- and 11-yard scores. It was the seventeenth time in his career that Marino passed for 4 touchdowns in a game, equaling Johnny Unitas's NFL record. The game originally was scheduled to be played on the opening weekend of the season, but was shifted to the teams' bye weekend after a hurricane struck south Florida and forced a postponement. With the victory, the Dolphins raised their record to 6-0, their best start since 1984, their last Super Bowl season.

Chris Chandler's 7-yard touchdown pass to Ernie Jones midway through the second quarter gave Phoenix a 14-3 advantage. But Hebert countered with an 11-yard touchdown pass to Eric Martin 1:04 before halftime to trim the margin to 14-10 at intermission. He connected with running back Dalton Hilliard (15 yards) and wide receiver Quinn Early (59 yards) in the third quarter to give New Orleans the lead for good. Martin finished with 8 receptions for 151 yards. The Saints, who had not scored more than 2 touchdowns in any of their previous six games, had 399 yards of total offense.

Jim Everett completed 18 of 21 passes for 242 yards and 2 touchdowns to lead the Rams to a surprisingly easy victory over the Giants. Leading 14-10 at halftime, Los Angeles broke the game open by scoring 24 points in the second half. The Rams scored on a 46-yard field goal by Tony Zendejas and a 19-yard pass from Everett to Jeff Chadwick in the third quarter. The scoring pass capped an 81-yard drive that took 12 plays and made the score 24-10. Cleveland Gary, who ran for a pair of touchdowns, gained 126 yards on 31 carries, both career highs.

Washington 16, Philadelphia 12—at RFK Stadium, attendance 55,198. The Redskins drove to a touchdown on the game's opening possession, then used 3 Chip Lohmiller field goals and a stifling defense to upend the Eagles in an NFC Eastern Division showdown. Earnest Byner carried eight consecutive plays on the 11-play, 61-yard drive to open the game, and Mark Rypien hit Gary Clark with a 10-yard touchdown pass after 7:21 to give Washington a 7-0 advantage. Though the Redskins were able to penetrate deep into Philadelphia territory the rest of the game, a missed field goal and an end-zone interception helped limit them to only 9 points after that. But the Eagles fared no better, totaling just 78 yards in the first half and getting only a concession safety and touchdown in the closing seconds of the second half. Philadelphia's Randall Cunningham gained 39 yards on 5 rushes to become the NFL's career leader in rushing yards by a quarterback. But he was under constant pressure all day, suffering 5 sacks.

San Diego 34, Indianapolis 14—at Hoosier Dome, attendance 48,552. Rod Bernstine ran for a career-high 150 yards and 2 touchdowns on 23 carries to help the Chargers beat the Colts. Bernstine had to leave the game with a shoulder injury one minute into the fourth quarter, however, and was expected to miss about six weeks. San Diego entered the game without a first-quarter touchdown in any of its five previous games and having scored only 46 points in all. But the Chargers took the opening kickoff and marched 81 yards in 8 plays to a touchdown and a 7-0 lead. Bernstine carried 5 times for 53 yards and capped the drive by scoring from 25 yards out. His 2-yard run the next time San Diego had the ball made it 14-0 and the Chargers never were threatened after that. San Diego finished with 212 rushing yards and 392 total yards. Indianapolis quarterback Jeff George completed 27 of 39 passes for 318 yards (Jessie Hester had 9 catches for 126 yards), but was intercepted twice and sacked 5 times. The Colts also lost 3 fumbles.

Chicago 31, Tampa Bay 14—at Soldier Field, attendance 61,412. Jim Harbaugh passed for a career-high 304 yards and a pair of touchdowns in the Bears' victory. Chicago opened the game by driving 85 yards and 74 yards to touchdowns on its first two possessions for a 14-0 lead. Running back Brad Muster scored both touchdowns from 1 yard out, the first on a run and the second on a pass from Harbaugh. In the third quarter, Harbaugh connected with Anthony Morgan over the middle, and when two defenders collided, Morgan raced to the end zone to complete an 83-yard touchdown play that made it 21-7. The Buccaneers stayed close on Reggie Cobb's 1-yard touchdown run on the first play of the fourth quarter, but they could not generate the tying score. Kevin Butler's 26-yard field goal with 2:59 left in the game and Darren Lewis's 7-yard run 1:05 later, after Tampa Bay turned the ball over on downs at its 9-yard line, completed the scoring. Cobb finished with 109 yards on 24 carries, while Buccaneers rookie wide receiver Courtney Hawkins caught 5 passes for 102 yards and a touchdown. Chicago wide receiver Tom Waddle had 114 receiving yards on just 3 catches.

Pittsburgh 20, Cincinnati 0—at Three Rivers Stadium, attendance 55,411. Dwight Stone caught a pair of touchdown passes and the Steelers dominated the Bengals en route to handing Cincinnati its fourth consecutive defeat. Pittsburgh gained 424 yards to only 118 for the Bengals, had 26 first downs to only 6, and controlled the ball for more than 38 minutes. Steelers quarterback Neil O'Donnell completed 23 of 37 passes for 287 yards, and running back Barry Foster gained 108 yards on 24 carries. Stone caught 6 passes and set up the first of his 2 touchdowns by running 30 yards on a reverse. Jeff Graham added 7 catches for 115 yards. Nothing went right for the Bengals, who also were penalized 8 times for 49 yards. Cincinnati kicker Jim Breech, who missed a 47-yard field-goal attempt, had his NFL-record scoring streak snapped at 186 games.

Sunday, October 25

Chicago 30, Green Bay 10—at Lambeau Field, attendance 59,435. Chris Gardocki threw a 43-yard pass to Mark Green from punt formation to set up the key score as the Bears posted back-to-back victories for the first time this season. The punter's pass came on fourth-and-6 from the Packers' 48-yard line with the score tied 3-3 midway through the second quarter. Moments later, Brad Muster ran 1 yard for the touchdown that gave Chicago the lead for good. Jim Harbaugh's 4-yard touchdown pass to tight end Keith Jennings with 1:54 left in the first half opened up a 17-3 advantage and Green Bay could get no closer than seven points after that. Harbaugh, who completed 16 of 23 passes for 194 yards and 1 touchdown and was not intercepted, had a string of 13 completions at one point to equal a 28-year-old club record. Sterling Sharpe had 9 catches for 144 yards and a touchdown for the Packers.

Houston 26, Cincinnati 10—at Astrodome, attendance 58,701. Warren Moon passed for 342 yards and 2 touchdowns, and the Oilers dominated the second half to beat the Bengals for the second time in three weeks. Boomer Esiason's 17-yard touchdown pass to Brian Brennan and Jim Breech's short field goal had helped Cincinnati, which had lost four straight games, tie Houston 10-10 at halftime. But the Bengals managed only 1 first down and 8 total yards in the second half while failing to move the ball past their 31-yard line. Meanwhile, the Oilers mounted a lengthy 15-play, 85-yard touchdown drive that consumed 9:33 to take the lead on Lorenzo White's 1-yard touchdown run with 1:12 left in the third quarter. One minute into the fourth period, Moon teamed with Webster Slaughter on a 36-yard touchdown pass to make it 24-10. It was the first touchdown catch as an Oiler for Slaughter, who had signed with the team as a free agent one month earlier. Moon finished with 27 completions in 40 attempts. Curtis Duncan caught 9 passes for 84 yards and Ernest Givins had 8 receptions for 100 yards, including a 30-yard touchdown in the first quarter.

Cleveland 19, New England 17—at Foxboro Stadium, attendance 32,219. Mike Tomczak's 6-yard, fourth-down touchdown pass to tight end Scott Galbraith with 31 seconds remaining rallied the Browns to their fourth victory in five games. Two touchdown passes by Hugh Millen and a field goal had given the winless Patriots a 17-9 edge entering the fourth quarter. But Cleveland capitalized on a New England fumble to pull within 17-12 on Matt Stover's fourth field goal of the game, a 32-yarder with 12:33 to play. Later in the period, Millen fumbled when sacked by linebacker Mike Johnson. Johnson recovered at the Patriots' 40, and the Browns drove eight plays to the winning score. The loss dropped New England to 0-7, equaling the worst start in club history.

Dallas 28, L.A. Raiders 13—at Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, attendance 91,505. Emmitt Smith rushed for 152 yards and 3 touchdowns, and the Cowboys remained atop the NFC East by snapping the Raiders' three-game winning streak. Los Angeles drove 83 yards to a touchdown on the game's opening possession, but Dallas's defense stiffened after that. Offensively, the Cowboys countered Los Angeles's opening drive with an 80-yard march of their own, capped by Smith's 6-yard touchdown run. His 4-yard run midway through the third quarter put Dallas ahead for good, and he added a 26-yard touchdown with 3:26 to play to seal the outcome. Troy Aikman completed 16 of 25 passes for 234 yards for the Cowboys, who outgained the Raiders 369-165. More than 91,000 fans jammed the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, the largest crowd to see an NFL game this season.

San Diego 24, Denver 21—at San Diego Jack Murphy Stadium, attendance 53,576. Stan Humphries passed for a career-high 349 yards and 2 touchdowns, and the Chargers thwarted John Elway's comeback bid to win their third straight. Humphries, who completed 20 of 27 passes and also ran 2 yards for a touchdown, threw a 27-yard scoring toss to tight end Derrick Walker to give San Diego a 21-7 lead in the third quarter. But Elway, the Broncos' quarterback who had brought his team from behind to win three times in the final two minutes already this season, ran 5 yards for a touchdown early in the fourth quarter to cap an 80-yard drive and trim the deficit to 21-14. After the Chargers' John Carney kicked a 37-yard field goal, Elway passed to Mark Jackson for a 28-yard touchdown that pulled his team within 24-21. Moments later, when Denver safety Dennis Smith recovered a fumble at the San Diego 34, it appeared another winning rally was in store. But on the next play, cornerback Tony Blaylock intercepted Elway's pass in the end zone with three minutes left to preserve the win. Elway finished with 260 passing yards and 2 touchdowns, but was intercepted 3 times. Jackson caught 5 passes for 113 yards. Chargers safety Gill Byrd had a pair of thefts. Wide receiver Anthony Miller caught 6 passes for 129 yards and Walker had 104 yards on his 4 catches to give San Diego two 100-yard receivers in the same game for the first time since 1985.

Detroit 38, Tampa Bay 7—at Tampa Stadium, attendance 53,985. Rodney Peete threw 3 touchdown passes, Barry Sanders rushed for 122 yards and 2 scores, and the Lions snapped a four-game losing streak by routing the Buccaneers. Peete, who attempted only 19 passes, completed 11 for 208 yards, including scoring tosses of 31 yards to Willie Green and 63 yards to Herman Moore in the game's first nine minutes. And when Sanders ran 1 yard for a touchdown early in the second quarter, Detroit led 21-0. Tampa Bay tried to rally with an 80-yard touchdown drive engineered by backup quarterback Steve DeBerg, culminating with Reggie Cobb's 1-yard run 32 seconds before halftime. But any comeback hopes immediately were thwarted when Mel Gray returned the ensuing kickoff 89 yards, and Jason Hanson kicked a 27-yard field goal on the final play of the half to put the Lions ahead 24-7 at intermission. Sanders, who had a 55-yard touchdown run in the third quarter, carried 21 times and recorded his first 100-yard rushing day since the season opener. Moore had 108 yards on 3 catches as Detroit amassed a season-high 400 total yards.

Indianapolis 31, Miami 20—at Joe Robbie Stadium, attendance 61,117. Quarterback Jeff George ran 1 yard for the go-ahead touchdown with 1:32 left in the game, and the Colts went on to stun the previously undefeated Dolphins. The victory wasn't secured, however, until Indianapolis rookie defensive end Steve Emtman intercepted Dan Marino's pass on the final play of the game and lumbered 90 yards for a touchdown. Miami had driven to the Colts' 7-yard line and was facing fourth-and-goal. Earlier, the Dolphins had taken a 20-17 lead on Marino's 12-yard touchdown pass to Tony Martin with 6:01 left in the game. But the extra-point attempt failed, a miss that would prove critical because the Dolphins trailed by four points instead of three after George drove Indianapolis 73 yards in the next 10 plays to the winning score. Marino passed for 355 yards and 2 touchdowns, but was intercepted 3 times. Miami also lost 2 fumbles. The Colts, who were outgained 413 total yards to 262, got an 84-yard punt return for a touchdown by Clarence Verdin to forge a 14-14 tie late in the third quarter.

Philadelphia 7, Phoenix 3—at Veterans Stadium, attendance 64,676. Calvin Williams caught a 40-yard pass in the second quarter for the game's only touchdown, and the Eagles' defense executed a stellar goal-line stand as Philadelphia beat the Cardinals. After Phoenix cornerback Aeneas Williams intercepted Randall Cunningham's pass and returned it 23 yards to the 3-yard line late in the second quarter, running back Johnny Bailey ran two yards to the 1. But on six plays from there (the Eagles were penalized for being offsides three times), the Cardinals could not punch it in. Bailey tried four more times, and quarterback Chris Chandler tried to sneak it in twice when the penalties pushed the ball to within inches of the goal line. Philadelphia never did allow Phoenix in the end zone, limiting the Cardinals to Greg Davis's 34-yard field goal 17 seconds into the fourth quarter. Herschel Walker had his third 100-yard rushing day of the season for the Eagles, gaining 112 yards on 20 carries. Phoenix held Philadelphia to only 84 net passing yards. Five players each had 1 sack of Cunningham.

N.Y. Giants 23, Seattle 10—at Giants Stadium, attendance 67,399. Quarterback Jeff Hostetler ran 7 yards for a touchdown and passed 7 yards to Ed McCaffrey for another to help the Giants overcome a four-point deficit in the third quarter. The Seahawks had taken a 10-6 advantage by scoring their first touchdown in 14 quarters, a 13-yard pass from Stan Gelbaugh to Tommy Kane early in the second half. But a 36-yard pass interference penalty led to Hostetler's scoring run with 8:05 to go in the third period. Seven minutes later, the pass to McCaffrey capped a 72-yard drive that made the score 20-10. Hostetler's 46-yard completion to Stephen Baker was the key play of that drive. Hostetler attempted only 9 passes, completing 5 for 94 yards, as New York kept the ball on the ground. Jarrod Bunch rushed for 77 yards and Rodney Hampton had 69. Seattle's Gelbaugh completed 22 of 32 passes, but for only 130 yards. Running back John L. Williams had 11 receptions for 45 yards. The Seahawks, who had suffered two consecutive shutouts, finally ended their scoring drought when John Kasay kicked a 33-yard field goal midway through the second quarter.

Washington 15, Minnesota 13—at Metrodome, attendance 59,098. The last of Chip Lohmiller's 5 field goals, a 49-yarder with 1:09 left to play, gave the Redskins the victory. Lohmiller kicked 4 field goals in the first half, 3 of them following Vikings turnovers, as Washington took a 12-0 halftime lead. Minnesota rallied in the second half, however, and took a 13-12 advantage on Fuad Reveiz's 41-yard field goal with 2:28 left in the game. But Reveiz's ensuing squib kickoff went out of bounds and gave the Redskins possession on their 35-yard line. From there, Mark Rypien passed 20 yards to Art Monk and scrambled 11 yards to position Lohmiller for the winning kick.

Pittsburgh 27, Kansas City 3—at Arrowhead Stadium, attendance 76,175. Barry Foster ran for 105 yards and the Steelers kept pace with Houston, remaining in a tie for first place in the AFC Central by beating the Chiefs. Foster, who broke the 100-yard barrier for the fifth time in seven games, ran 4 yards for a touchdown to break open the game late in the third quarter. His scoring run came two plays after cornerback D.J. Johnson's 31-yard interception return to the 2. That was 1 of 3 interceptions for Pittsburgh's defense, which held Kansas City quarterback Dave Krieg in check, limiting him to only 9 completions in 27 attempts for 82 yards. Linebacker Greg Lloyd also got to Krieg for a pair of sacks. Rod Woodson had an 80-yard punt return for a touchdown midway through the first quarter for the Steelers. Eddie Murray, signed the day before the game to replace injured Nick Lowery, kicked a 52-yard field goal in the closing seconds of the first half to account for the Chiefs' only points.

Buffalo 24, N.Y. Jets 20—at Giants Stadium, attendance 68,181. The Bills averted a third consecutive defeat when Jim Kelly passed 12 yards to running back Thurman Thomas for the game-winning touchdown with 51 seconds remaining. The Jets had rallied to take a 20-17 advantage when Brad Baxter's 1-yard run with 1:50 to go capped a 77-yard drive. But it took Buffalo only 59 seconds to go 75 yards to the winning score. Kelly and wide receiver Don Beebe teamed on 34- and 19-yard completions, and Thomas ran for 18 yards to set up the touchdown pass. Thomas finished with 142 yards on 21 carries, while Beebe had 6 catches for 106 yards. The victory was the Bills' tenth straight over the Jets.

Sunday, November 1

Cincinnati 30, Cleveland 10—at Riverfront Stadium, attendance 54,765. The Bengals snapped a five-game losing streak behind Boomer Esiason's 3 touchdown passes and a crucial goal-line stand. Esiason threw scoring tosses to tight ends Craig Thompson (1 yard) and Rodney Holman (4 yards) as Cincinnati built a 14-3 halftime advantage. It would have been closer but the Bengals stopped the Browns four times from inside the 5-yard line—the last two from inside the 1—shortly before halftime. And when Esiason connected with Tim McGee on a 24-yard touchdown pass to cap an 82-yard drive on Cincinnati's opening possession of the second half, the Bengals had broken the game open at 21-3. Mike Tomczak passed for 252 yards for Cleveland, which outgained Cincinnati 328-300 but could not crack the end zone until the issue had been decided in the fourth quarter. The defeat was the Browns' sixth in the last seven games against the Bengals.

Green Bay 27, Detroit 13—at Pontiac Silverdome, attendance 60,594. Brett Favre threw a pair of touchdown passes and Vince Workman became the first Packer to rush for more than 100 yards in a game in three years as Green Bay overwhelmed the Lions. The Packers amassed 25 first downs and 347 total yards to only 9 first downs and 190 total yards for Detroit, the defending NFC Central Division champions who fell to last place. Still, the Lions made a game of it after falling behind 20-3 early in the second half. Jason Hanson's field goal and Bennie Blades's 7-yard return of a blocked punt trimmed the Lions' deficit to 20-13 with 1:30 left in the third quarter. But Green Bay responded with a 12-play, 77-yard drive that consumed more than six-and-a-half minutes, capped by Favre's 30-yard touchdown pass to Sterling Sharpe with 9:59 left in the game. Favre completed three third-down passes to keep the final drive alive, and finished the day with 22 completions in 37 attempts. Workman carried 23 times for 101 yards. The Packers also got their first rushing touchdown of the season when Harry Sydney carried 1 yard for a score in the first quarter.

Pittsburgh 21, Houston 20—at Three Rivers Stadium, attendance 58,074. Neil O'Donnell threw a pair of fourth-quarter touchdown passes and Pittsburgh held on to win when the Oilers' Al Del Greco misfired on a 39-yard field-goal attempt with one second left in the game. The victory was the second of the season for the Steelers over defending AFC Central Division champion Houston and lifted them into sole possession of first place. The Oilers trailed by a point at halftime and lost quarterback Warren Moon for the remainder of the game when he sustained a concussion on the second play of the third quarter. But backup Cody Carlson threw an 11-yard touchdown pass to Webster Slaughter to give Houston the lead 4:59 into the second half, and just 63 seconds later, defensive tackle Ray Childress picked up a fumble by O'Donnell and returned it 8 yards for a touchdown and a 20-7 lead. Pittsburgh rallied when O'Donnell passed 2 yards to tight end Adrian Cooper and 5 yards to tight end Eric Green for touchdowns. The latter came after linebacker Greg Lloyd recovered Carlson's fumble at the Oilers' 38-yard line, and it gave the Steelers the lead with 7:13 to go. Houston marched 64 yards to the Pittsburgh 22 in the closing moments but came away empty when Del Greco's kick went wide left. The Steelers' Barry Foster rushed for 118 yards on 31 carries. It was his sixth 100-yard rushing day of the season, just 1 short of Franco Harris's club record.

San Diego 26, Indianapolis 0—at San Diego Jack Murphy Stadium, attendance 40,324. The Chargers limited the Colts to only 8 first downs and 99 total yards en route to posting their first shutout in six years and winning their fourth consecutive game. After starting the season 0-4, San Diego evened its record at 4-4 and pulled within one game of first-place Denver in the AFC Western Division. The Chargers led just 5-0 at halftime despite holding Indianapolis to minus-5 yards from scrimmage. But San Diego put the game away by marching to touchdowns on each of its first two possessions of the second half, each culminated by scoring passes from Stan Humphries to Nate Lewis. Humphries finished with 22 completions in 33 attempts for 256 yards, while Marion Butts rushed for 120 yards on 27 carries. Anthony Miller caught 6 passes for 105 yards. The Chargers rolled up 26 first downs and 400 total yards while controlling the ball for nearly 43 of the game's 60 minutes. The defense also recorded 7 sacks, including 2 each by Burt Grossman (1 for a safety), Chris Mims, and Leslie O'Neal.

Atlanta 30, L.A. Rams 28—at Georgia Dome, attendance 62,168. Backup quarterback Billy Joe Tolliver's 13-yard, fourth-quarter touchdown pass to Michael Haynes overcame a comeback effort by the Rams and lifted the Falcons to the victory. Los Angeles had rallied from a 17-0 second-quarter deficit behind the passing of Jim Everett (253 yards and 4 touchdowns) and the running of Cleveland Gary (144 yards on 18 carries), taking the lead on Everett's 5-yard touchdown pass to tight end Jim Price with 5:55 left in the third quarter. But Tolliver, in the game because starting quarterback Chris Miller went down with a knee injury in the third quarter, directed an 81-yard march to the winning score, which came with 12:51 left in the game. A day later, Atlanta learned that Miller's knee injury would sideline him the rest of the season. The Rams' defeat was their twelfth in a row on the road, and their thirteenth consecutive setback against an NFC Western Division opponent.

N.Y. Jets 26, Miami 14—at Giants Stadium, attendance 69,313. Ken O'Brien, subbing for injured starter Browning Nagle, threw 3 touchdown passes in the first half as the Jets beat the Dolphins. O'Brien's third scoring toss, a 20-yarder to Rob Moore with 21 seconds left in the second quarter, gave New York a 23-0 advantage at intermission. But perhaps his most important effort came after Miami had scored a pair of second-half touchdowns in a span of 69 seconds—the latter on a 39-yard pass from Dan Marino to Mark Duper just 18 seconds into the fourth quarter. O'Brien, who finished with 21 completions in 29 attempts for 240 yards, then marched the Jets 52 yards on a time-consuming (8:09), 13-play drive that resulted in Cary Blanchard's 47-yard field goal with 6:33 to go. New York's Brad Baxter ran for a career-high 103 yards on 20 carries to help the Jets outgain the Dolphins 363 to 296.

Buffalo 16, New England 7—at Rich Stadium, attendance 78,268. The Bills' Jim Kelly threw 2 touchdown passes in the second half to thwart the Patriots' upset bid. Winless New England took a 7-0 halftime lead when linebacker Dwayne Sabb forced a fumble that teammate Vincent Brown picked up and returned 25 yards for a touchdown 1:23 before the intermission. But Buffalo rallied on Kelly's 3-yard touchdown pass to Pete Metzelaars and a third-quarter safety for a 9-7 lead, then overcame a potentially costly turnover early in the fourth quarter. New England safety Randy Robbins intercepted Kelly's pass and returned it 20 yards to the Bills' 25-yard line. But Bills linebacker Cornelius Bennett sacked Patriots quarterback Tom Hodson, nose tackle Jeff Wright recovered at the 27, and 10 plays later Kelly threw a 13-yard touchdown pass to James Lofton to secure the victory with 5:05 left.

Dallas 20, Philadelphia 10—at Texas Stadium, attendance 65,015. The Cowboys avenged their only loss of the season and opened a two-game advantage in the NFC Eastern Division by beating the Eagles. Rookie Lin Elliott's 48-yard field goal and Troy Aikman's 14-yard touchdown pass to Daryl Johnston broke a 10-10 tie in the fourth quarter. Elliott's three-pointer was set up by running back Emmitt Smith, who broke off a 51-yard run just one play after Philadelphia's Roger Ruzek had forged the tie with an 18-yard field goal. Smith, whose runs also were pivotal on the subsequent 78-yard touchdown drive, carried 30 times for 163 yards. Aikman completed 19 of 33 passes for 214 yards and 2 touchdowns, and Dallas rolled up 389 total yards to only 190 for the Eagles. Jim McMahon replaced an ineffective Randall Cunningham at quarterback to start the second half and immediately drove Philadelphia to its only touchdown, a 2-yard run by Herschel Walker to cap an 80-yard drive 4:36 into the third quarter.

Phoenix 24, San Francisco 14—at Sun Devil Stadium, attendance 47,642. Chris Chandler threw 3 touchdown passes to give the Cardinals a stunning upset of the 49ers, who entered the game with a five-game winning streak. Phoenix's Johnny Johnson, recovered from a chest injury and making his first start of the season, ran for 102 yards on 26 carries and helped the Cardinals control the ball for more than 36 minutes, thus keeping the NFL's top-ranked offense off the field for much of the game. San Francisco was further hampered by the loss of starting quarterback Steve Young, who left the game in the second quarter because of the flu. Phoenix led 10-0 at halftime and Chandler's 23-yard touchdown pass to Randal Hill 4:40 into the second half increased the advantage to 17-0. The 49ers tried to rally, pulling within 10 again less than three minutes later when wide receiver Mike Sherrard stripped the ball from Cardinals linebacker Eric Hill—who had recovered tight end Brent Jones's fumble—and raced 39 yards for a touchdown. But Chandler countered with a 22-yard touchdown pass to Ricky Proehl to make it 24-7 with 3:23 left in the third quarter.

New Orleans 23, Tampa Bay 21—at Louisiana Superdome, attendance 68,591. Morten Andersen's 50-yard field goal with 9:14 left lifted the Saints past the Buccaneers. New Orleans won despite 3 interceptions and a lost fumble that led to all of Tampa Bay's points. The Buccaneers, who finished with only 154 total yards, had just 1 first down in the first half but trailed only 10-7 because of linebacker Broderick Thomas's 56-yard interception return for a touchdown in the second quarter. Late in the third period, with the Buccaneers trailing 20-7, Thomas recovered Vaughn Dunbar's fumble at the Saints' 37-yard line to set up Steve DeBerg's 4-yard touchdown pass to Willie Drewrey. Moments later, safety Marty Carter intercepted a Bobby Hebert pass to set up Reggie Cobb's 4-yard touchdown run that gave Tampa Bay its first lead, at 21-20 with 13:03 left in the game. But New Orleans, aided by a key personal foul penalty, mounted a short drive to the winning field goal on its next possession.

N.Y. Giants 24, Washington 7—at RFK Stadium, attendance 53,647. Jeff Hostetler threw a pair of touchdown passes in a span of 2:28 late in the second quarter to break a 7-7 tie and ignite the Giants' victory. Rodney Hampton ran for 138 yards as New York amassed 241 rushing yards with a ball-control attack, maintaining possession for 39:20. The Giants dominated the first half, but still were tied at 7-7 late in the second quarter because of an 84-yard punt return for a touchdown by the Redskins' Brian Mitchell. But Hostetler threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to Ed McCaffrey with 2:36 left in the first half, then directed a 67-yard drive that culminated in his 4-yard touchdown toss to David Meggett with eight seconds to go. Giants linebacker Lawrence Taylor helped keep the game out of reach by thwarting a Washington drive with a fumble-causing sack in New York territory. Teammate Leonard Marshall recovered and the Giants marched to Matt Bahr's 19-yard field goal with 8:07 to go.

The victory was Minnesota's second of the year against Chicago and gave the Vikings a two-game lead over the second-place Bears. Minnesota led 14-3 at halftime, then broke the game open in the second half. Del Rio's 84-yard interception return came just 36 seconds into the third quarter and made it 21-3. Rich Gannon's 60-yard touchdown pass to tight end Steve Jordan in the first minute of the fourth quarter made it 31-3 and Jenkins added a 19-yard interception return for a touchdown five minutes later.

Sunday, November 8

Cleveland 24, Houston 14—at Astrodome, attendance 57,348. The Browns vaulted back into the AFC Central Division race by stifling the Oilers' Run-and-Shoot offense. Cleveland's Mike Tomczak passed for 219 yards and 2 touchdowns and safety Stevon Moore returned a fumble 73 yards for another touchdown. Moore's big play came with the Browns leading 10-0 late in the third quarter. Houston, which had been forced to punt on its first eight possessions, apparently had successfully converted a fourth-and-2 opportunity when Warren Moon completed a pass to Ernest Givins. But Givins fumbled when hit by cornerback Everson Walls and Moore's recovery and return broke the game open at 17-0. Cody Carlson replaced an ineffective Moon (12 of 25 for 70 yards) and rallied the Oilers with a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns passes, but it wasn't enough. The victory lifted Cleveland into a second-place tie with Houston, just one game behind division-leading Pittsburgh.

Smith ran for a pair of scores late in the first quarter to help Dallas build a 20-3 halftime advantage. His 1-yard run on the Cowboys' first possession of the second half made it 27-3 and gave him 12 touchdowns for the season, equaling the club record. Troy Aikman passed for 214 yards and Michael Irvin caught 5 passes for 114 yards and 1 touchdown for Dallas, which rolled up 398 total yards. Barry Sanders accounted for most of Detroit's 201 yards of offense by rushing for 108 yards.

N.Y. Giants 27, Green Bay 7—at Giants Stadium, attendance 72,038. The Giants broke open a close game late in the fourth quarter to post their third consecutive victory. Rodney Hampton's 2-yard touchdown run in the second quarter and a pair of Matt Bahr field goals had given New York a 13-7 lead. But the Packers mounted a late drive and reached the Giants' 33-yard line with less than four minutes left in the game. From there, however, quarterback Brett Favre's pass was intercepted by New York cornerback Reyna Thompson, who returned it 69 yards for the clinching touchdown with 3:38 to go. The Giants added another touchdown in the final minute after safety Greg Jackson's interception and 36-yard return positioned Hampton for an 8-yard touchdown run. Favre finished with 27 completions in 44 attempts for 279 yards, but was intercepted 3 times. Green Bay wide receiver Sterling Sharpe caught 11 passes for 160 yards. Giants linebacker Lawrence Taylor, who had announced that this was his last season, suffered a season-ending Achilles tendon injury in the third quarter.

Philadelphia 31, L.A. Raiders 10—at Veterans Stadium, attendance 65,388. Jim McMahon replaced slumping starter Randall Cunningham and, aided by a defense that forced 5 turnovers, led the Eagles to the victory. McMahon completed 12 of 24 passes for 157 yards and helped break open the game with a 42-yard touchdown pass to Fred Barnett with 1:53 left in the first half. That came shortly after the Raiders had pulled within 10-3 on a 22-yard field goal by Jeff Jaeger. But Philadelphia's Vai Sikahema returned the ensuing kickoff 40 yards, and McMahon hit Barnett with a 12-yard completion before the two connected again on the long bomb. Cornerback Eric Allen had 2 interceptions for the Eagles, who had 4 thefts in all and also recovered a fumble. Raiders starting quarterback Todd Marinovich completed only 3 of 10 passes for 25 yards and was intercepted 3 times in less than two quarters before being lifted in favor of Jay Schroeder.

Miami 28, Indianapolis 0—at Hoosier Dome, attendance 59,892. Mark Higgs rushed for 107 yards and 1 touchdown as the Dolphins avenged an upset loss to the Colts two weeks earlier. Normally pass-happy Miami used a combination of a strong running game and a stifling defense to post the shutout. The Dolphins amassed 212 rushing yards on 40 carries, while the defense limited Indianapolis to 193 total yards. Still, Miami quarterback Dan Marino added 245 passing yards on 22 completions in 28 attempts. The Dolphins scored on their opening possession and never looked back. Higgs had a 13-yard run and a 19-yard reception on the 69-yard, 10-play drive following the opening kickoff. Marino's 2-yard touchdown pass to tight end Keith Jackson capped the 6:03 march.

Minnesota 35, Tampa Bay 7—at Tampa Stadium, attendance 49,095. Roger Craig ran for 2 touchdowns and the Vikings' defense scored twice for the second consecutive week as Minnesota pounded the Buccaneers. The previous week, linebackers Jack Del Rio and Carlos Jenkins returned interceptions for touchdowns in Minnesota's 38-10 victory over the Bears. Against Tampa Bay, Jenkins scooped up a fumble and returned it 22 yards for a touchdown in the first quarter, and end Chris Doleman returned an interception 27 yards for a touchdown just 13 seconds before halftime to break the game open at 28-0. Both plays were set up by pressure on Buccaneers quarterback Steve DeBerg from end Al Noga. Tampa Bay outgained the Vikings 354-296, but was victimized by 3 turnovers and numerous missed opportunities. On six trips inside the Minnesota 35-yard line, the Buccaneers could come away with only a fourth-quarter touchdown long after the issue was decided.

Bobby Hebert threw 2 touchdown passes to Quinn Early in the first quarter and the Saints cruised to a victory over the winless Patriots. Hebert, who also had a 12-yard touchdown pass to running back Dalton Hilliard in the second quarter, completed 14 of 26 passes for 198 yards to lead New Orleans's efficient offense. The Saints' defense, meanwhile, harrassed New England into 4 turnovers. Five different players each recorded 1 sack, and defensive backs Gene Atkins and Toi Cook intercepted passes. The Patriots played without head coach Dick MacPherson, who was hospitalized earlier in the week with an intestinal disorder. Assistant coach Dante Scarnecchia took over MacPherson's duties.

Denver 27, N.Y. Jets 16—at Mile High Stadium, attendance 74,678. John Elway passed for 261 yards and the Broncos used a pair of big plays in the second quarter to down the Jets. New York had tied the score at 3-3 early in the second period on a 27-yard field goal by Cary Blanchard. But three plays later, Elway teamed with Arthur Marshall on an 80-yard touchdown pass—the longest regular-season completion of the Denver quarterback's career— to give the Broncos the lead for good. It was 10-6 late in the quarter when cornerback Wymon Henderson returned an interception 46 yards for a touchdown just 1:28 before halftime. The Jets rallied to within 20-16 in the second half, then recovered a fumble near midfield early in the fourth quarter. But two plays later, New York fumbled the ball back to Denver, and the Broncos drove to Greg Lewis's game-clinching 1-yard touchdown run with 6:54 to play. Elway, who called his own plays for the first time this season, finished with 18 completions in 33 attempts. Marshall caught 5 passes for 134 yards. Phoenix 20, L.A. Rams 14—at Anaheim Stadium, attendance 40,788. Johnny Johnson's 10-yard touchdown run with 2:04 left to play gave the Cardinals the victory. The Rams, ahead 14-13 late in the game, were driving to the apparent clinching score when running back Cleveland Gary fumbled at the Cardinals' 31. Phoenix cornerback Aeneas Williams scopped up the loose ball and raced 69 yards to the end zone, only to have part of his return negated by an illegal block. Phoenix took over possession at the Rams' 40 and Johnson scored six plays later. Johnson, who ran for 91 yards on 24 carries, also scored on a 6-yard run to give the Cardinals the lead at 13-7 in the third quarter. That touchdown also was set up when the Cardinals recovered a fumble by Gary. But the Los Angeles running back, who ran for 55 yards and caught 7 passes for 60 yards, put the Rams back in front by running 1 yard for a score 2:45 into the fourth quarter. Jim Everett completed 21 of 32 passes for 248 yards and 1 touchdown for Los Angeles. Phoenix wide receiver Ricky Proehl caught a career-high 9 passes for 126 yards.

Buffalo 28, Pittsburgh 20—at Rich Stadium, attendance 80,294. Jim Kelly passed for 3 touchdowns, Thurman Thomas rushed for 155 yards, and the Bills broke out of a scoring slump to beat the Steelers. Buffalo's high-powered offense, which had scored only 53 points in its previous four games, recorded 31 first downs and 458 total yards in this one. Kelly, who completed 26 of 33 passes for 290 yards and was not intercepted, threw a 22-yard touchdown pass to James Lofton and a 2-yard toss to tackle-eligible Mitch Frerotte as the Bills built a 21-6 halftime lead. His 45-yard touchdown to Lofton midway through the third quarter provided the clinching score. Thomas, who carried a career-high 37 times, had a 1-yard touchdown run in the second quarter. Wide receiver Don Beebe caught 8 passes for 101 yards. Pittsburgh's Neil O'Donnell kept the game close with a pair of third-quarter touchdown passes.

Kansas City 16, San Diego 14—at Arrowhead Stadium, attendance 72,876. Nick Lowery's 36-yard field goal with 54 seconds remaining lifted the Chiefs to the victory and snapped the Chargers' four-game winning streak. Lowery's kick spoiled a second-half comeback by San Diego, which rallied from a 13-0 halftime deficit to a 14-13 lead by driving 80 and 90 yards to touchdowns late in the third quarter and early in the fourth. But Kansas City forced a punt late in the game and took over at its 33-yard line. Chiefs quarterback Dave Krieg, only 7 of 25 passing before the winning drive, marched his team into field-goal range by completing 3 consecutive attempts, including a 25-yarder to Willie Davis. Kansas City had forged its first-half lead by taking advantage of a furious pass rush supplied by Derrick Thomas. The outside linebacker sacked Chargers quarterback Stan Humphries 4 times before intermission, twice causing fumbles that the Chiefs converted into a touchdown and a field goal. Humphries had a strong second half to finish with 20 completions in 35 attempts for 294 yards and a touchdown. Lowery, who also had field goals of 47 and 35 yards, became only the sixth player in NFL history to record 300 career three-pointers when he made his winning kick.

Washington then scored its first offensive touchdown in 15 quarters when Rypien and tight end Terry Orr teamed on a 26-yard pass 4:32 into the fourth quarter. Earnest Byner had 108 yards rushing and receiving for the Redskins, who outgained Seattle 330-183. Cincinnati 31, Chicago 28—at Soldier Field, attendance 56,120. Boomer Esiason's 23-yard touchdown pass to Carl Pickens with 59 seconds left in regulation tied the game, and Jim Breech's 36-yard field goal 8:39 into overtime won it as the Bengals rallied to beat the Bears. Cincinnati trailed 28-14 before closing the deficit to seven points on Esiason's 1-yard touchdown pass to tight end Craig Thompson with five seconds left in the third quarter. The Bengals then got the opportunity to tie the game in the fourth quarter when rookie cornerback Leonard Wheeler intercepted a Jim Harbaugh pass and returned it 12 yards to the Bears' 35-yard line. Eleven plays later, Esiason lofted a fourth-down pass to the 6-foot-2 Pickens, who outjumped 5-foot-9 cornerback Lemuel Stinson in the end zone. After holding the Bears on the opening possession of overtime, Cincinnati marched 65 yards to the winning field goal. Esiason finished with 3 touchdown passes and Harold Green rushed for 117 yards for the Bengals. Chicago's Darren Lewis ran for 72 yards and 1 touchdown, and returned a third-quarter kickoff 97 yards for another score.

San Francisco 41, Atlanta 3—at Georgia Dome, attendance 67,404. Steve Young threw 3 touchdown passes and the 49ers took advantage of 6 turnovers to blast the Falcons for the second time this season. Three weeks earlier, San Francisco beat Atlanta 56-17 at Candlestick Park. This time, the 49ers actually were outgained by the Falcons, 304 total yards to 303, but converted 3 fumbles and 3 interceptions into 24 points. San Francisco led 14-3 at halftime, then put the game away in the third quarter. After Mike Cofer's 40-yard field goal made it 17-3, cornerback Don Griffin stripped the ball from Atlanta wide receiver Andre Rison and Michael McGruder recovered at the Falcons' 35-yard line to set up another three-pointer. The 49ers' Amp Lee then recovered Deion Sanders's fumble on the ensuing kickoff, and four plays later, Tom Rathman ran 2 yards for a touchdown to make it 27-3.

Sunday, November 15

Tampa Bay 20, Chicago 17—at Tampa Stadium, attendance 69,102. Reggie Cobb rushed for 114 yards and 1 touchdown and the Buccaneers built a 20-0 halftime lead, then held on to snap a five-game losing streak while handing the Bears their third consecutive defeat. Vinny Testaverde, back in the starting lineup after two weeks on the bench, completed 12 of 21 passes for 182 yards, including a 12-yard touchdown pass to tight end Ron Hall with 1:53 left in the first half. But Kevin Butler's 27-yard field goal and a pair of touchdowns by running back Neal Anderson pulled Chicago within three points. The Bears had a chance to tie after getting the ball back on their 27-yard line with 1:37 left and marching 47 yards. But Butler's 44-yard field-goal try with one second remaining was wide left.

N.Y. Jets 17, Cincinnati 14—at Giants Stadium, attendance 60,196. Brad Baxter and Terance Mathis scored on touchdown runs and the Jets held off a late rally to beat the Bengals. New York, playing without injured running back Blair Thomas and injured wide receiver Al Toon, built a 17-0 advantage in the third quarter, then turned it over to its defense, which allowed only 227 total yards. Much of that was in the fourth quarter, however, when Cincinnati scored on a pair of runs by Derrick Fenner to trim its deficit to only three points with 5:21 left in the game. But the Bengals could not get the ball back again until only 1:06 remained. Fenner finished with 92 rushing yards, all of them in the fourth quarter.

Pittsburgh 17, Detroit 14—at Three Rivers Stadium, attendance 52,242. Backup quarterback Bubby Brister, playing in his first game of the season, threw a 1-yard touchdown pass to tight end Tim Jorden with 2:50 remaining to give the Steelers the victory. The Lions had rallied from a 10-0 deficit to take a 14-10 lead on Barry Sanders's 1-yard run seven seconds into the fourth quarter. Detroit was threatening to widen its lead when Sanders, who had a 42-yard run earlier on the drive, lost a fumble near the Pittsburgh goal line. Late in the game, Steelers cornerback Rod Woodson sacked Lions quarterback Erik Kramer, forcing a fumble that safety Carnell Lake returned 12 yards to the Detroit 3 with 3:33 to play. Brister, who entered the game one series earlier when starter Neil O'Donnell pulled a hamstring muscle, tossed the winning touchdown pass two plays later. Pittsburgh running back Barry Foster had his seventh 100-yard rushing day of the season. He gained 106 yards on 25 attempts to become the first player this season to reach the 1,000-yard mark. Kramer completed 20 of 37 passes for 304 yards, but was intercepted twice. The Lions had 6 turnovers.

Houston 17, Minnesota 13—at Metrodome, attendance 56,726. Lorenzo White's 1-yard run with 48 seconds left was the difference as the Oilers beat the Vikings. White's run capped an 80-yard, 13-play drive on which Houston starting quarterback Warren Moon was injured while making the key play. Moon, who completed 28 of 38 passes for 243 yards, escaped trouble on third-and-4 at the Minnesota 26-yard line by scrambling 5 yards. But he was hit by safety Vencie Glenn while diving for the first down at the end of his run, and broke his left (nonthrowing) arm. He was expected to miss three to six weeks. Backup Cody Carlson came on and completed his only 2 attempts for 13 yards, including an 8-yard pass to White that positioned the ball on the 1. White finished with 81 yards on 18 carries as the Oilers amassed 342 total yards to only 174 for Minnesota. The Vikings' lone touchdown came in the second quarter, when linebacker Carlos Jenkins sacked Moon, forcing a fumble that cornerback Anthony Parker returned 58 yards for Minnesota's fifth defensive score in three weeks. Vikings defensive end Chris Doleman had 2½ sacks and forced a pair of fumbles. Moon upped his career total to 30,120 passing yards to become the fourteenth player in NFL history to surpass 30,000 passing yards.

Gary, who carried 29 times for 110 yards, opened the scoring with a 1-yard run midway through the first quarter. He also caught 7 passes for 44 yards, including a 3-yard touchdown just 18 seconds before halftime to put Los Angeles ahead 21-13. Dallas rallied to take a 23-21 lead on Lin Elliott's third field goal of the game and Kelvin Martin's 74-yard punt return late in the third quarter. But the Rams regained the lead on 2 field goals by Tony Zendejas, the second field goal coming with 1:54 to play. Dallas took the subsequent kickoff and marched to Los Angeles's 14-yard line, but quarterback Troy Aikman threw incomplete in the end zone on the final two plays of the game. Rams quarterback Jim Everett completed 22 of 37 passes for 251 yards and 2 touchdowns. Aikman was 22 of 37 for 272 yards, with 8 of his throws for 168 yards to wide receiver Michael Irvin. Emmitt Smith's 3-yard touchdown run in the second quarter was his thirteenth of the season, a Cowboys' record.

New England 37, Indianapolis 34—at Hoosier Dome, attendance 42,631. Charlie Baumann's 18-yard field goal 3:25 into overtime gave the Patriots their first victory of the season. Baumann had forced the extra session by kicking a 44-yard field goal on the final play of regulation. Then in overtime, New England cornerback Jerome Henderson intercepted a pass from Jeff George and returned it 9 yards to the Colts' 29-yard line to set up the winning kick. Patriots quarterback Scott Zolak, making his first NFL start, completed 20 of 29 passes for 261 yards and 2 touchdowns as he repeatedly brought his team from behind. Indianapolis led most of the way and took a 31-21 advantage on Rodney Culver's 1-yard run on the first play of the fourth quarter. But New England linebacker Chris Singleton returned an interception 82 yards for a touchdown three-and-a-half minutes later and, after an exchange of field goals, the Patriots marched 67 yards in 10 plays to the tying field goal. George completed 18 of 35 passes for 330 yards and 2 touchdowns, but suffered 3 costly interceptions (New England cornerback David Pool also returned a theft for a score). Running back Anthony Johnson had 77 rushing yards and 163 receiving yards on 7 catches to help the Colts amass 417 total yards.

Steve Young tossed a pair of fourth-quarter touchdown passes to tight end Brent Jones, including the 8-yard game-winner with 46 seconds remaining, to lift the 49ers past the Saints and into sole possession of first place in the NFC Western Division. San Francisco trailed 20-7 in the fourth quarter until the 49ers went to a No-Huddle offense. With Young calling most of the plays, the 49ers drove 65 yards, capped by Young's 14-yard touchdown pass to Jones with 10:16 left to make it 20-14. The subsequent winning drive covered 74 yards in 13 plays. Young converted a trio of third-down opportunities along the way, 2 with completions to Jerry Rice and another on his 8-yard run. He finished the game with 205 passing yards and 58 rushing yards, including a 10-yard touchdown run late in the first half. 49ers running back Ricky Watters gained 115 yards on 21 carries. Chris Jacke kicked a pair of field goals in the final 1:31, including the game-winner as time expired to lift the Packers over the Eagles. Jacke's 31-yard field goal, which tied the score at 24-24, followed a 57-yard drive that started after Green Bay cornerback LeRoy Butler recovered Heath Sherman's fumble deep in Packers territory. Two plays after the tying kick, Philadelphia's Herschel Walker fumbled and Green Bay linebacker Johnny Holland pounced on it at the Eagles' 23-yard line with 43 seconds left to set up Jacke's winning kick. Earlier in the fourth quarter, Sherman and Walker had rallied Philadelphia from a 21-10 deficit. Sherman took a short swing pass and rambled 75 yards for a touchdown, and Walker scored on a 2-yard run to give the Eagles a 24-21 lead. Green Bay quarterback Brett Favre completed 23 of 33 passes for 275 yards and 2 touchdowns. Sterling Sharpe, the league's leading receiver, caught 7 passes for 116 yards. Matt Stover then kicked his second field goal of the game, a 28-yarder with 5:00 left, to increase Cleveland's advantage to 13-7. But Humphries, who completed 19 of 32 passes for 234 yards and 2 touchdowns, directed the winning 72-yard, 6-play march. L.A. Raiders 20, Seattle 3—at Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, attendance 46,862. Jay Schroeder returned to the starting lineup and threw a touchdown pass in the Raiders' victory. Schroeder, starting for the first time after losing his job to Todd Marinovich two games into the season, completed just 10 of 23 passes for 108 yards, but his 9-yard touchdown pass to tight end Ethan Horton 58 seconds before halftime gave the Raiders a 13-0 lead. That advantage was just about insurmountable considering that the Seahawks entered the game having scored only 5 touchdowns all year. Their only points in this one came on a 43-yard field goal by John Kasay with 4:25 left in the game. Los Angeles managed 188 total yards to Seattle's 159.

Elway helped stake Denver to a 14-6 halftime lead by throwing for 96 yards, including a 51-yard touchdown pass to Mark Jackson. But he also injured his shoulder while scrambling for a first down in the second quarter. Enter Maddox, who played the entire second half, and kept the game out of reach by leading the Broncos to scores on three of their first four possessions after the intermission. Greg Lewis's 2-yard touchdown run with 5:44 left clinched Denver's ninth consecutive home victory. Maddox completed 9 of 13 passes for 134 yards and Gaston Green rushed for 92 yards as the Broncos rolled up 379 total yards. New York managed only 159 total yards, including just 39 passing. Buffalo 26, Miami 20—at Joe Robbie Stadium, attendance 70,629. Kenneth Davis ran for 2 touchdowns and Steve Christie kicked 4 field goals as the Bills rallied from an 11-point first-half deficit to beat the Dolphins and take over first place in the AFC Eastern Division. Miami's Dan Marino, who completed his first 11 passes, capped the Dolphins' first two possessions with touchdown throws to tight end Greg Baty and wide receiver Mark Clayton for a 14-3 lead. But Buffalo began to pressure the Miami quarterback after that, getting to him for 4 sacks. The Bills, down 17-13 at halftime, took a 20-17 lead when Davis ran 1 yard for a score on their opening drive of the second half, then added a pair of short field goals by Christie following Dolphins turnovers. Buffalo 41, Atlanta 14—at Rich Stadium, attendance 80,004. The Bills scored touchdowns on each of their first five possessions to open a 35-0 lead only 16 minutes into the game and cruise past the Falcons. Kenneth Davis rushed for a career-high 181 yards on 20 carries and scored twice, and Thurman Thomas ran for 103 yards on 13 attempts, all in the first half, as Buffalo amassed a whopping 315 yards on the ground. Atlanta was never in the game, allowing a club-record 28 first-quarter points and failing to score until falling behind 38-0. That came with only 12 seconds left in the first half, when Deion Sanders took a lateral on a kickoff and sprinted 73 yards for a touchdown. The Bills outgained the Falcons 412-174, including 310-49 in the first half alone.

Minnesota 17, Cleveland 13—at Metrodome, attendance 53,323. The Vikings scored 2 touchdowns in a span of 16 seconds in the fourth quarter to come from behind and beat the Browns. Cleveland led 13-0 at halftime and still had a 13-3 advantage in the final period. But backup quarterback Sean Salisbury, subbing for an ineffective Rich Gannon, tossed a 3-yard touchdown pass to tight end Joe Johnson to make it 13-10 with 9:21 remaining. On the Browns' first play following the ensuing kickoff, Vikings cornerback Audray McMillian picked off a Todd Philcox pass and returned it 25 yards for the decisive score with 9:05 to go. It was McMillian's third interception of the day and the seventh touchdown scored by Minnesota's defense this season, equaling the club record set in 1988. Six of the scores came in the past four weeks. Despite the victory, the Vikings struggled on offense, completing only 9 of 25 passes and gaining just 141 total yards. Wide receiver Anthony Carter failed to catch a pass, ending his streak at 105 games.

Phoenix took a 7-0 lead in the first quarter after Johnny Bailey's 65-yard punt return set up Chris Chandler's 2-yard touchdown pass to running back Larry Centers. But Chandler, who completed 5 of 7 passes, suffered bruised ribs while scrambling late in the first period, and left the game. The Cardinals struggled after that, and finished the game with only 9 first downs and 149 total yards. Meanwhile, Aikman was throwing touchdown passes of 7 yards to tight end Jay Novacek and 37 yards to wide receiver Alvin Harper. His scoring toss to Novacek came with only 14 seconds left in the first half and gave Dallas the lead for good. The Cowboys' quarterback finished with 25 completions in 36 attempts for 237 yards. Los Angeles cornerback Terry McDaniel recorded both thefts, returning each one 67 yards. The first came late in the first quarter and set up Schroeder's 1-yard scoring toss to tight end Andrew Glover on the first play of the second period for a 10-0 Raiders lead. Schroeder, who completed 16 of 30 passes for 160 yards, also had touchdown passes of 11 yards to Tim Brown and 10 yards to Marcus Allen. Sanders then gave Detroit the remaining points it needed with a 5-yard touchdown run early in the fourth quarter. Hanson added a fourth field goal late in the game. The Lions' defense did the rest, permitting Cincinnati only 95 total yards, including just 43 through the air. But he marched his team 42 yards in seven plays to the winning score, and also drove the Dolphins 80 yards in 9 plays as time wound down in the first half, capping the drive with a 39-yard touchdown pass to Fred Banks. Houston 24, Detroit 21—at Pontiac Silverdome, attendance 73,711. Lorenzo White's 8-yard touchdown run with 1:17 left to play gave the Oilers the Thanksgiving-Day victory over the Lions. The lead changed hands five times in a dramatic second half, with Detroit taking the advantage for the last time at 21-17 on Erik Kramer's 8-yard touchdown pass to Barry Sanders with 2:57 to go.

That score was set up when Lions safety Bennie Blades broke through and dropped Houston punter Greg Montgomery at the Oilers' 13-yard line before he could get a kick off. But the Oilers responded quickly to Sanders's score, marching 83 yards in only five plays. Cody Carlson completed 4 consecutive passes for 75 yards, then White scored on a draw play up the middle. Carlson finished with 24 completions in 33 attempts for 338 yards. Wide receiver Ernest Givins totaled 100 yards on 4 catches as Houston outgained Detroit 383-214.

Cleveland 27, Chicago 14—at Cleveland Stadium, attendance 73,578. Linebacker David Brandon returned a first-quarter interception 92 yards for a touchdown, and the Browns went on to hand the Bears their fifth consecutive defeat. Despite a sizable advantage in total yards (320-178), Chicago lost because it turned the ball over 4 times. Cleveland, which did not turn the ball over, converted those miscues into 17 points, and also scored on Eric Metcalf's 75-yard punt return, which put the Browns ahead 20-7 with 2:07 to play in the third quarter. The Bears pulled within 6 points again on the next play from scrimmage, a 68-yard touchdown pass from Peter Tom Willis to Tom Waddle, but Brandon recovered a fumble on the Chicago 28-yard line early in the fourth quarter, and Kevin Mack's 1-yard run with 10:35 left in the game sealed Cleveland's victory. Willis completed 19 of 26 passes for 285 yards and 2 touchdowns in his first NFL start, but was intercepted twice. The Browns' Bernie Kosar played for the first time since breaking an ankle in week two and completed 8 of 17 passes for 59 yards.

Kansas City 23, N.Y. Jets 7—at Giants Stadium, attendance 57,375. Dave Krieg threw a pair of third-quarter touchdown passes to lead the Chiefs to their fourth consecutive victory. Kansas City led just 6-0 until Krieg capped a 75-yard drive with a 2-yard touchdown pass to tight end Keith Cash 4:27 into the third quarter. The Chiefs then recovered the ensuing onside kickoff and marched 45 yards to Krieg's 4-yard touchdown pass to Tim Barnett, increasing their advantage to 20-0 with 5:17 left in the third quarter. Krieg completed passes to 10 different receivers en route to a 17-of-21, 222-yard day. The victory was Kansas City's first in Giants Stadium after 6 losses and a tie to the Jets and Giants. The game was marred by an injury to Jets defensive tackle Dennis Byrd, who broke his veterbra when he collided with teammate Scott Mersereau in the third quarter.

New Orleans 24, Miami 13—at Louisiana Superdome, attendance 68,591. The Saints turned a fumble recovery and an interception into second-half touchdowns to beat the Dolphins. The Saints' Morten Andersen kicked a 26-yard field goal 10:55 into the third quarter to tie the game at 10-10. Just 1:34 later, linebacker Pat Swilling sacked Miami quarterback Dan Marino, forcing a fumble that was recovered by nose tackle Robert Goff, who returned it 28 yards for the touchdown that gave the Saints the lead for good. It was 17-13 in the fourth quarter when cornerback Vince Buck picked off a pass from Marino and returned it 34 yards for the clinching score with 9:55 left. The Dolphins outgained New Orleans 281-252, but Marino was sacked a career-high 5 times, twice by defensive end Wayne Martin. Marino finished with 259 passing yards, most of it in the second quarter, when he completed 13 of 14 passes for 142 yards. The Saints' Dalton Hilliard recorded a touchdown for the sixth consecutive game, running 1 yard for a score in the first quarter.

Minnesota 31, L.A. Rams 17—at Anaheim Stadium, attendance 54,831. Terry Allen scored 3 touchdowns and Sean Salisbury passed for 238 yards in first NFL start as the Vikings eased past the Rams. Allen ran for 2 touchdowns and also caught a 36-yard option pass from running back Keith Henderson. The latter came 4:08 into the second quarter and broke a 7-7 tie. Minnesota never trailed after that. Allen finished with 88 rushing yards and caught 10 passes for 110 yards. The 29-year-old Salisbury, a veteran of four NFL seasons and four more in the Canadian Football League, had thrown only 12 NFL passes entering 1992. But he got the starting nod over Rich Gannon and completed 23 of 34 passes for 238 yards while leading the Vikings to 408 yards of total offense.

Atlanta 34, New England 0—at Georgia Dome, attendance 54,494. Billy Joe Tolliver threw a pair of touchdown passes and the Falcons limited the Patriots to 105 total yards while recording their first shutout since 1988. Tolliver completed scoring tosses of 10 yards to Drew Hill and 18 yards to Steve Broussard as Atlanta built a 24-0 advantage at halftime. The latter came three plays after linebacker Darion Conner sacked New England quarterback Scott Zolak, forcing a fumble that teammate Mike Gann recovered. On the Patriots' next possession, Falcons safety Jeff Donaldson forced another fumble, and cornerback Deion Sanders recovered to set up a field goal. Atlanta's defense, which entered the game ranked last in the NFL, forced 4 turnovers and sacked Zolak 5 times. New England's first-year quarterback threw for only 58 yards, and 43 yards in sacks reduced the Patriots' passing output to only 15 yards. Conner had 3 of the sacks and Sanders intercepted a pair of passes in the fourth quarter. Rookie Tony Smith ran for 81 yards on 10 carries, including a 29-yard scoring run in the third quarter.

San Francisco 20, Philadelphia 14—at Candlestick Park, attendance 64,374. Jerry Rice caught the 100th touchdown pass of his career and the 49ers held off the Eagles to become the first team to clinch a playoff berth this season. Rice's 22-yard touchdown catch in the first quarter gave San Francisco a lead it would never relinquish and gave him a share of the NFL record for career touchdown catches, equaling the mark set by former Seattle Seahawk Steve Largent. Rice finished with 8 catches for 133 yards. Steve Young, who completed 24 of 35 passes for 342 yards, fired a 43-yard touchdown pass to running back Dexter Carter early in the fourth quarter to give the 49ers a 20-7 lead. But Philadelphia fought back, pulling to within six points when Randall Cunningham—who completed 28 of 42 for 257 yards and 2 touchdowns—threw an 11-yard touchdown pass to Keith Byars with 8:58 remaining. San Francisco's victory wasn't secured until Cunningham's fourth-and-15 pass to Calvin Williams came up an inch short of a first down at the 49ers' 11-yard line with 36 seconds remaining.

Washington 41, Phoenix 3—at RFK Stadium, attendance 53,541. Safety Brad Edwards intercepted 3 passes, returning 1 for a touchdown, as the defending Super Bowl-champion Redskins snapped a two-game losing streak and remained in contention for a playoff berth. Washington, which had struggled on offense for most of the season, spotted the Cardinals an early field goal, but countered with a 67-yard touchdown drive on its first possession to take the lead for good. Quarterback Mark Rypien threw a 13-yard touchdown pass to Ricky Sanders to cap that drive, and Edwards intercepted a Timm Rosenbach pass on Phoenix's next possession and returned it 53 yards for a touchdown. Rypien also had a 31-yard touchdown pass to Gary Clark in the fourth quarter, and backup Cary Conklin threw his first NFL touchdown pass, a 10-yarder to Art Monk, late in the game. Rosenbach completed 19 of 34 passes for 262 yards for the Cardinals, but was intercepted 4 times. Phoenix's Ricky Proehl caught 7 passes for 104 yards. The victory was the Redskins' fourteenth in a row over the Cardinals at RFK Stadium.

Pittsburgh 21, Cincinnati 9—at Riverfront Stadium, attendance 54,253. Barry Foster scored 2 touchdowns and set a club single-season rushing record as the Steelers spoiled Bengals quarterback David Klingler's NFL debut. Pittsburgh never trailed, taking the lead when a fake punt went awry on Cincinnati's first possession.

Up-back Eric Ball fumbled the snap and the Steelers' Charles Davenport scooped up the loose ball and went 34 yards for a touchdown. Foster ran for 102 yards on 25 carries to up his league-leading total to 1,319 yards. That broke Pro Football Hall of Fame member Franco Harris's Pittsburgh record of 1,246 yards, set in 1975. Klingler, the Bengals' first-round draft pick, started in place of Boomer Esiason and completed 16 of 34 passes for 140 yards, with no interceptions. But the Steelers, blitzing liberally, sacked him 10 times, including 3 by linebacker David Little. Bengals running back Harold Green had 116 yards on 16 carries and Klingler managed to scramble for 44 yards.

Green Bay 19, Tampa Bay 14—at Milwaukee County Stadium, attendance 52,347. Brett Favre tossed a 9-yard touchdown pass to tight end Jackie Harris for the winning points as the Packers won for the fourth time in five games and raised their record to .500. Favre, who completed 26 of 41 passes for 223 yards, erased a 14-12 deficit with his scoring toss to Harris with 10:09 left in the game. To that point, all of Green Bay's scoring had come from kicker Chris Jacke, who booted 4 field goals. Vinny Testaverde threw 2 touchdown passes for the Buccaneers, but could not rally his team in the final quarter. Packers defensive back Roland Mitchell intercepted a pair of Testaverde's passes, the last to thwart Tampa Bay's final chance with 1:32 remaining. Green Bay intercepted 3 passes in all and recovered a pair of fumbles.

San Diego 27, L.A. Raiders 3—at San Diego Jack Murphy Stadium, attendance 59,894. The Chargers won for the seventh time in their last eight games by taking advantage of Raiders mistakes to build a 21-3 first-half lead. Los Angeles moved the ball effectively against the top-ranked rushing defense in the league, as running back Eric Dickerson compiled 100 yards by halftime. But the Raiders managed only 3 points despite moving into San Diego territory on all four first-half possessions. Their first possession ended in a blocked field goal and their second in safety Stanley Richards's interception and 20-yard return. The Chargers then marched 55 yards to a touchdown, scoring when wide receiver Anthony Miller recovered running back Marion Butts's fumble in the end zone. Butts had a 1-yard touchdown run later in the half and a fumble recovery by San Diego safety Darren Carrington led to Stan Humphries's 15-yard touchdown pass to Shawn Jefferson just 16 seconds before halftime. The Raiders never mounted a challenge in the second half, and John Carney added a pair of field goals for the Chargers. Dickerson carried only 1 time in the second half and finished with 103 yards.

Seattle 16, Denver 13—at Kingdome, attendance 51,612. John Kasay kicked a 32-yard field goal with 3:50 left in overtime as the Seahawks stunned the Broncos. The victory was only the second of the season for Seattle and knocked Denver out of a share of first place in the AFC Western Division. The Broncos, playing without injured starting quarterback John Elway, struggled on offense, gaining only 196 total yards. But Denver still had an apparently comfortable 13-3 lead over the low-scoring Seahawks late in the game. Kasay kicked a 33-yard field goal with 5:20 remaining in regulation, and backup quarterback Stan Gelbaugh threw a 3-yard touchdown pass to Brian Blades as time expired to tie the score and force the extra session. Kasay missed a 33-yard field-goal try early in the overtime, but got a second chance. Gelbaugh was 12 of 21 for 164 yards despite not entering the game until only 9:27 remained in the fourth quarter. The victory snapped Seattle's eight-game losing streak.

Thursday, December 3

New Orleans 22, Atlanta 14—at Louisiana Superdome, attendance 68,591. Morten Andersen's 5 field goals helped the Saints clinch a playoff berth. Andersen's final field goal, a 37-yarder, gave New Orleans a 15-14 lead with 1:56 left in the game. Cornerback Toi Cook sealed the victory by returning an interception 48 yards for a touchdown with 52 seconds to go. The Saints dominated the game statistically, outgaining the Falcons 388 yards to 168 and maintaining possession for more than 40 minutes. But New Orleans's offense could not reach the end zone and Atlanta took a 14-12 advantage when Wade Wilson tossed a 13-yard touchdown pass to Michael Haynes with 4:25 left in the game.

Cleveland 37, Cincinnati 21—at Cleveland Stadium, attendance 68,368. The Browns scored 3 touchdowns in a span of 96 seconds of the third quarter to break open their game against the Bengals and keep alive their wild-card playoff hopes. Bernie Kosar threw a 35-yard touchdown pass to running back Eric Metcalf 5:06 into the second half to make it 20-7. Just 1:19 later, Kosar found Michael Jackson on a 45-yard touchdown pass to make it 27-7. Linebacker Mike Johnson finished the scoring spurt 17 seconds after that when he recovered Cincinnati quarterback David Klingler's fumble in the end zone for a touchdown. Kosar completed 19 of 23 passes (a club-record 82.6 percent) for 239 yards and the 2 touchdowns, while Metcalf accumulated 210 yards rushing, receiving, and returning kicks. Bengals wide receiver Jeff Query caught 6 passes for 85 yards and 2 scores.

Dallas 31, Denver 27—at Mile High Stadium, attendance 74,946. Emmitt Smith's 3-yard touchdown run with 2:47 left in the game gave the Cowboys a wild victory and at least a wild-card playoff berth. The Broncos, who lost their third consecutive game but their first at home after eight straight regular-season victories, used alternating quarterbacks to replace injured starter John Elway. Tommy Maddox and Shawn Moore shuffled in and out on nearly every play and each threw for 104 yards. Maddox tossed 3 touchdown passes but also was intercepted 4 times and lost a fumble, leading to 3 Dallas touchdowns. The rookie had his first 2 passes picked off, and the Cowboys converted each into Troy Aikman touchdown passes to Michael Irvin to build a 14-0 advantage less than seven minutes into the game. But Denver battled back, and when Maddox threw a 23-yard touchdown pass to running back Reggie Rivers late in the third quarter, the Broncos trailed just 24-20. In the fourth quarter, Maddox tossed a lateral to rookie wide receiver Arthur Marshall, who connected with rookie Cedric Tillman on an 81-yard touchdown pass to give Denver a 27-24 lead with 9:05 remaining. But Dallas countered with an 11-play, 77-yard drive to win the game. Aikman converted a key third-and-14 with a 14-yard pass to Irvin, and also had 22- and 18-yard strikes to tight end Jay Novacek along the way. The Cowboys' quarterback completed 25 of 35 passes for 231 yards in all. The Broncos fell to third place in the AFC West with the loss.

Green Bay 38, Detroit 10—at Milwaukee County Stadium, attendance 49,469. Brett Favre threw 3 first-half touchdown passes and the Packers breezed to their fourth consecutive victory. Snow flurries throughout the game couldn't slow Green Bay's offense, which amassed 374 total yards. Favre completed 15 of 19 passes for 214 yards. Two of his touchdown passes went to Sterling Sharpe, who had 6 receptions for 107 yards. Linebacker Tony Bennett recovered Lions quarterback Andre Ware's fumble and ran 18 yards for another score. Ware, Detroit's first-round draft pick in 1990, had played sparingly in his career. He replaced injured Rodney Peete early in the second quarter and had his first pass intercepted, then fumbled when sacked by defensive end Matt Brock on the play that Bennett scored. But Ware rebounded to complete 13 of 23 passes for 133 yards, including an 11-yard touchdown to Herman Moore in the second quarter. Moore caught 8 passes for 114 yards and Barry Sanders rushed for 114 yards for the Lions. Sanders finished the day with a season total of 1,048 rushing yards, and thus joined Eric Dickerson, Tony Dorsett, and Earl Campbell as the only players to rush for 1,000 or more yards in each of their first four NFL seasons. The Packers four-game winning streak was their longest since winning four in a row in 1984.

Indianapolis 6, New England 0—at Foxboro Stadium, attendance 19,429. Dean Biasucci kicked a pair of first-half field goals in the cold and the wind for the only points in the Colts' victory. The Patriots, shut out a week earlier by the Falcons, were blanked in back-to-back games for the first time in franchise history. New England managed only 9 first downs and 94 yards in total offense. Patriots quarterbacks were victimized by 8 sacks, including 3½ by Indianapolis linebacker Duane Bickett. The Colts fared a little better on offense, accumulating 265 total yards, most of it behind quarterback Jack Trudeau, who completed 23 of 35 passes for 209 yards. Neither team could move the ball inside the other team's 10-yard line. The wind chill factor was minus-5 at kickoff.

L.A. Raiders 28, Kansas City 7—at Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, attendance 45,227. Jay Schroeder threw 3 touchdown passes and the Raiders knocked the Chiefs into a tie with San Diego for first place in the AFC West. Schroeder threw for only 93 yards and had 2 of his 18 attempts (he completed 12) intercepted, but he spread scoring tosses around to tight end Ethan Horton, running back Steve Smith, and wide receiver Willie Gault. His 6-yarder to Horton gave Los Angeles the lead 7:34 into the game, and when Elvis Patterson blocked Bryan Barker's punt and recovered it in the end zone for a touchdown following Kansas City's next possession, the Raiders had all the points they would need. The Chiefs outgained Los Angeles 265-230, but managed only 17 rushing yards while playing catch-up. Dave Krieg passed for 276 yards.

San Francisco 27, Miami 3—at Candlestick Park, attendance 58,474. Jerry Rice set an NFL record for career touchdown catches and the 49ers maintained their one-game lead over the Saints in the NFC West by routing the Dolphins. Rice caught a 12-yard touchdown pass from Steve Young 6:04 into the fourth quarter. It was the 101st touchdown reception of his career, breaking former Seattle Seahawk Steve Largent's league mark. Young completed 19 of 27 passes for 220 yards, and San Francisco's pass defense, ranked last in the NFL, limited Miami quarterback Dan Marino to 192 yards. Rookie Amp Lee started at running back for injured Ricky Watters and ran 1 yard for his first NFL touchdown midway through the third quarter to give the 49ers a 20-3 lead. San Francisco won its fifth consecutive game and tenth in the past 11.

Philadelphia 28, Minnesota 17—at Veterans Stadium, attendance 65,280. Quarterback Randall Cunningham rushed for a season-high 121 yards and scored 2 touchdowns to pace the Eagles' victory. Cunningham, playing perhaps his best game since returning from the knee injury that kept him out nearly all of 1991, averaged better than 10 yards on his 12 carries. He also completed 16 of 23 passes for 164 yards. Philadelphia trailed 3-0 until Cunningham scrambled for 30 and 18 yards on a 70-yard drive that he capped by sneaking 1 yard for a touchdown late in the first quarter. After the Vikings rallied with the first of Terry Allen's 2 touchdown runs, Heath Sherman gave the Eagles the lead for good with a 1-yard run with 2:54 left in the first half. Cunningham sneaked 1 yard again for a touchdown late in the third quarter, and linebacker Seth Joyner secured the victory with a one-handed interception that he returned 24 yards for a touchdown with 4:35 left in the game. Philadelphia rushed for 225 yards and had a sizable advantage in total yards, 370-219. Eagles defensive tackle Andy Harmon recorded 3 sacks.

N.Y. Jets 24, Buffalo 17—at Rich Stadium, attendance 75,876. Jets safety Brian Washington intercepted a Jim Kelly pass and returned it 23 yards for the winning touchdown with 1:41 remaining. Washington then sealed the victory by picking off Kelly's desperation pass in the closing seconds. New York entered the fourth quarter ahead 17-10 on the strength of 2 touchdown runs by Brad Baxter that erased a 10-3 halftime deficit. But Kelly tossed a 1-yard touchdown pass to tight end Pete Metzelaars to tie the game with 8:55 left. The Bills took possession at their 19-yard line with 1:53 to go. Two plays later, Washington provided the winning points. A fumble and Washington's second interception ended Buffalo's final two possessions. Baxter ran for 98 yards and Browning Nagle completed 14 of 22 passes for 176 yards for the Jets. Thurman Thomas rushed for 116 yards for the Bills, who amassed 345 total yards, but turned the ball over 4 times.

San Diego 27, Phoenix 21—at Sun Devil Stadium, attendance 26,880. The Chargers continued their dramatic charge by rallying from a 14-point deficit to beat the Cardinals. After starting the season 0-4, San Diego won for the eighth time in nine games and moved into a first-place tie with Kansas City in the AFC West. No team in NFL history has started a season with four consecutive losses and gone on to make the playoffs. Phoenix jumped out to a 14-0 lead before the game was eight minutes old and still had a 21-10 advantage after quarterback Chris Chandler teamed with wide receiver Ricky Proehl on a 63-yard touchdown pass midway through the third quarter. But the Chargers' Stan Humphries had 25- and 26-yard completions on a 55-yard drive that was capped by Eric Bieniemy's 5-yard touchdown run to trim the deficit to 21-17 with 43 seconds left in the third quarter. San Diego then marched 63 yards to the go-ahead touchdown on Ronnie Harmon's 1-yard run with 8:44 left in the game. That drive started when cornerback Gill Byrd recovered a fumble at the Chargers' 37-yard line. Byrd later forced a fumble that thwarted the Cardinals' last threat.

Pittsburgh 20, Seattle 14—at Three Rivers Stadium, attendance 47,015. The Steelers became the first AFC team to clinch a playoff berth when they overcame 5 interceptions to beat the Seahawks. Barry Foster, who rushed for 125 yards on 33 carries (his tenth 100-yard effort of the season), ran 4 yards to put Pittsburgh ahead 17-14 with 2:22 to play. Gary Anderson added a 39-yard field goal in the final minute. Stan Gelbaugh had given Seattle its four-point lead with touchdown passes of 28 yards to Tommy Kane and 3 yards to John L. Williams. But backup quarterback Bubby Brister, who entered the game in the third quarter when starter Neil O'Donnell was injured, directed a 13-play, 80-yard march to the go-ahead score. O'Donnell threw interceptions on 3 of his first 4 pass attempts, but the Seahawks could not convert any of the thefts into scores. Brister threw 2 interceptions, but again Seattle could not convert. Seahawks kicker John Kasay missed field-goal attempts of 40, 44, and 38 yards. Safety Eugene Robinson had 3 interceptions.

Byner's scoring runs of 1 yard and 11 yards gave Washington a 14-3 halftime advantage. After New York pulled within 14-10 on Rodney Hampton's 1-yard scoring run 8:37 into the second half, the Redskins countered with an 80-yard touchdown march. Mark Rypien, who was 15 of 18 for 216 yards in the game, completed 4 consecutive passes on the drive, the last a 20-yard touchdown to tight end Terry Orr with 46 seconds left in the third quarter. Rypien added a 42-yard touchdown pass to Art Monk early in the fourth quarter. It was Monk's only catch of the day and extended his streak of consecutive games with a reception to 145. Vinny Testaverde's 81-yard scoring toss to tight end Tyji Armstrong highlighted the first half for Tampa Bay, which led 27-3 at intermission. But Los Angeles marched 70 yards to a touchdown following the second-half kickoff, then converted a fumble recovery and an interception into touchdowns to pull within 27-24 only 7:41 into the third quarter. Everett then capped a 69-yard drive with his scoring toss to Carter, the Rams quarterback's third touchdown pass of the second half. He finished with 25 completions in 38 attempts for 342 yards and was not intercepted. Los Angeles rolled up 405 yards of total offense. Buffalo 27, Denver 17—at Rich Stadium, attendance 71,740. The Bills built a 24-0 third-quarter lead, then held off a furious rally by the Broncos to snap a two-game losing streak and send Denver to its fourth consecutive defeat. Buffalo broke a scoreless tie midway through the second quarter on a flea-flicker that started with quarterback Jim Kelly handing off to running back Thurman Thomas, who handed off to wide receiver Andre Reed on a reverse. But Reed pitched the ball back to Kelly, who found wide receiver Don Beebe alone behind the Broncos' secondary for a 64-yard touchdown. Denver could not get on the board until Tommy Maddox threw a 1-yard touchdown pass to Shannon Sharpe to make the score 24-7 late in the third quarter. But kicker Brad Daluiso recovered his ensuing onside kickoff, and the Broncos drove to a field goal. And when Greg Lewis ran 1 yard for a touchdown with 6:13 remaining, Denver trailed only 24-17. But the Bills responded with a 62-yard, 10-play drive that resulted in Steve Christie's 25-yard field goal to insure the victory. Thurman Thomas rushed for 120 yards for Buffalo and Beebe caught 4 passes for 104 yards. Sharpe had 7 receptions for 109 yards for the Broncos.

Phoenix's victory was its first over New York since 1988 and extended the Giants' losing streak to five games. Johnson, who equaled a club record with 36 carries, scored on a 5-yard run in the second quarter, then raced 42 yards on the first play of the fourth quarter to put the game out of reach. The Cardinals finished with 179 rushing yards, while limiting New York to 8 first downs and 131 total yards, and maintaining possession for more than 40 minutes. Phoenix recorded its first shutout since the 1981 season, while the Giants were blanked during the regular season for the first time since 1980.

A starting cornerback and part-time wide receiver, Sanders caught a 37-yard pass with 8:45 left in the game for his first touchdown reception as a pro. Haynes finished with 113 yards on 5 catches. The Chargers remained tied for first place in the AFC Western Division by winning for the ninth time in their last 10 games. The score was tied at 10-10 late in the third quarter before San Diego broke it open. First, quarterback Stan Humphries scored from 1 yard out on a fourth-down bootleg with 4:19 left in the period. Three minutes later, Rod Bernstine, playing for the first time after missing seven games because of an injury, scored on a 7-yard run to cap an 18-yard drive that was set up by linebacker Gary Plummer's interception. Safety Darren Carrington's interception on the Bengals' next drive set up the Chargers' final points, a 48-yard field goal by John Carney 1:14 into the fourth quarter. San Diego controlled the ball for nearly 40 minutes while recording 161 yards on the ground and 370 in all. The Chargers marched 77 yards to a field goal following the opening kickoff, holding the ball for 9:11. The Bengals answered with an 83-yard touchdown pass from David Klingler to Jeff Query on their first play from scrimmage.

Ware, making his first start since 1990, completed 10 of 14 passes for 138 yards and also ran for 68 yards on 5 carries. He threw touchdown passes of 13 yards to Brett Perriman and 19 yards to Reggie Barrett as Detroit built a 21-0 lead. Bernie Kosar, who completed 20 of 28 passes for 276 yards, tried to rally Cleveland with a pair of fourth-quarter touchdown passes. But he also was intercepted twice as the Browns, who entered the game with a turnover margin of plus-11, second-best in the NFL, gave the ball away 3 times and did not register any takeaways.

The win bolstered Washington's playoff chances and prevented the Cowboys from clinching their first NFC Eastern Division title since 1985. Dallas dominated much of the game, but only led 17-10 in the fourth quarter. The Cowboys drove to the Redskins' 2-yard line early in the final period, but Washington linebacker Andre Collins stepped in front of a Troy Aikman pass at the goal line, and returned the interception 59 yards to set up a field goal with 7:02 remaining. On the Cowboys' next possession, Copeland recovered a fumble and returned it 15 yards to Dallas's 24, but the Redskins' drive stalled at the 2 when Mark Rypien's fourth-down pass was incomplete. Two plays later, the Cowboys were at the 5 when Aikman was sacked by defensive end Jason Buck in the end zone. Dallas running back Emmitt Smith picked up the ball briefly, but when he also fumbled, Copeland fell on the ball for the winning points.

Jack Trudeau came off the bench to throw a 23-yard touchdown pass to tight end Charles Arbuckle with 2:29 left to lift the Colts to victory. Trudeau, who had led Indianapolis to victories each of the last two weeks as a starter, was back on the bench after Jeff George returned from an injury to start against the Jets. But George could not produce a touchdown and Trudeau replaced him with 8:23 to go in the game. He directed the winning 71-yard drive, converting a key third down with a 41-yard pass to tight end Kerry Cash. The subsequent touchdown to Arbuckle was the first scoring catch of the reserve tight end's career. Cash, meanwhile, finished with 7 receptions for 104 yards. New York's Chris Burkett caught 6 passes for 110 yards. The game was marred by 7 turnovers, including 5 by the Jets.

Safety Charles Mincy scooped up a fumble and returned it 30 yards for a touchdown 22 seconds into the fourth quarter, breaking a 13-13 tie and sending the Chiefs on their way to the victory. The game featured 10 fumbles, thanks largely to a steady downpour. The Patriots had opened the game by scoring on a fumble return of their own, when nose tackle Tim Goad picked up Christian Okoye's fumble and went 19 yards for a touchdown on the first play from scrimmage. Okoye rebounded to rush for 86 yards, including a 1-yard touchdown run that tied the game in the third quarter. After Mincy returned Jon Vaughn's fumble for the go-ahead score, Dave Krieg put Kansas City ahead 27-13 with a 43-yard touchdown pass to Willie Davis five minutes into the fourth quarter. Krieg completed only 10 passes (for 196 yards), but spread them around to 9 different receivers.

New Orleans forced 6 turnovers and the game's outcome never was in doubt. The Saints led 23-0 by halftime and 37-0 midway through the fourth quarter before Los Angeles scored. New Orleans's offense, normally overshadowed by the team's stifling defense, amassed 399 yards. Hebert completed 15 of 25 passes for 238 yards, and rookie running back Vaughn Dunbar had 91 yards on 13 carries. Philadelphia dominated Seattle (2-12) statistically, compiling 25 first downs to only 11 and outgaining the Seahawks 466-87. But 10 sacks and a club-record 191 yards in penalties prevented the Eagles from winning in regulation. In fact, Philadelphia had to rally to tie, doing so when Herschel Walker ran 8 yards for a touchdown with 4:52 left in the game. Late in the overtime, the Eagles marched 53 yards to the winning field goal. Randall Cunningham's 21-yard shovel pass to Keith Byars was the key play. Cunningham finished with 27 completions in 44 attempts for 365 yards. Fred Barnett had 9 catches for 161 yards and Walker ran for 111 yards on 23 carries. Singletary, a nine-time Pro Bowl pick had 3 tackles while helping Chicago's defense limit Barry Foster, the NFL's leading rusher, to only 25 yards on 12 carries. The Bears never trailed, and put the game away when Anderson scored twice in the second half. His 15-yard touchdown catch from Jim Harbaugh midway through the third quarter put his team ahead 20-3, and his 6-yard run with 3:02 left in the game closed the scoring.

Rookie Amp Lee, playing in place of injured starter Ricky Watters, rushed for 134 yards and scored a pair of touchdowns to lead the 49ers to their sixth consecutive victory. San Francisco also got a couple of big defensive plays down the stretch to secure the victory. After pulling to within three points on Terry Allen's 1-yard run with 9:29 left in the game, the Vikings made a bid for the tying or winning score, driving to the 49ers' 35-yard line. But defensive end Pierce Holt and linebacker Tim Harris combined to sack Minnesota quarterback Rich Gannon on second down, and Harris added another sack on third down to push the Vikings out of field-goal range. Lee, whose 43-yard run set up what proved to be the decisive field goal in the closing seconds of the third quarter, then helped San Francisco run out the final 2:13. The 49ers' top-rated offense was limited to 287 total yards, far below its season average of 401. But Minnesota managed only 185. Harris had 2½ sacks for the 49ers, while the Vikings' Al Noga had 3 of his team's 7 sacks. Cornerback Audray McMillian's 51-yard interception return for a touchdown was Minnesota's club-record eighth defensive touchdown of the season.

The Packers converted 2 fumble recoveries and 2 interceptions into 13 points. Houston's final turnover, a fumbled snap by quarterback Cody Carlson after the Oilers had reached the Green Bay 37-yard line while trailing only 9-7 in the fourth quarter, led to Sharpe's touchdown catch, which proved to be the decisive score. Carlson completed 25 of 36 passes for 330 yards for Houston, which outgained the Packers 387-215. The Oilers' Curtis Duncan caught 6 passes for 100 yards.

Brown returned an interception 35 yards for a touchdown to highlight the Dolphins' victory. The game was scoreless until Miami's Pete Stoyanovich kicked a 26-yard field goal 4:53 before halftime. Just 20 seconds later, Brown's interception return made it 10-0. In the third quarter, Marino handed off to Mark Higgs, who lateraled back to the Dolphins quarterback. Marino then fired a strike to Duper for the score that broke the game open. The Raiders rarely threatened on offense, totaling only 151 yards. Los Angeles's lone score came when safety Eddie Anderson returned a fourth-quarter interception 102 yards for a touchdown. It was the longest interception return in club history and equaled the third-longest in NFL annals.

N.Y. Giants 35, Kansas City 21—at Giants Stadium, attendance 53,418. Rodney Hampton rushed for 3 touchdowns and Jeff Hostetler passed for 2 as the Giants knocked the Chiefs out of a first-place tie in the AFC Western Division and prevented Kansas City from clinching a playoff berth. New York, which snapped a five-game losing streak, ground out 217 rushing yards, including 84 each by Hampton and Jarrod Bunch. The Giants led 21-7 at halfitme, forcing the ground-oriented Chiefs to take to the air to try to catch up. Dave Krieg passed for 259 yards, including a 77-yard touchdown to Tim Barnett in the third quarter, but also was intercepted twice. Hostetler completed 10 of 16 passes for 131 yards and scrambled for 23 yards on 6 carries in his return to the lineup after missing three with a severe concussion. The Giants scored only a combined 13 points in the three weeks he missed, but had 14 in the first quarter alone against Kansas City. The Chiefs' loss, coupled with Denver's victory over Seattle a day later, set up a regular-season ending showdown between the Broncos and Chiefs for the AFC's final playoff spot.

Young, who completed 18 of 31 passes for 270 yards and was not intercepted, broke a 7-7 tie with a 32-yard touchdown pass to Rice early in the second half. After the Buccaneers' Reggie Cobb tied the game with a 1-yard touchdown run 53 seconds into the fourth quarter, San Francisco drove 64 yards in six plays to the winning score on Young's 30-yard pass to Rice. Tampa Bay had a first-and-goal at the 49ers' 3-yard line late in the game but could not score, and San Francisco rookie safety Dana Hall knocked down Vinny Testaverde's desperation pass in the end zone on the game's final play. Buccaneers wide receiver Mark Carrier had 28 yards on 3 receptions to finish the day with 4,930 career receiving yards, a club record.

Buffalo 20, New Orleans 16—at Louisiana Superdome, attendance 68,591. Thurman Thomas ran for 115 yards and 2 touchdowns as the Bills improved to 11-4, best in the AFC. Buffalo, playing without injured defensive stars Bruce Smith and Cornelius Bennett, still limited the Saints to 205 total yards. New Orleans quarterback Bobby Hebert, who had been sacked only 11 times all season, was dropped 4 times, including twice by nose tackle Jeff Wright and twice by defensive end Phil Hansen, who was starting in place of the injured Smith. Still, the Bills found themselves trailing 16-10 entering the fourth quarter. But an 85-yard drive was kept alive by a critical fourth-down pass interference penalty, and Thomas scored from 2 yards to give Buffalo the lead for good with 7:19 to play. The Bills recovered a fumble on the ensuing kickoff and added an insurance field goal with 3:36 to go.

Andre Ware passed for 290 yards, Barry Sanders rushed for 113 yards and a touchdown, and the Lions won back-to-back games for the first time this season. Ware completed only 12 passes but many were long-range. His 31-yard pass to Brett Perriman and his 43-yard pass to Herman Moore set up Detroit's first score, a 22-yard field goal by Jason Hanson 3:53 into the game. He had a 35-yard pass to Perriman on a 93-yard drive that culminated in Sanders's 6-yard touchdown run 52 seconds into the second quarter. Ware's 59-yard strike to Moore helped Hanson make it 13-0 at intermission with a 38-yard field goal in the final minute of the first half. The Bears never got on track, managing only a 24-yard field goal by Kevin Butler in the third quarter. The Lions finished with 399 total yards to only 242 for Chicago. Moore totaled 108 yards on just 3 receptions.

Houston 17, Cleveland 14—at Cleveland Stadium, attendance 59,898. Cody Carlson's 3-yard touchdown pass to Ernest Givins with 34 seconds remaining gave the Oilers a come-from-behind victory. Houston's win, coupled with Miami's victory over the Jets later in the day, gave the Oilers a wild-card playoff berth while eliminating the Browns from postseason contention. Cleveland led 14-3 until late in the game, when Carlson capped an 85-yard drive by teaming with Curtis Duncan on a 2-yard touchdown pass with 2:58 to go. Moments later, running back Lorenzo White turned a screen pass from Carlson into a 65-yard gain to position Houston for the winning points. Carlson finished with 248 passing yards, much of it on the final two drives. White caught 6 passes for 105 yards. The Browns' Kevin Mack rushed for 95 yards on 21 carries.

Green Bay 28, L.A. Rams 13—at Lambeau Field, attendance 57,796. The Packers overcame a 10-point second-quarter deficit by scoring 4 touchdowns in a span of 6:33. Darrell Thompson began the onslaught by running 2 yards for a touchdown with 6:48 remaining in the first half. Just 1:18 later, rookie cornerback Terrell Buckley intercepted a Jim Everett pass and returned it 33 yards for a touchdown to give Green Bay a 14-10 advantage, a lead it never relinquished. Quarterback Brett Favre and wide receiver Sterling Sharpe then teamed on a pair of scoring passes 65 seconds apart, a 17-yarder with 1:20 left in the half and a 16-yarder at the 15-second mark. Sharpe caught 8 passes for 110 yards to became the sixth player in NFL history to reach the century mark in a single season. He finished the day with 102 catches, just 4 away from the NFL record of 106, set by Washington's Art Monk in 1984. Everett completed 24 of 44 passes for 222 yards for the Rams, but was intercepted 3 times. Though Minnesota clinched the NFC Central Division title with its victory over Pittsburgh, the Packers' triumph kept their own wild-card playoff hopes alive.

Minnesota 6, Pittsburgh 3—at Three Rivers Stadium, attendance 53,613. Fuad Reveiz kicked 2 fourth-quarter field goals, including the game-winner from 36 yards on the final play, as the Vikings won the NFC Central Division title. Both teams generated considerable yardage on the ground, but neither could crack the end zone. Minnesota's Terry Allen rushed for 172 yards on 33 carries, but the Vikings fumbled the ball away 3 times and had a field-goal attempt aborted by a bad snap. The Steelers' Barry Foster rushed for 118 yards on 24 carries—his eleventh 100-yard outing of the season—but left the game in the fourth quarter with a back injury. Pittsburgh's lone score came on Gary Anderson's 23-yard field goal five seconds before halftime. After Reveiz's 38-yard field goal tied the game at 3-3 with 7:08 left, Minnesota marched 61 yards on its next possession to set up the winning kick. The key play was Sean Salisbury's third-down, 35-yard pass to Jake Reed.

Cincinnati 20, New England 10—at Riverfront Stadium, attendance 45,355. Harold Green rushed for a career-high 190 yards on 31 carries as the Bengals broke a five-game losing streak and handed the Patriots their fourth consecutive defeat. Green, who surpassed the 1,000-yard mark for the season (he finished the day at 1,131), started the scoring with a 6-yard touchdown run with 3:50 to go in the first quarter. Cincinnati quickly extended its lead to 14-0 on Derrick Fenner's 1-yard run only 25 seconds later. Fenner's run was set up after the Bengals recovered an onside kick at midfield, then got the ball at the New England 1-yard line after a pass interference penalty in the end zone. That would be all the points they'd need against the Patriots, who managed only 10 first downs and 176 total yards. New England's lone touchdown came on Jon Vaughn's 100-yard kickoff return following Fenner's touchdown.

Though Miami's victory later in the day eliminated them from playoff contention, the Colts completed an unprecedented turnaround by beating the Cardinals. With the victory, Indianapolis improved to 8-7 on the season, thus becoming the first team to win as many as eight games the year after going 1-15. Dean Biasucci kicked 3 field goals in this one, including the game-winner from 42 yards with 49 seconds to go. The Colts rallied from a 10-0 first-half deficit behind the passing of Jeff George, who completed 25 of 41 attempts for 328 yards, including a 57-yard touchdown to running back Anthony Johnson. Johnny Johnson ran for 146 yards on 28 carries for Phoenix, which had its final chance to win or tie thwarted when safety Mike Prior intercepted Chris Chandler's pass at the Indianapolis 36-yard line with 19 seconds left. It was Prior's club-record-tying third theft of the day.

The Chargers scored on their first five possessions en route to blasting the Raiders and becoming the first team in NFL history to reach the playoffs after starting the season with four consecutive losses. San Diego, which won its sixth straight and tenth in the last 11 games, moved into first place in the AFC Western Division and clinched at least a wild-card playoff spot, its first postseason berth since 1982. The Chargers limited Los Angeles to only 30 total yards in the decisive first half, which ended with San Diego ahead 23-0. John Carney kicked 3 of his club-record 5 field goals before halftime and Stan Humphries threw touchdown passes of 14 yards to Anthony Miller and 50 yards to Nate Lewis to break the game open. Denver 10, Seattle 6—at Mile High Stadium, attendance 72,570. John Elway returned to the lineup after missing four weeks with a bruised throwing shoulder and the Broncos won for the first time since his injury. The veteran quarterback completed 19 of 28 passes for 213 yards and became the fifteenth player in NFL history to surpass the 30,000-yard mark for his career (30,008). But on this day, he also was intercepted 3 times, as Denver turned the ball over 5 times in an error-plagued first half. But the Seahawks could not capitalize, and led only 3-0 at halftime on John Kasay's 34-yard field goal midway through the second quarter. That came after safety Robert Blackmon recovered Reggie Rivers's fumble at the Broncos' 40-yard line and returned it 9 yards. But Denver got a turnover of its own on the first play of the second half to set up the game's lone touchdown: Kenny Walker's fumble recovery at Seattle's 23 led to Gaston Green's 1-yard run just 1:20 into the third quarter. That provided the Broncos with all the points they would need and set up a showdown with the Chiefs one week later in Kansas City for the AFC's lone remaining playoff berth.

The Eagles clinched at least a wild-card playoff berth when cornerback Eric Allen tipped away Mark Rypien's pass to Gary Clark in the end zone on the final play. Roger Ruzek kicked a 23-yard field goal with 3:35 left in the game to put Philadelphia ahead by four points. Starting at their 10-yard line, the Redskins drove to the Eagles' 5 behind Rypien, who converted three third downs and a pair of fourth downs along the way. But Allen saved the victory by batting away Rypien's pass as time ran out. Rypien completed 22 of 38 passes for 272 yards, including a 62-yard touchdown to give Washington a 10-7 lead in the second quarter. It was 13-7 at halftime, but Randall Cunningham's 28-yard touchdown pass to Calvin Williams 4:15 into the third quarter put Philadelphia ahead for good. The Eagles' Heath Sherman rushed for 96 yards, including a 21-yard touchdown run in the second quarter. Miami 19, N.Y. Jets 17—at Joe Robbie Stadium, attendance 68,275. Pete Stoyanovich, who missed a crucial extra-point attempt two minutes earlier, lifted the Dolphins to the victory and a spot in the AFC playoffs by kicking a 37-yard field goal with seven seconds remaining. After Cary Blanchard had given the Jets a 17-10 lead on a 35-yard field goal with 4:16 left in the game, Miami's Tony Martin took a short fourth-down pass from Dan Marino and broke free for a 55-yard touchdown with 2:30 to go. But the Dolphins still trailed by a point when Stoyanovich pushed the conversion attempt to the right. After holding New York without a first down and forcing a short punt, Miami got the ball back on the Jets' 45-yard line with 1:05 remaining. Marino completed passes of 11 yards to Fred Banks and 17 yards to Mark Duper to position the Dolphins for the winning kick. With the win, Miami clinched at least a wild-card playoff berth and kept alive its hopes for winning the AFC Eastern Division title.

Dallas 41, Atlanta 17—at Georgia Dome, attendance 67,036. The Cowboys wrapped up their first NFC Eastern Division title since 1985 by pummeling the Falcons. Dallas led 20-10 at halftime, then broke the game open by recovering a pair of fumbles and turning them into touchdowns in a 25-second span of the third quarter. First, Cowboys cornerback Larry Brown recovered Steve Broussard's fumble. That set up Troy Aikman's 23-yard touchdown pass to Alvin Harper three plays later. Then, Atlanta's Deion Sanders fumbled the ensuing kickoff. Dallas safety Thomas Everett recovered at the Falcons' 29-yard line, and Emmitt Smith ran for a score on the next play to make it 34-10. Smith added another 29-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter and finished with 174 yards on 24 carries. Aikman was 18 of 21 for 239 yards and 3 touchdowns and was not intercepted as the Cowboys amassed 435 total yards. Wade Wilson completed 30 of 41 passes for 342 yards and a pair of scores for Atlanta. The Falcons had a pair of receivers eclipse the 100-yard mark–Mike Pritchard with 105 (on 9 catches) and Michael Haynes with 100 (on 5). By winning, Dallas assured itself of a bye in the first round of the NFL playoffs.

L.A. Raiders 21, Washington 20—at RFK Stadium, attendance 53,032. Vince Evans threw a 3-yard touchdown pass to Tim Brown with 13 seconds remaining to give the Raiders the upset victory. Despite the defeat, the defending Super Bowl-champion Redskins still made the playoffs as the NFC's last wild-card entrant when the Packers lost the following day at Minnesota. The lead changed hands five times in this one, including three times in the closing minutes. Nick Bell gave Los Angeles a 14-13 advantage with 4:03 to go on a 5-yard touchdown run that capped a 67-yard drive. Washington responded by marching 55 yards in only four plays—the key gain a 43-yard pass from Mark Rypien to Art Monk—to take a 20-14 lead on Ricky Ervins's 1-yard run with 1:57 to play. But the Raiders took over on their 20-yard line, moved into scoring position when Evans teamed with Willie Gault on a 50-yard bomb, and scored the winning touchdown on fourth-and-goal. The 37-year-old Evans, who entered the game in the second quarter in relief of injured starter Jay Schroeder, completed 15 of 22 passes for 214 yards and 2 touchdowns. Brown caught 8 passes for 88 yards.

The Jets maintained possession for all but 1:51 of the first quarter, but New Orleans came out of the period with the lead after Mills knocked the ball out of quarterback Browning Nagle's hands deep in Saints' territory. The ball bounced up to Mills and he returned it for his first career touchdown. New York didn't threaten much after that, and finished with only 10 first downs and 172 total yards. New Orleans's Morten Andersen kicked a pair of field goals to give him 20 consecutive successful attempts. The NFL record is 24, by the Bears' Kevin Butler.

L.A. Rams 38, Atlanta 27—at Anaheim Stadium, attendance 37,706. David Lang ran for 3 touchdowns and Todd Kinchen tied an NFL record when he returned a pair of punts for touchdowns in the Rams' victory. Los Angeles jumped out to a 14-0 lead just 6:29 into the game on the first of Lang's two 1-yard touchdown runs and Kinchen's 61-yard touchdown on the first punt return of his career. The Falcons countered with 20 second-quarter points and led 20-17 entering the fourth quarter. But Lang's 1-yard touchdown run 41 seconds into the period gave the Rams the lead for good, and his 37-yarder for a score put Los Angeles ahead 31-20 with 8:54 to go. Kinchen's 35-yard punt return for a touchdown (only five other players in NFL history have returned 2 punts for scores in the same game) 1:46 later put the game out of reach. Wade Wilson completed 31 of 47 passes for 374 yards—his third consecutive week of more than 300 yards—and 3 touchdowns for Atlanta.

Dallas 27, Chicago 14—at Texas Stadium, attendance 63,101. Emmitt Smith ran for 131 yards to clinch his second consecutive NFL rushing title and the Cowboys won for a club-record thirteenth time this season. Smith's 31-yard touchdown run 3:55 into the second half gave Dallas a 10-0 lead and enabled him to edge the Steelers' Barry Foster for the rushing crown by 23 yards. He did not return to the game after the scoring run and finished the year with 1,713 yards. He became only the ninth player to win back-to-back rushing titles and also set a franchise single-season record, eclipsing Tony Dorsett's previous mark of 1,646 yards. The Cowboys, already assured of the NFC Eastern Division title and a bye in the first round of the playoffs, put the game away when defensive tackle Russell Maryland returned a fumble 26 yards for a touchdown just 31 seconds after Smith's run. Rookie quarterback Will Furrer made his first start for the Bears but completed only 9 of 23 passes for 89 yards and was intercepted 3 times.

Pittsburgh 23, Cleveland 13—at Three Rivers Stadium, attendance 53,776. The AFC Central Division-champion Steelers assured themselves of home-field advantage throughout the playoffs with the victory and Buffalo's loss later in the day. Bubby Brister completed 18 of 25 passes for 223 yards and 1 touchdown, a 2-yarder to tight end Tim Jorden 30 seconds before halftime. That gave Pittsburgh a 14-3 lead, and the Steelers increased it to 17-3 at intermission after recovering a fumble on the ensuing kickoff and converting it into Gary Anderson's 26-yard field goal as the first half ended. The Browns pulled within seven points twice, the last time at 20-13 on Matt Stover's 22-yard field goal with 11:18 remaining, but Pittsburgh responded with a 17-play drive that consumed 8:43 and resulted in Gary Anderson's 28-yard field goal for the final points. The Steelers' Barry Foster ran for 103 yards on 26 carries, his twelfth 100-yard effort of the season. That tied Eric Dickerson's NFL record, set in 1984.

Kansas City 42, Denver 20—at Arrowhead Stadium, attendance 76,240. The Chiefs' defense accounted for 3 touchdowns and set up a fourth as Kansas City beat the Broncos in a showdown for the final AFC wild-card playoff spot. The Chiefs' managed only 220 total yards, but got big plays from safety Charles Mincy (who took a lateral from teammate Bennie Thompson, who had intercepted a pass, and returned it 32 yards for a touchdown), cornerback Dale Carter (who picked off a pass from John Elway and returned it 36 yards for a score), and linebacker Derrick Thomas (who had 3 sacks, 1 of which resulted in a fumble that he recovered in the end zone for a touchdown). Thomas also recovered a fumble at the Broncos' 13-yard line to set up Dave Krieg's 5-yard touchdown pass to tight end Jonathan Hayes midway through the fourth quarter. Hayes also caught a 12-yard strike from Krieg in the second period.

Minnesota 27, Green Bay 7—at Metrodome, attendance 61,461. The Vikings snapped the Packers' six-game winning streak and in the process knocked their division rivals out of the playoffs. After the Redskins were upset by the Raiders the previous day, Green Bay entered this game needing only a victory to clinch the NFC's remaining wild-card berth. But Minnesota, which already had won the Central Division, got a career-high 292 passing yards from Sean Salisbury and 3 interceptions from safety Vencie Glenn to win easily. Salisbury, the four-year veteran making only his fourth career start, completed 20 of 33 passes, including scoring strikes of 13 yards to tight end Steve Jordan and 34 yards to tight end Mike Tice. Terry Allen ran for 100 yards on 20 carries to give him a club-record 1,201 rushing yards for the season. Packers wide receiver Sterling Sharpe caught 6 passes and finished the year with an NFL-record 108 receptions, breaking Redskins wide receiver Art Monk's mark of 106, set in 1984.

Indianapolis 21, Cincinnati 17—at Riverfront Stadium, attendance 47,837. Jack Trudeau came off the bench to throw a pair of second-half touchdowns and rally the Colts from a 17-point deficit to the victory. Derrick Fenner's scoring runs of 12 and 35 yards in the second quarter helped stake the Bengals to a 17-0 advantage at halftime. But Trudeau came on in the third quarter to replace starting quarterback Jeff George, who suffered a concussion while being sacked. Trudeau directed scoring drives of 87 and 84 yards, finishing them off with touchdown passes to Kerry Cash and Bill Brooks, to pull Indianapolis within 17-14 with 11:14 left in the game. Rodney Culver provided the winning points on a 36-yard touchdown run with 7:31 to go. That came four plays after Colts nose tackle Tony Siragusa recovered Cincinnati quarterback Donald Hollas's fumble at the Bengals' 44-yard line. Trudeau finished with 15 completions in 19 attempts for 183 yards, while Culver ran for 92 yards on 14 carries. Indianapolis finished the season at 9-7, a dramatic improvement over its 1-15 disaster of 1991. The Colts' eight-game improvement equaled the second-best one-season turnaround in NFL history.

Miami 16, New England 13—at Foxboro Stadium, attendance 34,726. Pete Stoyanovich's 35-yard field goal 8:17 into overtime, coupled with the Oilers' victory over the Bills later in the day, gave the Dolphins the AFC Eastern Division title and a first-round bye in the playoffs. The stubborn Patriots made it difficult, however, building a 13-3 advantage on Sam Gash's 1-yard scoring run and a pair of field goals by Charlie Baumann. It was 13-6 when Miami quarterback Dan Marino directed a 75-yard, nine-play drive late in the game, capped by Bobby Humphrey's 1-yard run with 2:53 to play that forced overtime. In the extra session, Marino completed all 3 of his passes for 32 yards as the Dolphins marched from their own 35-yard line to New England's 18 to position Stoyanovich for the winning kick. Marino finished with 217 passing yards, while Humphrey rushed for 88. Scott Lockwood carried 30 times for 123 yards for the Patriots. New England benefited from the return of head coach Dick MacPherson, who was back on the sidelines after missing seven games because of an intestinal ailment.

Philadelphia 20, N.Y. Giants 10—at Veterans Stadium, attendance 64,266. The Eagles tuned up for the playoffs by completing their first perfect season at home since 1949. Philadelphia dominated the first half, building a 17-0 advantage while preventing the Giants from making a first down and limiting them to 40 total yards. New York pulled within seven points on Ken Willis's 20-yard field goal and Jeff Hostetler's 13-yard touchdown pass to Ed McCaffrey with 10:05 left in the game, but the Eagles countered with Roger Ruzek's 46-yard field goal for the final points less than three minutes later. Philadelphia's Herschel Walker ran for 104 yards on 16 carries and finished the season with 1,070 yards, his first 1,000-yard season since 1988, when he played for Dallas.

San Diego 31, Seattle 14—at Kingdome, attendance 49,324. Backup quarterback Bob Gagliano directed the go-ahead field-goal drive, then the defense took over to secure the Chargers' twelfth victory in the last 13 games and their first AFC West title since 1981. Gagliano, who had not thrown a pass since the third week of the season, took over after starting quarterback Stan Humphries dislocated his left (non-throwing) shoulder late in the first half. San Diego trailed 14-13 until beginning a fourth-quarter drive at its 3-yard line. Gagliano completed passes of 22 yards to Anthony Miller and 19 yards to Shawn Jefferson to position John Carney for a 47-yard field goal that put the Chargers ahead with 5:17 remaining. San Diego then added 15 more points in a span of 1:52: Ronnie Harmon's 5-yard touchdown run three plays after linebacker Gary Plummer intercepted a pass and returned it 38 yards, defensive end Burt Grossman's sack of quarterback Stan Gelbaugh in the end zone for a safety, and safety Darren Carrington's 26-yard interception return for a touchdown. The Seahawks finished 2-14, the worst season in franchise history. They scored only 140 points, the lowest 16-game total in NFL annals, 3 points fewer than the 143 scored by the 1991 Colts.

Tampa Bay 7, Phoenix 3—at Sun Devil Stadium, attendance 29,645. Vinny Testaverde threw a 23-yard pass to Mark Carrier in the second quarter for the game's only touchdown, and cornerback Milton Mack intercepted a pass in the end zone in the closing seconds to preserve the Buccaneers' victory. The game was marred by poor footing on a sloppy field, a factor that contributed to 6 missed field goals, 3 by each team. Tampa Bay's Eddie Murray missed from 40, 33, and 36 yards, while the Cardinals' Greg Davis failed to connect from 47, 43, and 33 yards. Davis did make a 21-yard field goal in the first quarter, and Phoenix still had a chance to win after driving to the Buccaneers' 17-yard line with 17 seconds left. But quarterback Timm Rosenbach replaced Chris Chandler, who was injured while passing, and had his only pass of the day intercepted in the end zone by Mack. It was Mack's second theft of the day, the fifth by Tampa Bay. Testaverde finished with 24 completions in 41 attempts for 228 yards.

Houston 27, Buffalo 3—at Astrodome, attendance 61,742. Cody Carlson and Warren Moon each threw touchdown passes as the Oilers prevented the Bills from winning their fifth consecutive AFC Eastern Division title. Houston, already in the playoffs as a wild-card team, set up a first-round playoff against the Bills in Buffalo the following week because the Bills were knocked into a first-place tie with Miami. Tiebreakers gave the division nod to the Dolphins, while dropping Buffalo to wild-card status. Moon, who had not played in five games because of a broken arm, threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to Haywood Jeffires late in the second quarter to put the Oilers ahead 17-3. Earlier, Cody Carlson had thrown a 13-yard scoring pass to Leonard Harris. The Bills couldn't get back in it after starting quarterback Jim Kelly went down with a sprained knee ligament while being sacked by tackle Ray Childress in the second quarter. Buffalo's Thurman Thomas ran for 97 yards and caught 3 passes for 8 yards to finish the season with an NFL-high 2,113 yards from scrimmage. He led the league in that category for a record fourth consecutive season.

San Francisco 24, Detroit 6—at Candlestick Park, attendance 55,907. Joe Montana, who hadn't played in a regular-season or playoff game since the NFC Championship Game in January of 1991, completed 15 of 21 passes for 126 yards while directing the 49ers during the second half of their Monday-night victory over the Lions. Montana had been sidelined since the start of the 1991 season while recovering from surgery to repair a torn tendon in his throwing elbow. He led San Francisco to 17 fourth-quarter points, throwing scoring tosses of 9 yards to tight end Brent Jones and 8 yards to running back Amp Lee. He also scrambled for 28 yards on 3 carries, and his first completion (a four-yarder to running back Marc Logan) made him only the fifth player to pass for more than 35,000 yards in his career. Starting quarterback Steve Young passed for 153 yards in the first half before giving way to Montana. Logan's 1-yard touchdown run with 3:14 left in the second quarter gave the 49ers the lead for good.

Eighteenth Week Summaries

Saturday, January 2, 1993

San Diego 17, Kansas City 0—at San Diego Jack Murphy Stadium, attendance 58,278. Marion Butts broke a scoreless tie with a 54-yard touchdown run in the third quarter and the Chargers ground out a victory over the Chiefs. San Diego, whose lone loss over the final 12 weeks of the regular season came against Kansas City, rushed for 192 yards while limiting the Chiefs to 61. Butts had 119 yards on 15 carries, including his scoring run with 5:53 left in the third quarter. On Kansas City's next possession, Chargers defensive tackle Blaise Winter tipped a Dave Krieg pass, and end Leslie O'Neal intercepted it to set up John Carney's 34-yard field goal. San Diego put the game away in the fourth quarter with a 10-play, 90-yard drive capped by Steve Hendrickson's 5-yard touchdown run with 4:57 left in the game. Hendrickson, a linebacker who doubles as a blocking back in goal-line situations, carried for the first time all year. The Chargers' defense did the rest, limiting the Chiefs to 251 total yards. Krieg passed for 233 yards, but completed only 16 of 34 attempts, was sacked 7 times, and was intercepted twice. San Diego defensive end Burt Grossman had 2½ sacks, while O'Neal and tackle Shawn Lee added 2 each.

Washington 24, Minnesota 7—at Metrodome, attendance 57,353. Third-string running back Brian Mitchell ran for 109 yards and added 100 yards on punt returns and receptions as the Redskins, the NFC's lowest seed in the playoffs, upset the Central Division-champion Vikings. Mitchell had carried the ball only 6 times during the regular season and 18 times in his three-year NFL career, but with backup Ricky Ervins injured, he had 16 rushes in this game. The key play was his 36-yard run from Washington's 44-yard line line on a fake punt late in the second quarter. Moments later, he scored on an 8-yard run to increase the Redskins' lead to 17-7 at intermission. Minnesota took the game's opening kickoff and marched 79 yards to a touchdown, Terry Allen's 1-yard run, but then managed only 69 total yards the rest of the way. Quarterback Sean Salisbury completed 42- and 14-yard passes to Cris Carter to key the first drive, but finished only 6 of 20 for 113 yards, with a pair of interceptions. Meanwhile, Washington's offense controlled the ball on the ground, rushing for 196 yards on 47 attempts and maintaining possession for 42:43 of the game's 60 minutes. The Redskins improved their postseason record to 16-4 under head coach Joe Gibbs.

Buffalo 41, Houston 38—at Rich Stadium, attendance 75,141. Frank Reich threw 4 second-half touchdown passes and Steve Christie kicked a 32-yard field goal 3:06 into overtime as the Bills mounted the greatest comeback in NFL history to stun the Oilers. Houston led 35-3 after Warren Moon threw 4 first-half touchdown passes and safety Bubba McDowell returned an interception 58 yards for a score 1:41 into the third quarter. Then Reich, who as a collegian had rallied Maryland from a 31-0 halftime deficit to a 42-40 victory over Miami, began the dramatic rally by engineering a 50-yard drive capped by Kenneth Davis's 1-yard run with 8:54 left in the third quarter. Christie recovered his ensuing onside kickoff and Reich's 38-yard touchdown pass four plays later made it 38-17. After a short punt by the Oilers, Reich took only four more plays to march his team 59 yards to a touchdown on his 26-yard pass to Andre Reed. Houston's next possession ended in an interception by Buffalo safety Henry Jones, which set up Reich's 18-yard pass to Reed, the Bills' fourth touchdown in a span of 6:54. It stayed 35-31 until late in the game, when Buffalo drove 74 yards in seven plays. The drive was capped by Reed's third touchdown, a 17-yard throw from Reich that gave the Bills the lead for the first time. Moon rallied the Oilers to a short field goal with 12 seconds left in regulation to tie the score, but was intercepted by cornerback Henry Odomes on the first possession of overtime. Odomes's 2-yard return and a 15-yard facemask penalty on Houston wide receiver Haywood Jeffires positioned Buffalo for the winning field goal three plays later. Reich, subbing for injured starter Jim Kelly, completed 21 of 34 passes for 389 yards, including 8 for 136 yards to Reed. Moon, who was 19 of 22 as the Oilers built their first-half advantage, finished 36 of 50 for 371 yards. Ernest Givins caught 9 passes for 117 yards and Jeffires had 8 receptions for 98 yards and 2 touchdowns. Previously, the largest deficit any NFL team had overcome to win was 28 points, when the 49ers rallied to a 38-35 victory over the Saints after trailing 35-7 in a game in 1980. The largest postseason comeback came when the Lions erased a 27-7 deficit to the 49ers to win 31-27 in a Western Conference playoff in 1957.

Philadelphia 36, New Orleans 20—at Louisiana Superdome, attendance 68,591. The Eagles exploded for 26 points in the fourth quarter to rally past the Saints and win a playoff game for the first time since the 1980 NFL Championship Game. New Orleans, the only NFL team that has never won a postseason game, led 20-7 until Philadelphia's Roger Ruzek kicked a 40-yard field goal late in the third quarter to trim the margin to 10 points. In the fourth period, Randall Cunningham's 35-yard touchdown pass to Fred Barnett with 10:37 remaining sparked an Eagles' scoring frenzy against the Saints, who had allowed the fewest points in the NFL during the regular season and had not permitted any opponent more than 21 points in a game all year. On the first play from scrimmage following Barnett's touchdown, Eagles linebacker Seth Joyner intercepted a Bobby Hebert pass and returned it 14 yards to the Saints' 26-yard line. That set up a 6-yard touchdown run by Heath Sherman for a 24-20 Philadelphia lead with 6:48 left in the game. Seventy-two seconds later, defensive end Reggie White sacked Hebert in the end zone to make it 26-20, and Roger Ruzek's 39-yard field goal at the 2:36 mark made it 29-20. Cornerback Eric Allen sealed the victory 19 seconds later with his second interception of the game, returning it 18 yards for a touchdown. Sherman finished with 105 yards on 21 carries, while Cunningham passed for 219 yards and 2 touchdowns, both to Barnett. Hebert completed 23 of 39 passes for 291 yards and a touchdown, but was intercepted 3 times.

Buffalo 24, Pittsburgh 3—at Three Rivers Stadium, attendance 60,407. Frank Reich passed for 2 touchdowns to lead the Bills to a methodical victory over the Steelers. Reich, playing for injured starter Jim Kelly, completed 16 of 23 passes for 160 yards and was not intercepted, while running back Kenneth Davis added 104 yards on the ground. Pittsburgh, which led the NFL with 43 takeaways during the regular season, did not register any in this one while turning the ball over 4 times. Trailing 3-0 in the second quarter, Buffalo drove 59 yards to a touchdown after defensive end Phil Hansen recovered Neil O'Donnell's fumble at the Bills' 41-yard line. Reich's 1-yard touchdown pass to tackle-eligible Mitch Frerotte capped that drive and gave Buffalo the lead for good. Reich's 17-yard touchdown pass to James Lofton 11 minutes into the second half gave the Bills all the cushion they would need. O'Donnell, who missed the last three games of the regular season, was rusty in his return, completing 15 of 29 passes for 163 yards, with 2 interceptions. Steelers running back Barry Foster gained 104 yards on 20 carries.

San Francisco 20, Washington 13—at Candlestick Park, attendance 64,991. Steve Young threw 2 touchdown passes and survived 4 turnovers as the 49ers eliminated the Super Bowl XXVI champions. Young completed 20 of 30 passes for 227 yards, including scoring strikes of 5 yards to wide receiver John Taylor and 16 yards to tight end Brent Jones that helped San Francisco build a 17-3 advantage in the first half. But the 49ers' quarterback also lost 3 fumbles, the last of which the Redskins converted into a 15-yard drive capped by quarterback Mark Rypien's 1-yard sneak for a touchdown that trimmed the margin to 17-13 with 14:36 left in the game. Moments later, Washington was driving again, and reached San Francisco's 23-yard line before Rypien fumbled while trying to hand off. The 49ers took over and ate up more than seven minutes on a 59-yard, 14-play drive that culminated in Mike Cofer's 33-yard field goal with 2:22 remaining. Ricky Watters ran for 83 yards and Young added 73 yards on only 8 carries for San Francisco, which amassed 401 total yards. The Redskins had 323 total yards, but also were victimized by 4 turnovers. 49ers defensive end Pierce Holt recorded 3 of his team's 5 sacks.

Dallas 34, Philadelphia 10—at Texas Stadium, attendance 63,721. The Cowboys converted a balanced offense and a stingy defense into an easy victory over the Eagles. Philadelphia took a 3-0 lead on Roger Ruzek's 32-yard field goal 7:15 into the game, but Dallas countered with Troy Aikman's 1-yard touchdown pass to tight end Derek Tennell and never was headed after that. Aikman's second touchdown pass, a 6-yarder to tight end Jay Novacek, gave the Cowboys a 14-3 advantage just 47 seconds before intermission. On the ensuing kickoff, Vai Sikahema fumbled, and Dallas converted the turnover into a 20-yard field goal by Lin Elliott as time ran out in the half. The Cowboys went on to build a 34-3 advantage in the fourth quarter before the Eagles got their lone touchdown in the final minute. Emmitt Smith ran for 114 yards, including a 23-yard touchdown run, as Dallas amassed 160 rushing yards. The Cowboys added 185 yards through the air as Aikman completed 15 of 25 passes. Philadelphia managed only 178 total yards. Randall Cunningham completed 17 of 30 passes, but was sacked 5 times and accumulated most of his 160 yards in the final period, long after the issue had been decided.

Miami 31, San Diego 0—at Joe Robbie Stadium, attendance 71,224. Dan Marino threw 3 first-half touchdown passes, including 2 just 79 seconds apart late in the second quarter to break open a close game with the Chargers. Cornerback Troy Vincent's interception and two-yard return to San Diego's 48-yard line set up Miami's first touchdown, a 1-yard pass from Marino to running back Tony Paige 6:30 before halftime. Minutes later, Vincent intercepted another pass, and it took Marino only two plays to put the Dolphins in the end zone again, this time on his 9-yard strike to tight end Keith Jackson with 1:46 left in the half. Chargers quarterback Stan Humphries then was intercepted for the third time in the second quarter, this time by linebacker Bryan Cox, who picked off Humphries's pass and returned it seven yards to the San Diego 42. Marino's 30-yard touchdown pass to Jackson with 27 seconds to go in the half put the game out of reach. Miami controlled the ball on the ground for most of the second half, with Aaron Craver adding a 25-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter. Craver finished with 72 rushing yards, while Bobby Humphrey had 71. San Diego managed only 10 first downs and 202 total yards, and Humphries suffered 4 interceptions in all. The Chargers entered the game with victories in each of their last eight games and 12 of their last 13.

Twentieth Week Summaries

Sunday, January 17, 1993

Buffalo 29, Miami 10—at Joe Robbie Stadium, attendance 72,703. The Bills forced 5 turnovers en route to an easy victory over the Dolphins. Buffalo thus qualified for its third consecutive Super Bowl, a feat equaled only by Miami, which appeared in games VI, VII, and VIII. The Bills' defense was a big factor in this one, recovering 3 fumbles, intercepting 2 passes, and sacking Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino 4 times. Buffalo's offense, meanwhile, converted the miscues into 13 points, then controlled the ball on the ground, rushing for 182 yards (Miami had only 33) and maintaining possession for 36:19. Kicker Steve Christie kept the Bills comfortably ahead by tying an NFL postseason record with 5 field goals. Thurman Thomas rushed for 96 yards and caught 5 passes for 70 more, including a 17-yard touchdown 40 seconds into the second quarter that broke a 3-3 tie and gave Buffalo the lead for good. It was 13-3 at halftime, and the Bills broke the game open after recovering a fumble at the Dolphins' 24-yard line on the second-half kickoff. Five plays later, Kenneth Davis ran 2 yards for the touchdown that made it 20-3. Jim Kelly, playing for the first time since spraining his knee in Buffalo's final regular-season game, completed 17 of 24 passes for 177 yards, with 2 interceptions. Miami's Dan Marino was 22 of 45 for 268 yards and had 2 passes picked off. His 15-yard touchdown pass to Mark Duper midway through the fourth quarter gave him an NFL record-tying 10 consecutive postseason games with at least 1 touchdown pass.

Dallas 30, San Francisco 20—at Candlestick Park, attendance 64,920. Troy Aikman passed for 322 yards and 2 touchdowns and Emmitt Smith rushed for 114 yards as the Cowboys qualified for their first Super Bowl in 14 years and their record sixth overall. Aikman was particularly effective in the second half, completing 13 of 16 passes and directing Dallas on 3 long touchdown drives to clinch the victory. The game was tied at 10-10 at intermission, but Aikman marched the Cowboys 78 yards in eight plays following the second-half kickoff. His 38-yard pass to Alvin Harper moved the ball into 49ers territory, and Daryl Johnston's 4-yard run gave Dallas a lead it would never relinquish. Smith, who also had 7 receptions for 59 yards, caught a 16-yard touchdown pass 2:35 into the fourth quarter to make it 24-13 after the Cowboys had eaten up more than nine minutes off the clock. Steve Young's 5-yard touchdown pass to Jerry Rice pulled San Francisco within 24-20 with 4:22 to go, but Harper turned Aikman's short pass into a back-breaking 70-yard gain on the next play from scrimmage, Three plays later, Aikman teamed with Kelvin Martin on a 6-yard touchdown for the clinching score with 3:43 remaining. The two teams were even in most offensive statistics, including first downs (24 each) and total yards (Dallas had 416, the 49ers 415). But the glaring difference was in turnovers, where San Francisco had 4 and the Cowboys none. Dallas turned 2 fumble recoveries into all 10 of their points in the first half, then intercepted a pair of Young passes as San Francisco tried to rally in the fourth quarter. Young finished with 313 passing yards and Rice caught 8 passes for 123 yards. Harper had 117 yards on only 3 receptions for the Cowboys.

Twenty-First Week Summary

Super Bowl XXVII
Pasadena, California

Dallas 52, Buffalo 17—at Rose Bowl, attendance 98,374. Troy Aikman threw 4 touchdown passes, Emmitt Smith rushed for 108 yards, and the Cowboys converted 9 turnovers into 35 points while coasting to the victory.

Dallas's win was its third in its record sixth Super Bowl appearance; the Bills became the first team to drop three in succession. Buffalo led 7-0 until the first 2 of its record number of turnovers helped the Cowboys take the lead for good late in the opening quarter. First, Dallas safety James Washington intercepted a Jim Kelly pass and returned it 13 yards to the Bills' 47, setting up Aikman's 23-yard touchdown pass to tight end Jay Novacek with 1:36 remaining in the period. On the next play from scrimmage, Kelly fumbled when sacked by Charles Haley at the Bills' 2-yard line, and the Cowboys' Jimmie Jones picked up the loose ball and ran 2 yards for the touchdown. Dallas, which recovered 5 fumbles and intercepted 4 passes in all, struck just as quickly late in the first half, when Aikman tossed 19- and 18-yard touchdown passes to Michael Irvin 15 seconds apart to give the Cowboys a 28-10 lead at intermission. The second score was set up when Bills running back Thurman Thomas lost a fumble at his own 19-yard line. Buffalo had one last glimpse at the game when backup quarterback Frank Reich, playing because Kelly was injured while attempting to pass midway through the second quarter, threw a 40-yard touchdown pass to Don Beebe on the final play of the third period to trim the deficit to 31-17. But Dallas put the game out of reach by scoring three times in a span of 2:33 of the fourth quarter. Aikman, the game's most valuable player, completed 22 of 30 passes for 273 yards and was not intercepted. Novacek caught 7 passes and Smith and Irvin had 6 each. The Bills' Andre Reed had 8 receptions for 152 yards. The victory was the ninth in succession for NFC teams over AFC teams in the Super Bowl.

AFC 23, NFC 20—at Aloha Stadium, attendance 50,007. Nick Lowery's 33-yard field goal 4:09 into overtime gave the American Conference all-stars an unlikely 23-20 victory over the National Conference. Despite being overwhelmed by the NFC in first downs (30-9), total yards (472-114), and time of possession (40:19-23:50), the AFC won because it forced 6 turnovers, blocked a pair of field goals (1 of which was returned for a touchdown), and returned an interception for a score. Special-teams star Steve Tasker of the Bills earned the Dan McGuire Trophy as the player of the game for making 4 tackles, forcing a fumble, and blocking a field goal. The block came with eight minutes left in regulation and the game tied at 13-13. The Raiders' Terry McDaniel picked up the loose ball and ran 28 yards for a touchdown and a 20-13 AFC lead. The NFC rallied behind 49ers quarterback Steve Young, whose fourth-down, 23-yard touchdown pass to Giants running back Rodney Hampton tied the game at 20-20 with 10 seconds left in regulation. Young completed 18 of 32 passes for 196 yards but was intercepted 3 times and lost a fumble when sacked in overtime. Raiders defensive end Howie Long fell on that fumble at the NFC 28-yard line, and five plays later, Lowery converted the winning field goal.

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

The Professional Football Hall of Fame is located in Canton, Ohio, site of the organizational meeting on September 17, 1920, from which the National Football League evolved. The NFL recognized Canton as the Hall of Fame site on April 27, 1961. Canton area individuals, foundations, and companies donated almost $400,000 in cash and services to provide funds for the construction of the original two-building complex, which was dedicated on September 7, 1963. The original Hall of Fame complex was almost doubled in size with the completion of a $620,000 expansion project that was dedicated on May 10, 1971. A second expansion project was completed on November 20, 1978. It now features four exhibition areas and a theater twice the size of the original one.

The Hall represents the sport of pro football in many ways — through four large and colorful exhibition galleries, in the twin enshrinement halls, with numerous fan-participation electronic devices, a research library, and a museum store.

In recent years, the Pro Football Hall of Fame has become an extremely popular tourist attraction. At the end of 1992, a total of 5,270,887 fans had visited the Hall of Fame.

New members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame are elected annually by a 34-member National Board of Selectors, made up of media representatives from every league city, five at-large representatives, and a representative of the Pro Football Writers of America. Between four and seven new members are elected each year. An affirmative vote of approximately 80 percent is needed for election.

Any fan may nominate any eligible player or contributor simply by writing to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Players must be retired five years to be eligible, while a coach need only to be retired with no time limit specified. Contributors (administrators, owners, et al.) may be elected while they are still active.

The charter class of 17 enshrinees was elected in 1963 and the honor roll now stands at 169 with the election of a five-man class in 1993. That class consists of Dan Fouts, Larry Little, Chuck Noll, Walter Payton, and Bill Walsh.

A CHRONOLOGY OF PROFESSIONAL FOOTBALL

1869 Rutgers and Princeton played a college soccer football game, the first ever, November 6. The game used modified London Football Association rules. During the next seven years, rugby gained favor with the major eastern schools over soccer, and modern football began to develop from rugby.

1876 At the Massasoit convention, the first rules for American football were written. Walter Camp, who would become known as the father of American football, first became involved with the game.

1892 In an era in which football was a major attraction of local athletic clubs, an intense competition between two Pittsburgh-area clubs, the Allegheny Athletic Association (AAA) and the Pittsburgh Athletic Club (PAC), led to the making of the first professional football player. Former Yale All-America guard William (Pudge) Heffelfinger was paid $500 by the AAA to play in a game against the PAC, becoming the first person to be paid to play football, November 12. The AAA won the game 4-0 when Heffelfinger picked up a PAC fumble and ran 35 yards for a touchdown.

1893 The Pittsburgh Athletic Club signed one of its players, probably halfback Grant Dibert, to the first-known pro football contract, which covered all of the PAC's games for the year.

1895 John Brallier became the first football player to openly turn pro, accepting $10 and expenses to play for the Latrobe YMCA against the Jeannette Athletic Club.

1896 The Allegheny Athletic Association team fielded the first completely professional team for its abbreviated two-game season.

1897 The Latrobe Athletic Association football team went entirely professional, becoming the first team to play a full season with only professionals.

1898 A touchdown was changed from four points to five.

1899 Chris O'Brien formed a neighborhood team, which played under the name the Morgan Athletic Club, on the south side of Chicago. The team later became known as the Normals, then the Racine (for a street in Chicago) Cardinals, the Chicago Cardinals, the St. Louis Cardinals, and, in 1988, the Phoenix Cardinals. The team remains the oldest continuing operation in pro football.

1900 William C. Temple took over the team payments for the Duquesne Country and Athletic Club, becoming the first known individual club owner.

1902 Baseball's Philadelphia Athletics, managed by Connie Mack, and the Philadelphia Phillies formed professional football teams, joining the Pittsburgh Stars in the first attempt at a pro football league, named the National Football League. The Athletics won the first night football game ever played, 39-0 over Kanaweola AC at Elmira, New York, November 21.

All three teams claimed the pro championship for the year, but the league president, Dave Berry, named the Stars the champions. Pitcher Rube Waddell was with the Athletics, and pitcher Christy Mathewson a fullback for Pittsburgh.

The first World Series of pro football, actually a five-team tournament, was played among a team made up of players from both the Athletics and the Phillies, but simply named New York; the New York Knickerbockers; the Syracuse AC; the Warlow AC; and the Orange (New Jersey) AC at New York's original Madison Square Garden. New York and Syracuse played the first indoor football game before 3,000, December 28. Syracuse, with Glen (Pop) Warner at guard, won 6-0 and went on to win the tournament.

1903 The Franklin (Pa.) Athletic Club won the second and last World Series of pro football over the Oreos AC of Asbury Park, New Jersey; the Watertown Red and Blacks; and the Orange AC.

Pro football was popularized in Ohio when the Massillon Tigers, a strong amateur team, hired four Pittsburgh pros to play in the season-ending game against Akron. At the same time, pro football declined in the Pittsburgh area, and the emphasis on the pro game moved west from Pennsylvania to Ohio.

1904 A field goal was changed from five points to four.

Ohio had at least seven pro teams, with Massillon winning the Ohio Independent Championship, that is, the pro title. Talk surfaced about forming a state-wide league to end spiraling salaries brought about by constant bidding for players and to write universal rules for the game. The feeble attempt to start the league failed.

Halfback Charles Follis signed a contract with the Shelby AC, making him the first-known black pro football player.

1905 The Canton AC, later to become known as the Bulldogs, became a professional team. Massillon again won the Ohio League championship.

1906 The forward pass was legalized. The first authenticated pass completion in a pro game came on October 27, when George (Peggy) Parratt of Massillon threw a completion to Dan (Bullet) Riley in a victory over a combined Benwood-Moundsville team.

Arch-rivals Canton and Massillon, the two best pro teams in America, played twice, with Canton winning the first game but Massillon winning the second and the Ohio League championship. A betting scandal and the financial disaster wrought upon the two clubs by paying huge salaries caused a temporary decline in interest in pro football in the two cities and, somewhat, throughout Ohio.

1909 A field goal dropped from four points to three.

1912 A touchdown was increased from five points to six.

Jack Cusack revived a strong pro team in Canton.

1915 Massillon again fielded a major team, reviving the old rivalry with Canton. Cusack signed Thorpe to play for Canton for $250 a game.

1916 With Thorpe and former Carlisle teammate Pete Calac starring, Canton went 9-0-1, won the Ohio League championship, and was acclaimed the pro football champion.

1917 Despite an upset by Massillon, Canton again won the Ohio League championship.

1919 Canton again won the Ohio League championship, despite the team having been turned over from Cusack to Ralph Hay. Thorpe and Calac were joined in the backfield by Joe Guyon.

Earl (Curly) Lambeau and George Calhoun organized the Green Bay Packers. Lambeau's employer at the Indian Packing Company provided $500 for equipment and allowed the team to use the company field for practices. The Packers went 10-1.

1920 Pro football was in a state of confusion due to three major problems: dramatically rising salaries; players continually jumping from one team to another following the highest offer; and the use of college players still enrolled in school. A league in which all the members would follow the same rules seemed the answer. An organizational meeting, at which the Akron Pros, Canton Bulldogs, Cleveland Indians, and Dayton Triangles were represented, was held in Canton, Ohio, August 20. This meeting resulted in the formation of the American Professional Football Conference.

A second organizational meeting was held in Canton, September 17. The teams were from four states — Akron, Canton, Cleveland, and Dayton from Ohio; the Hammond Pros and Muncie Flyers from Indiana; the Rochester Jeffersons from New York; and the Rock Island Independents, Decatur Staleys, and Racine Cardinals from Illinois. The name of the league was changed to the American Professional Football Association. Hoping to capitalize on his fame, the members elected Thorpe president; Stanley Cofall of Cleveland was elected vice president. A membership fee of $100 per team was charged to give an appearance of respectability, but no team ever paid it. Scheduling was left up to the teams, and there were wide variations, both in the overall number of games played and in the number played against APFA member teams.

Four other teams — the Buffalo All-Americans, Chicago Tigers, Columbus Panhandles, and Detroit Heralds — joined the league sometime during the year. On September 26, the first game featuring an APFA team was played at Rock Island's Douglas Park. A crowd of 800 watched the Independents defeat the St. Paul Ideals 48-0. A week later, October 3, the first game matching two APFA teams was held. At Triangle Park, Dayton defeated Columbus 14-0, with Lou Partlow of Dayton scoring the first touchdown in a game between Association teams. The same day, Rock Island defeated Muncie 45-0.

By the beginning of December, most of the teams in the APFA had abandoned their hopes for a championship, and some of them, including the Chicago Tigers and the Detroit Heralds, had finished their seasons, disbanded, and had their franchises canceled by the Association. Four teams — Akron, Buffalo, Canton, and Decatur — still had championship aspirations, but a series of late-season games among them left Akron as the only undefeated team in the Association. At one of these games, Akron sold tackle Bob Nash to Buffalo for $300 and five percent of the gate receipts — the first APFA player deal.

1921 At the league meeting in Akron, April 30, the championship of the 1920 season was awarded to the Akron Pros. The APFA was reorganized, with Joe Carr of the Columbus Panhandles named president and Carl Storck of Dayton secretary-treasurer. Carr moved the Association's headquarters to Columbus, drafted a league constitution and by-laws, gave teams territorial rights, restricted player movements, developed membership criteria for the franchises, and issued standings for the first time, so that the APFA would have a clear champion.

The Association's membership increased to 22 teams, including the Green Bay Packers, who were awarded to John Clair of the Acme Packing Company.

Thorpe moved from Canton to the Cleveland Indians, but he was hurt early in the season and played very little.

A.E. Staley turned the Decatur Staleys over to player-coach George Halas, who moved the team to Cubs Park in Chicago. Staley paid Halas $5,000 to keep the name Staleys for one more year. Halas made halfback Ed (Dutch) Sternaman his partner.

The Staleys claimed the APFA championship with a 9-1-1 record, as did Buffalo at 9-1-2. Carr ruled in favor of the Staleys, giving Halas his first championship.

1922 After admitting the use of players who had college eligibility remaining during the 1921 season, Clair and the Green Bay management withdrew from the APFA, January 28. Curly Lambeau promised to obey league rules and then used $50 of his own money to buy back the franchise. Bad weather and low attendance plagued the Packers, and Lambeau went broke, but local merchants arranged a $2,500 loan for the club. A public nonprofit corporation was set up to operate the team, with Lambeau as head coach and manager.

The American Professional Football Association changed its name to the National Football League, June 24. The Chicago Staleys became the Chicago Bears.

The NFL fielded 18 teams, including the new Oorang Indians of Marion, Ohio, an all-Indian team featuring Thorpe, Joe Guyon, and Pete Calac, and sponsored by the Oorang dog kennels.

Canton, led by player-coach Guy Chamberlin and tackles Link Lyman and Wilbur (Pete) Henry, emerged as the league's first true powerhouse, going 10-0-2.

1923 For the first time, all of the franchises considered to be part of the NFL fielded teams. Thorpe played first for Oorang, then for the Toledo Maroons. Against the Bears, Thorpe fumbled, and Halas picked up the ball and returned it 98 yards for a touchdown, a record that would last until 1972.

Canton had its second consecutive undefeated season, going 11-0-1

for the NFL title.

1924 The league had 18 franchises, including new ones in Kansas City, Kenosha, and Frankford, a section of Philadelphia. League champion Canton, successful on the field but not at the box office, was purchased by the owner of the Cleveland franchise, who kept the Canton franchise inactive, while using the best players for his Cleveland team, which he renamed the Bulldogs. Cleveland won the title with a 7-1-1 record.

1925 Five new franchises were admitted to the NFL — the New York Giants, who were awarded to Tim Mara and Billy Gibson for $500; the Detroit Panthers, featuring Jimmy Conzelman as owner, coach, and tailback; the Providence Steam Roller; a new Canton Bulldogs team; and the Pottsville Maroons, who had been perhaps the most successful independent pro team. The NFL established its first player limit, at 16 players.

Late in the season, the NFL made its greatest coup in gaining national recognition. Shortly after the University of Illinois season ended in November, All-America halfback Harold (Red) Grange signed a contract to play with the Chicago Bears. On Thanksgiving Day, a crowd of 36,000 — the largest in pro football history — watched Grange and the Bears play the Chicago Cardinals to a scoreless tie at Wrigley Field. At the beginning of December, the Bears left on a barnstorming tour that saw them play eight games in 12 days, in St. Louis, Philadelphia, New York City, Washington, Boston, Pittsburgh, Detroit, and Chicago. A crowd of 73,000 watched the game against the Giants at the Polo Grounds, helping assure the future of the troubled NFL franchise in New York. The Bears then played nine more games in the South and West, including a game in Los Angeles, in which 75,000 fans watched them defeat the Los Angeles Tigers in the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

Pottsville and the Chicago Cardinals were the top contenders for the league title, with Pottsville winning a late-season meeting 21-7. Pottsville scheduled a game against a team of former Notre Dame players for Shibe Park in Philadelphia. Frankford lodged a protest not only because the game was in Frankford's protected territory, but because it was being played the same day as a Yellow Jackets home game. Carr gave three different notices forbidding Pottsville to play the game, but Pottsville played anyway, December 12. That day, Carr fined the club, suspended it from all rights and privileges (including the right to play for the NFL championship), and returned its franchise to the league. The Cardinals, who ended the season with the best record in the league, were named the 1925 champions.

1926 Grange's manager, C.C. Pyle, told the Bears that Grange wouldn't play for them unless he was paid a five-figure salary and given one-third ownership of the team. The Bears refused. Pyle leased Yankee Stadium in New York City, then petitioned for an NFL franchise. After he was refused, he started the first American Football League. It lasted one season and included Grange's New York Yankees and eight other teams. The AFL champion Philadelphia Quakers played a December game against the New York Giants, seventh in the NFL, and the Giants won 31-0. At the end of the season, the AFL folded.

Halas pushed through a rule that prohibited any team from signing a player whose college class had not graduated.

The NFL grew to 22 teams, including the Duluth Eskimos, who signed All-America fullback Ernie Nevers of Stanford, giving the league a gate attraction to rival Grange. The 15-member Eskimos, dubbed the Iron Men of the North, played 29 exhibition and league games, 28 on the road, and Nevers played in all but 29 minutes of them.

Frankford edged the Bears for the championship, despite Halas having obtained John (Paddy) Driscoll from the Cardinals. On December 4, the Yellow Jackets scored in the final two minutes to defeat the Bears 7-6 and move ahead of them in the standings.

1927 At a special meeting in Cleveland, April 23, Carr decided to secure the NFL's future by eliminating the financially weaker teams and consolidating the quality players onto a limited number of more successful teams. The new-look NFL dropped to 12 teams, and the center of gravity of the league left the Midwest, where the NFL had started, and began to emerge in the large cities of the East. One of the new teams was Grange's New York Yankees, but Grange suffered a knee injury and the Yankees finished in the middle of the pack. The NFL championship was won by the cross-town rival New York Giants, who posted 10 shutouts in 13 games.

1928 Grange and Nevers both retired from pro football, and Duluth disbanded, as the NFL was reduced to only 10 teams. The Providence Steam Roller of Jimmy Conzelman and Pearce Johnson won the championship, playing in the Cycledrome, a 10,000-seat oval that had been built for bicycle races.

1929 Chris O'Brien sold the Chicago Cardinals to David Jones, July 27.

The NFL added a fourth official, the field judge, July 28.

Grange and Nevers returned to the NFL. Nevers scored six rushing touchdowns and four extra points as the Cardinals beat Grange's Bears 40-6, November 28. The 40 points set a record that remains the NFL's oldest.

Providence became the first NFL team to host a game at night under floodlights, against the Cardinals, November 3.

The Packers added back Johnny Blood (McNally), tackle Cal Hubbard, and guard Mike Michalske, and won their first NFL championship, edging the Giants, who featured quarterback Benny Friedman.

1930 Dayton, the last of the NFL's original franchises, was purchased by John Dwyer, moved to Brooklyn, and renamed the Dodgers. The Portsmouth, Ohio, Spartans entered the league.

The Packers edged the Giants for the title, but the most improved team was the Bears. Halas retired as a player and replaced himself as coach of the Bears with Ralph Jones, who refined the T-formation by introducing wide ends and a halfback in motion. Jones also introduced rookie All-America fullback-tackle Bronko Nagurski.

The Giants defeated a team of former Notre Dame players coached by Knute Rockne 22-0 before 55,000 at the Polo Grounds, December 14. The proceeds went to the New York Unemployment Fund to help those suffering because of the Great Depression, and the easy victory helped give the NFL credibility with the press and the public.

1931 The NFL decreased to 10 teams, and halfway through the season the Frankford franchise folded. Carr fined the Bears, Packers, and Portsmouth $1,000 each for using players whose college classes had not graduated.

The Packers won an unprecedented third consecutive title, beating out the Spartans, who were led by rookie backs Earl (Dutch) Clark and Glenn Presnell.

1932 George Preston Marshall, Vincent Bendix, Jay O'Brien, and M. Dorland Doyle were awarded a franchise for Boston, July 9. Despite the presence of two rookies — halfback Cliff Battles and tackle Glen (Turk) Edwards — the new team, named the Braves, lost money and Marshall was left as the sole owner at the end of the year.

NFL membership dropped to eight teams, the lowest in history. Official statistics were kept for the first time. The Bears and the Spartans finished the season in the first-ever tie for first place. After the season finale, the league office arranged for the first playoff game in NFL history. The game was moved indoors to Chicago Stadium because of bitter cold and heavy snow. The arena allowed only an 80-yard field that came right to the walls. The goal posts were moved from the end lines to the goal lines and, for safety, inbounds lines or hashmarks where the ball would be put in play were drawn 10 yards from the walls that butted against the sidelines. The Bears won 9-0, December 18, scoring the winning touchdown on a two-yard pass from Nagurski to Grange. The Spartans claimed Nagurski's pass was thrown from less than five yards behind the line of scrimmage, violating the existing passing rule, but the play stood.

1933 The NFL, which long had followed the rules of college football, made a number of significant changes from the college game for the first time and began to independently develop rules serving its needs and the style of play it preferred. The innovations from the 1932 championship game — inbounds line or hashmarks and goal posts on the goal lines — were adopted. Also the forward pass was legalized from anywhere behind the line of scrimmage, February 25.

Marshall and Halas pushed through a proposal that divided the NFL into two divisions, with the winners to meet in an annual championship game, July 8.

Three new franchises joined the league — the Pittsburgh Pirates of Art Rooney, the Philadelphia Eagles of Bert Bell and Lud Wray, and the Cincinnati Reds. The Staten Island Stapletons suspended operations for a year, but never returned to the league.

Halas bought out Sternaman, became sole owner of the Bears, and reinstated himself as head coach. Marshall changed the name of the Boston Braves to the Redskins. David Jones sold the Chicago Cardinals to Charles W. Bidwill.

In the first NFL Championship Game scheduled before the season, the Western Division champion Bears defeated the Eastern Division champion Giants 23-21 at Wrigley Field, December 17.

1934 G.A. (Dick) Richards purchased the Portsmouth Spartans, moved them to Detroit, and renamed them the Lions.

Professional football gained new prestige when the Bears were matched against the best college football players in the first Chicago College All-Star Game, August 31. The game ended in a scoreless tie before 79,432 at Soldier Field.

The Cincinnati Reds lost their first eight games, then were suspended from the league for defaulting on payments. The St. Louis Gunners, an independent team, joined the NFL by buying the Cincinnati franchise and went 1-2 the last three weeks.

Super Bowl XXVII

Rose Bowl, Pasadena, California — January 31, 1993
Attendance: 98,374

DALLAS 52, BUFFALO 17 — Troy Aikman threw 4 touchdown passes, Emmitt Smith rushed for 108 yards, and the Cowboys converted 9 turnovers into 35 points while coasting to the victory. Dallas's win was its third in its record sixth Super Bowl appearance; the Bills became the first team to drop three in succession. Buffalo led 7-0 until the first 2 of its record number of turnovers helped the Cowboys take the lead for good late in the opening quarter. First, Dallas safety James Washington intercepted a Jim Kelly pass and returned it 13 yards to the Bills' 47, setting up Aikman's 23-yard touchdown pass to tight end Jay Novacek with 1:36 remaining in the period. On the next play from scrimmage, Kelly was sacked by Charles Haley and fumbled at the Bills' 2-yard line where the Cowboys' Jimmie Jones picked up the loose ball and ran 2 yards for a touchdown. Dallas, which recovered 5 fumbles and intercepted 4 passes, struck just as quickly late in the first half, when Aikman tossed 19- and 18-yard touchdown passes to Michael Irvin 15 seconds apart to give the Cowboys a 28-10 lead at intermission. The second score was set up when Bills running back Thurman Thomas lost a fumble at his 19-yard line. Buffalo scored for the last time when backup quarterback Frank Reich, playing because Kelly was injured while attempting to pass midway through the second quarter, threw a 40-yard touchdown pass to Don Beebe on the final play of the third period to trim the deficit to 31-17. But Dallas put the game out of reach by scoring three times in a span of 2:33 of the fourth quarter. Aikman, the game's most valuable player, completed 22 of 30 passes for 273 yards and was not intercepted. Novacek caught 7 passes and Smith and Irvin had 6 each. The Bills' Andre Reed had 8 receptions for 152 yards. The victory was the ninth in succession for the NFC over AFC teams in the Super Bowl.

Super Bowl XXVI

Metrodome, Minneapolis, Minnesota — January 26, 1992
Attendance: 63,130

WASHINGTON 37, BUFFALO 24 — Mark Rypien passed for 292 yards and 2 touchdowns as the Redskins overwhelmed the Bills to win their third Super Bowl in the past 10 years. Rypien, the game's most valuable player, completed 18 of 33 passes, including a 10-yard scoring strike to Earnest Byner and a 30-yard touchdown to Gary Clark. The latter came late in the third quarter after Buffalo had trimmed a 24-0 deficit to 24-10, and effectively put the game out of reach. Washington went on to lead by as much as 37-10 before the Bills made it close with a pair of touchdowns in the final six minutes. Though the Redskins struggled early, converting their first three drives inside the Bills' 20-yard line into only 3 points, they built a 17-0 halftime lead. And they made it 24-0 just 16 seconds into the second half, after Kurt Gouveia intercepted Buffalo quarterback Jim Kelly's pass on the first play of the third quarter and returned it 23 yards to the Bills' 2. One play later, Gerald Riggs scored his second touchdown of the game to make it 24-0. Kelly, forced to bring Buffalo from behind, completed 28 of a Super Bowl-record 58 passes for 275 yards and 2 touchdowns, but was intercepted 4 times. Bills running back Thurman Thomas, who had an AFC-high 1,407 yards rushing and an NFL-best 2,038 total yards from scrimmage during the regular season, ran for only 13 yards on 10 carries and was limited to 27 yards on 4 receptions. Clark had 7 catches for 114 yards and Art Monk added 7 for 113 for the Redskins, who amassed 417 yards of total offense while limiting the explosive Bills to 283. Washington's Joe Gibbs became only the third head coach to win as many as three Super Bowls.

Attendance: 73,813

NEW YORK GIANTS 20, BUFFALO 19 — The NFC champion New York Giants won their second Super Bowl in five years with a 20-19 victory over AFC titlist Buffalo. New York, employing its ball-control offense, had possession for 40 minutes, 33 seconds, a Super Bowl record. The Bills, who scored 95 points in their previous two playoff games leading to Super Bowl XXV, had the ball for less than eight minutes in the second half and just 19:27 for the game. Fourteen of New York's 73 plays came on its initial drive of the third quarter, which covered 75 yards and consumed a Super Bowl-record 9:29 before running back Ottis Anderson ran one yard for a touchdown. Giants quarterback Jeff Hostetler kept the long drive going by converting three third-down plays — an 11-yard pass to running back David Meggett on third-and-eight, a 14-yard toss to wide receiver Mark Ingram on third-and-13, and a nine-yard pass to Howard Cross on third-and-four — to give New York a 17-12 lead in the third quarter. Buffalo jumped to a 12-3 lead midway through the second quarter before Hostetler completed a 14-yard scoring strike to wide receiver Stephen Baker to close the score to 12-10 at halftime. Buffalo's Thurman Thomas ran 31 yards for a touchdown on the opening play of the fourth quarter to help Buffalo recapture the lead 19-17. Giants kicker Matt Bahr's 21-yard field goal gave the Giants a 20-19 lead, but Buffalo's Scott Norwood had a chance to win the game with seconds remaining before his 47-yard field-goal attempt sailed wide right. Hostetler completed 20 of 32 passes for 222 yards and one touchdown for the game. Wide receiver Mark Ingram caught five passes for 74 yards; tight end Mark Bavaro five for 50. Anderson rushed 21 times for 102 yards and one touchdown to capture the most-valuable-player honors. Thomas totaled 190 scrimmage yards, rushing 15 times for 135 yards and catching five passes for 55 yards.

WASHINGTON 42, DENVER 10 — NFC champion Washington won Super Bowl XXII and its second NFL championship of the 1980s with a 42-10 decision over AFC champion Denver. The Redskins, who also won Super Bowl XVII, enjoyed a record-setting second quarter en route to the victory. The Broncos broke in front 10-0 when quarterback John Elway threw a 56-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Ricky Nattiel on the Broncos' first play from scrimmage. Following a Washington punt, Denver's Rich Karlis kicked a 24-yard field goal to cap a seven-play, 61-yard scoring drive. The Redskins then erupted for 35 points on five straight possessions in the second period and coasted thereafter. The 35 points established an NFL postseason mark for most points scored in a period, bettering the previous total of 21 by San Francisco in Super Bowl XIX and Chicago in Super Bowl XX. Redskins quarterback Doug Williams led the second-period explosion by throwing a Super Bowl record-tying four touchdown passes, including 80- and 50-yarders to wide receiver Ricky Sanders, a 27-yarder to wide receiver Gary Clark, and an 8-yarder to tight end Clint Didier. Washington scored five touchdowns in 18 plays with total time of possession of only 5:47. Overall, Williams completed 18 of 29 passes for 340 yards and was named the game's most valuable player. His pass-yardage total eclipsed the previous Super Bowl record of 331 yards by Joe Montana of San Francisco in Super Bowl XIX. Sanders ended with 193 yards on eight catches, breaking the previous Super Bowl yardage record of 161 yards by Lynn Swann of Pittsburgh in Game X. Rookie running back Timmy Smith was the game's leading rusher with 22 carries for a Super Bowl-record 204 yards, breaking the previous mark of 191 yards by Marcus Allen of the Raiders in Game XVIII. Smith also scored twice on runs of 58 and four yards. Washington's six touchdowns and 602 total yards gained also set Super Bowl records. Redskins cornerback Barry Wilburn had two of the team's three interceptions, and strong safety Alvin Walton had two of Washington's five sacks.

NEW YORK GIANTS 39, DENVER 20 — The NFC champion New York Giants captured their first NFL title since 1956 when they downed the AFC champion Denver Broncos 39-20 in Super Bowl XXI. The victory marked the NFC's fifth NFL title in the past six seasons. The Broncos, behind the passing of quarterback John Elway, who was 13 of 20 for 187 yards in the first half, held a 10-9 lead at intermission, the narrowest halftime margin in Super Bowl history. Denver's Rich Karlis opened the scoring with a Super Bowl record-tying 48-yard field goal. New York drove 78 yards in nine plays on the next series to take a 7-3 lead on quarterback Phil Simms's six-yard touchdown pass to tight end Zeke Mowatt. The Broncos came right back with a 58-yard scoring drive on six plays capped by Elway's four-yard touchdown run. The only scoring in the second period was the sack of Elway in the end zone by defensive end George Martin for a New York safety. The Giants produced a key defensive stand early in the second quarter when the Broncos had a first down at the New York one-yard line, but failed to score on three running plays and Karlis's 23-yard missed field-goal attempt. The Giants took command of the game in the third period en route to a 30-point second half, the most ever scored in one half of Super Bowl play. New York took the lead for good on tight end Mark Bavaro's 13-yard touchdown catch 4:52 into the third period. The nine-play, 63-yard scoring drive included the successful conversion of a fourth down and one play on the New York 46-yard line. Denver was limited to only two net yards on 10 offensive plays in the third period. Simms set Super Bowl records for most consecutive completions (10) and highest completion percentage (88 percent on 22 completions in 25 attempts). He also passed for 268 yards and three touchdowns and was named the game's most valuable player. New York running back Joe Morris was the game's leading rusher with 20 carries for 67 yards. Denver wide receiver Vance Johnson led all receivers with five catches for 121 yards. The Giants defeated their three playoff opponents by a cumulative total of 82 points (New York 105, opponents 23), the largest such margin by a Super Bowl winner.

CHICAGO 46, NEW ENGLAND 10—The NFC champion Chicago Bears, seeking their first NFL title since 1963, scored a Super Bowl-record 46 points in downing AFC champion New England 46-10 in Super Bowl XX. The previous record for most points in a Super Bowl was 38, shared by San Francisco in XIX and the Los Angeles Raiders in XVIII. The Bears' league-leading defense tied the Super Bowl record for sacks (seven) and limited the Patriots to a record-low seven yards rushing. New England took the quickest lead in Super Bowl history when Tony Franklin kicked a 36-yard field goal with 1:19 elapsed in the first period. The score came about because of Larry McGrew's fumble recovery at the Chicago 19-yard line. However, the Bears rebounded for a 23-3 first-half lead, while building a yardage advantage of 236 total yards to New England's minus 19. Running back Matt Suhey rushed eight times for 37 yards, including an 11-yard touchdown run, and caught one pass for 24 yards in the first half. After the Patriots first drive of the second half ended with a punt to the Bears' 4-yard line, Chicago marched 96 yards in nine plays with quarterback Jim McMahon's one-yard scoring run capping the drive. McMahon became the first quarterback in Super Bowl history to rush for a pair of touchdowns. The Bears completed their scoring via a 28-yard interception return by reserve cornerback Reggie Phillips, a one-yard run by defensive tackle/fullback William Perry, and a safety when defensive end Henry Waechter tackled Patriots quarterback Steve Grogan in the end zone. Bears defensive end Richard Dent became the fourth defender to be named the game's most valuable player after contributing 1½ sacks. The Bears' victory margin of 36 points was the largest in Super Bowl history, bettering the previous mark of 29 by the Los Angeles Raiders when they topped Washington 38-9 in Game XVIII. McMahon completed 12 of 20 passes for 256 yards before leaving the game in the fourth period with a wrist injury. The NFL's all-time leading rusher, Bears running back Walter Payton, carried 22 times for 61 yards. Wide receiver Willie Gault caught four passes for 129 yards, the fourth-most receiving yards in a Super Bowl. Chicago coach Mike Ditka became the second man (Tom Flores of Raiders was the other) who played in a Super Bowl and coached a team to a victory in the game.

SAN FRANCISCO 38, MIAMI 16—The San Francisco 49ers captured their second Super Bowl title with a dominating offense and a defense that tamed Miami's explosive passing attack. The Dolphins held a 10-7 lead at the end of the first period, which represented the most points scored by two teams in an opening quarter of a Super Bowl. However, the 49ers used excellent field position in the second period to build a 28-16 halftime lead. Running back Roger Craig set a Super Bowl record by scoring three touchdowns on pass receptions of 8 and 16 yards and a run of 2 yards. San Francisco's Joe Montana was voted the game's most valuable player. He joined Green Bay's Bart Starr and Pittsburgh's Terry Bradshaw as the only two-time Super Bowl most valuable players. Montana completed 24 of 35 passes for a Super Bowl-record 331 yards and three touchdowns, and rushed five times for 59 yards, including a six-yard touchdown. Craig had 58 yards on 15 carries and caught seven passes for 77 yards. Wendell Tyler rushed 13 times for 65 yards and had four catches for 70 yards. Dwight Clark had six receptions for 77 yards, while Russ Francis had five for 60. San Francisco's 537 total net yards bettered the previous Super Bowl record of 429 yards by Oakland in Super Bowl XI. The 49ers also held a time of possession advantage over the Dolphins of 37:11 to 22:49.

LOS ANGELES RAIDERS 38, WASHINGTON 9—The Los Angeles Raiders dominated the Washington Redskins from the beginning in Super Bowl XVIII and achieved the most lopsided victory in Super Bowl history, surpassing Green Bay's 35-10 win over Kansas City in Super Bowl I. The Raiders took a 7-0 lead 4:52 into the game when Derrick Jensen blocked a Jeff Hayes punt and recovered it in the end zone for a touchdown. With 9:14 remaining in the first half, Raiders quarterback Jim Plunkett threw a 12-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Cliff Branch to complete a three-play, 65-yard drive. Washington cut the Raiders' lead to 14-3 on a 24-yard field goal by Mark Moseley. With seven seconds left in the first half, Raiders linebacker Jack Squirek intercepted a Joe Theismann pass at the Redskins' 5-yard line and ran it in for a touchdown to give Los Angeles a 21-3 halftime lead. In the third period, running back Marcus Allen, who rushed for a Super Bowl-record 191 yards on 20 carries, increased the Raiders' lead to 35-9 on touchdown runs of five and 74 yards, the latter erasing the previous Super Bowl record of 58 yards set by Baltimore's Tom Matte in Game III. Allen was named the game's most valuable player. The victory over Washington raised Raiders coach Tom Flores' playoff record to 8-1, including a 27-10 win against Philadelphia in Super Bowl XV. The 38 points scored by the Raiders were the highest total by a Super Bowl team. The previous high was 35 points by Green Bay in Game I.

WASHINGTON 27, MIAMI 17—Fullback John Riggins's Super Bowl-record 166 yards on 38 carries sparked Washington to a 27-17 victory over AFC champion Miami. It was Riggins's fourth straight 100-yard rushing game during the playoffs, also a record. The win marked Washington's first NFL title since 1942, and was only the second time in Super Bowl history NFL/NFC teams scored consecutive victories (Green Bay did it in Super Bowls I and II and San Francisco won Super Bowl XVI). The Redskins, under second-year head coach Joe Gibbs, used a balanced offense that accounted for 400 total yards (a Super Bowl-record 276 yards rushing and 124 passing), second in Super Bowl history to 429 yards by Oakland in Super Bowl XI. The Dolphins built a 17-10 halftime lead on a 76-yard touchdown pass from quarterback David Woodley to wide receiver Jimmy Cefalo 6:49 into the first period, a 20-yard field goal by Uwe von Schamann with 6:00 left in the half, and a Super Bowl-record 98-yard kickoff return by Fulton Walker with 1:38 remaining. Washington had tied the score at 10-10 with 1:51 left on a four-yard touchdown pass from Joe Theismann to wide receiver Alvin Garrett. Mark Moseley started the Redskins' scoring with a 31-yard field goal late in the first period, and added a 20-yarder midway through the third period to cut the Dolphins' lead to 17-13. Riggins, who was voted the game's most valuable player, gave Washington its first lead of the game with 10:01 left when he ran 43 yards off left tackle for a touchdown on a fourth-and-one situation. Wide receiver Charlie Brown caught a six-yard scoring pass from Theismann with 1:55 left to complete the scoring. The Dolphins managed only 176 yards (142 in first half). Theismann completed 15 of 23 passes for 143 yards, with two touchdowns and two interceptions. For Miami, Woodley was 4 of 14 for 97 yards, with one touchdown, and one interception. Don Strock was 0 for 3 in relief.

SAN FRANCISCO 26, CINCINNATI 21—Ray Wersching's Super Bowl record-tying four field goals and Joe Montana's controlled passing helped lift the San Francisco 49ers to their first NFL championship with a 26-21 victory over Cincinnati. The 49ers built a game-record 20-0 halftime lead via Montana's one-yard touchdown run, which capped an 11-play, 68-yard drive; fullback Earl Cooper's 11-yard scoring pass from Montana, which climaxed a Super Bowl record 92-yard drive on 12 plays; and Wersching's 22- and 26-yard field goals. The Bengals rebounded in the second half, closing the gap to 20-14 on quarterback Ken Anderson's five-yard run and Dan Ross's four-yard reception from Anderson, who established Super Bowl passing records for completions (25) and completion percentage (73.5 percent on 25 of 34). Wersching added early fourth-period field goals of 40 and 23 yards to increase the 49ers' lead to 26-14. The Bengals managed to score on an Anderson-to-Ross three-yard pass with only 16 seconds remaining. Ross set a Super Bowl record with 11 receptions for 104 yards. Montana, the game's most valuable player, completed 14 of 22 passes for 157 yards. Cincinnati compiled 356 yards to San Francisco's 275, which marked the first time in Super Bowl history that the team that gained the most yards from scrimmage lost the game.

OAKLAND 27, PHILADELPHIA 10 — Jim Plunkett threw three touchdown passes, including an 80-yarder to Kenny King, as the Raiders became the first wild-card team to win the Super Bowl. Plunkett's touchdown bomb to King — the longest play in Super Bowl history — gave Oakland a decisive 14-0 lead with nine seconds left in the first period. Linebacker Rod Martin had set up Oakland's first touchdown, a two-yard reception by Cliff Branch, with a 17-yard interception return to the Eagles' 30 yard line. The Eagles never recovered from that early deficit, managing only a Tony Franklin field goal (30 yards) and an eight-yard touchdown pass from Ron Jaworski to Keith Krepfle the rest of the game. Plunkett, who became a starter in the sixth game of the season, completed 13 of 21 for 261 yards and was named the game's most valuable player. Oakland won nine of 11 games with Plunkett starting, but that was good enough only for second place in the AFC West, although they tied division winner San Diego with an 11-5 record. The Raiders, who had previously won Super Bowl XI over Minnesota, had to win three playoff games to get to the championship game. Oakland defeated Houston 27-7 at home followed by road victories over Cleveland (14-12) and San Diego (34-27). Oakland's Mark van Eeghen was the game's leading rusher with 75 yards on 18 carries. Philadelphia's Wilbert Montgomery led all receivers with six receptions for 91 yards. Branch had five for 67 and Harold Carmichael of Philadelphia five for 83. Martin finished the game with three interceptions, a Super Bowl record.

PITTSBURGH 31, LOS ANGELES 19 — Terry Bradshaw completed 14 of 21 passes for 309 yards and set two passing records as the Steelers became the first team to win four Super Bowls. Despite three interceptions by the Rams, Bradshaw kept his poise and brought the Steelers from behind twice in the second half. Trailing 13-10 at halftime, Pittsburgh went ahead 17-13 when Bradshaw hit Lynn Swann with a 47-yard touchdown pass after 2:48 of the third quarter. On the Rams' next possession Vince Ferragamo, who completed 15 of 25 passes for 212 yards, responded with a 50-yard pass to Billy Waddy that moved Los Angeles from its own 26 to the Steelers' 24. On the following play, Lawrence McCutcheon connected with Ron Smith on a halfback option pass that gave the Rams a 19-17 lead. On Pittsburgh's initial possession of the final period, Bradshaw lofted a 73-yard scoring pass to John Stallworth to put the Steelers in front to stay, 24-19. Franco Harris scored on a one-yard run later in the quarter to seal the verdict. A 45-yard pass from Bradshaw to Stallworth was the key play in the drive to Harris's score. Bradshaw, the game's most valuable player for the second straight year, set career Super Bowl records for most touchdown passes (nine) and most passing yards (932). Larry Anderson gave the Steelers excellent field position throughout the game with five kickoff returns for a record 162 yards.

PITTSBURGH 35, DALLAS 31 — Terry Bradshaw threw a record four touchdown passes to lead the Steelers to victory. The Steelers became the first team to win three Super Bowls, mostly because of Bradshaw's accurate arm. Bradshaw, voted the game's most valuable player, completed 17 of 30 passes for 318 yards, a personal high. Four of those passes went for touchdowns — two to John Stallworth and the third, with 26 seconds remaining in the second period, to Rocky Bleier for a 21-14 halftime lead. The Cowboys scored twice before intermission on Roger Staubach's 39-yard pass to Tony Hill and a 37-yard fumble return by linebacker Mike Hegman, who stole the ball from Bradshaw. The Steelers broke open the contest with two touchdowns in a span of 19 seconds midway through the final period. Franco Harris rambled 22 yards up the middle to give the Steelers a 28-17 lead with 7:10 left. Pittsburgh got the ball right back when Randy White fumbled the kickoff and Dennis Winston recovered for the Steelers. On first down, Bradshaw fired his fourth touchdown pass, an 18-yarder to Lynn Swann to boost the Steelers' lead to 35-17 with 6:51 to play. The Cowboys refused to let the Steelers run away with the contest. Staubach connected with Billy Joe DuPree on a seven-yard scoring pass with 2:23 left. Then the Cowboys recovered an onside kick and Staubach took them in for another score, passing four yards to Butch Johnson with 22 seconds remaining. Bleier recovered another onside kick with 17 seconds left to seal the victory for the Steelers.

Dallas converted two interceptions into 10 points and Efren Herrera added a 35-yard field goal for a 13-0 halftime advantage. In the third period Craig Morton engineered a drive to the Cowboys' 30 and Jim Turner's 47-yard field goal made the score 13-3. After an exchange of punts, Butch Johnson made a spectacular diving catch in the end zone to complete a 45-yard pass from Roger Staubach and put the Cowboys ahead 20-3. Following Rick Upchurch's 67-yard kickoff return, Norris Weese guided the Broncos to a touchdown to cut the Dallas lead to 20-10. OAKLAND 32, MINNESOTA 14 — The Raiders won their first NFL championship before a record Super Bowl crowd plus 81 million television viewers, the largest audience ever to watch a sporting event. The Raiders gained a record-breaking 429 yards, including running back Clarence Davis's 137 yards rushing. Wide receiver Fred Biletnikoff made four key receptions, which earned him the game's most valuable player trophy. Oakland scored on three successive possessions in the second quarter to build a 16-0 halftime lead. Errol Mann's 24-yard field goal opened the scoring, then the AFC champions put together drives of 64 and 35 yards, scoring on a one-yard pass from Ken Stabler to Dave Casper and a one-yard run by Pete Banaszak. The Raiders increased their lead to 19-0 on a 40-yard field goal in the third quarter, but Minnesota responded with a 12-play, 58-yard drive late in the period, with Fran Tarkenton passing eight yards to wide receiver Sammy White to cut the deficit to 19-7. Two fourth-quarter interceptions clinched the title for the Raiders. One set up Banaszak's second touchdown run, the other resulted in cornerback Willie Brown's Super Bowl-record 75-yard interception return.

PITTSBURGH 21, DALLAS 17 — The Steelers won the Super Bowl for the second year in a row on Terry Bradshaw's 64-yard touchdown pass to Lynn Swann and an aggressive defense that snuffed out a late rally by the Cowboys with an end-zone interception on the final play of the game. In the fourth quarter, Pittsburgh ran on fourth down and gave up the ball on the Cowboys' 39 with 1:22 to play. Roger Staubach ran and passed for two first downs but his last desperation pass was picked off by Glen Edwards. Dallas's scoring was the result of two touchdown passes by Staubach, one to Drew Pearson for 29 yards and the other to Percy Howard for 34 yards. Toni Fritsch had a 36-yard field goal. The Steelers scored on two touchdown passes by Bradshaw, one to Randy Grossman for seven yards and the long bomb to Swann. Roy Gerela had 36- and 18-yard field goals. PITTSBURGH 16, MINNESOTA 6 — AFC champion Pittsburgh, in its initial Super Bowl appearance, and NFC champion Minnesota, making a third bid for its first Super Bowl title, struggled through a first half in which the only score was produced by the Steelers' defense when Dwight White downed Vikings' quarterback Fran Tarkenton in the end zone for a safety 7:49 into the second period. The Steelers forced another break and took advantage on the second-half kickoff when Minnesota's Bill Brown fumbled and Marv Kellum recovered for Pittsburgh on the Vikings' 30. After Rocky Bleier failed to gain on first down, Franco Harris carried three consecutive times for 24 yards, a loss of 3, and a 9-yard touchdown and a 9-0 lead. Though its offense was completely stymied by Pittsburgh's defense, Minnesota managed to move into a threatening position after 4:27 of the final period when Matt Blair blocked Bobby Walden's punt and Terry Brown recovered the ball in the end zone for a touchdown. Fred Cox's kick failed and the Steelers led 9-6. Pittsburgh wasted no time putting the victory away. The Steelers took the ensuing kickoff and marched 66 yards in 11 plays, climaxed by Terry Bradshaw's four-yard scoring pass to Larry Brown with 3:31 left. Pittsburgh's defense permitted Minnesota only 119 yards total offense, including a Super Bowl low of 17 rushing yards. The Steelers, meanwhile, gained 333 yards, including Harris's record 158 yards on 34 carries.

MIAMI 24, MINNESOTA 7 — The defending NFL champion Dolphins, representing the AFC for the third straight year, scored the first two times they had possession on marches of 62 and 56 yards while the Miami defense limited the Vikings to only seven plays in the first period. Larry Csonka climaxed the initial 10-play drive with a five-yard touchdown bolt through right guard after 5:27 had elapsed. Four plays later, Miami began another 10-play scoring drive, which ended with Jim Kiick bursting one yard through the middle for another touchdown after 13:38 of the period. Garo Yepremian added a 28-yard field goal midway in the second period for a 17-0 Miami lead. Minnesota then drove from its 20 to a second-and-two situation on the Miami 7 yard line with 1:18 left in the half. But on two plays, Miami limited Oscar Reed to one yard. On fourth-and-one from the 6, Reed went over right tackle, but Dolphins middle linebacker Nick Buoniconti jarred the ball loose and Jake Scott recovered for Miami to halt the Minnesota threat. The Vikings were unable to muster enough offense in the second half to threaten the Dolphins. Csonka rushed 33 times for a Super Bowl-record 145 yards. Bob Griese of Miami completed six of seven passes for 73 yards.

MIAMI 14, WASHINGTON 7 — The Dolphins played virtually perfect football in the first half as their defense permitted the Redskins to cross midfield only once and their offense turned good field position into two touchdowns. On its third possession, Miami opened its first scoring drive from the Dolphins' 37 yard line. An 18-yard pass from Bob Griese to Paul Warfield preceded by three plays Griese's 28-yard touchdown pass to Howard Twilley. After Washington moved from its 17 to the Miami 48 with two minutes remaining in the first half, Dolphins linebacker Nick Buoniconti intercepted a Billy Kilmer pass at the Miami 41 and returned it to the Washington 27. Jim Kiick ran for three yards, Larry Csonka for three, Griese passed to Jim Mandich for 19, and Kiick gained one to the 1-yard line. With 18 seconds left until intermission, Kiick scored from the 1. Washington's only touchdown came with 2:07 left in the game and resulted from a misplayed field-goal attempt and fumble by Garo Yepremian, with the Redskins' Mike Bass picking the ball out of the air and running 49 yards for the score. Dolphins safety Jake Scott, who had two interceptions, including one in the end zone to kill a Redskins' drive, was voted the game's most valuable player.

After Dallas received the second-half kickoff, Duane Thomas led a 71-yard march in eight plays for a 17-3 margin. Howley intercepted Bob Griese's pass at the 50 and returned it to the Miami 9 early in the fourth period, and three plays later Roger Staubach passed seven yards to Mike Ditka for the final touchdown. Thomas rushed for 95 yards and Walt Garrison gained 74. Staubach, voted the game's most valuable player, completed 12 of 19 passes for 119 yards and two touchdowns.

BALTIMORE 16, DALLAS 13 — A 32-yard field goal by first-year kicker Jim O'Brien brought the Baltimore Colts a victory over the Dallas Cowboys in the final five seconds of Super Bowl V. The game between the champions of the AFC and NFC was played on artificial turf for the first time. Dallas led 13-6 at the half but interceptions by Rick Volk and Mike Curtis set up a Baltimore touchdown and O'Brien's decisive kick in the fourth period. Earl Morrall relieved an injured Johnny Unitas late in the first half, although Unitas completed the Colts' only scoring pass. It caromed off receiver Eddie Hinton's fingertips, off Dallas defensive back Mel Renfro, and finally settled into the grasp of John Mackey, who went 45 yards to score on a 75-yard play.

Dawson, the fourth consecutive quarterback to be chosen the Super Bowl's top player, called an almost flawless game, completing 12 of 17 passes and hitting Otis Taylor on a 46-yard play for the final Chiefs touchdown. The Kansas City defense limited Minnesota's strong rushing game to 67 yards and had three interceptions and two fumble recoveries. The crowd of 80,562 set a Super Bowl record, as did the gross receipts of $3,817,872.69.

Namath, chosen the outstanding player, completed 17 of 28 passes for 206 yards and directed a steady attack that dominated the NFL champions after the Jets' defense had intercepted Colts quarterback Earl Morrall three times in the first half. The Jets had 337 total yards, including 121 yards rushing by Matt Snell. Johnny Unitas, who had missed most of the season with a sore elbow, came off the bench and led Baltimore to its only touchdown late in the fourth quarter after New York led 16-0.

Bart Starr again was chosen the game's most valuable player as he completed 13 of 24 passes for 202 yards and one touchdown and directed a Packers attack that was in control all the way after building a 16-7 halftime lead. Don Chandler kicked four field goals and all-pro cornerback Herb Adderley capped the Green Bay scoring with a 60-yard run with an interception. The game marked the last for Vince Lombardi as Packers coach, ending nine years at Green Bay in which he won six Western Conference championships, five NFL championships, and two Super Bowls.

GREEN BAY 35, KANSAS CITY 10 — The Green Bay Packers opened the Super Bowl series by defeating Kansas City's American Football League champions 35-10 behind the passing of Bart Starr, the receiving of Max McGee, and a key interception by all-pro safety Willie Wood. Green Bay broke open the game with three second-half touchdowns, the first of which was set up by Wood's 50-yard return of an interception to the Chiefs' 5 yard line. McGee, filling in for ailing Boyd Dowler after having caught only four passes all season, caught seven from Starr for 138 yards and two touchdowns. Elijah Pitts ran for two other scores. The Chiefs' 10 points came in the second quarter, the only touchdown on a seven-yard pass from Len Dawson to Curtis McClinton. Starr completed 16 of 23 passes for 250 yards and two touchdowns and was chosen the most valuable player. 1992 American Football Conference Championship Game

Joe Robbie Stadium, Miami, Florida — January 17, 1993
Attendance: 72,703

The Bills forced 5 turnovers en route to an easy victory over the Dolphins. Buffalo thus qualified for its third consecutive Super Bowl, a feat equaled only by Miami, which appeared in games VI, VII, and VIII. The Bills' defense was a big factor in this one, recovering 3 fumbles, intercepting 2 passes, and sacking Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino 4 times. Buffalo's offense, meanwhile, converted the miscues into 13 points, then controlled the ball on the ground, rushing for 182 yards (Miami had only 33) and maintaining possession for 36:19. Kicker Steve Christie kept the Bills comfortably ahead by tying an NFL postseason record with 5 field goals. Thurman Thomas rushed for 96 yards and caught 5 passes for 70 more, including a 17-yard touchdown 40 seconds into the second quarter that broke a 3-3 tie and gave Buffalo the lead for good. It was 13-3 at halftime, and the Bills broke the game open after recovering a fumble at the Dolphins' 24-yard line on the second-half kickoff. Five plays later, Kenneth Davis ran 2 yards for the touchdown that made it 20-3. Jim Kelly, playing for the first time since spraining his knee in Buffalo's final regular-season game, completed 17 of 24 passes for 177 yards, with 2 interceptions. Miami's Dan Marino was 22 of 45 for 268 yards and had 2 passes picked off. His 15-yard touchdown pass to Mark Duper midway through the fourth quarter gave him an NFL record-tying 10 consecutive postseason games with at least 1 touchdown pass.

1992 National Football Conference Championship Game

Candlestick Park, San Francisco, California — January 17, 1993
Attendance: 64,920

DALLAS 30, SAN FRANCISCO 20 — Troy Aikman passed for 322 yards and 2 touchdowns and Emmitt Smith rushed for 114 yards as the Cowboys qualified for their first Super Bowl in 14 years and their record sixth overall. Aikman was particularly effective in the second half, completing 13 of 16 passes and directing Dallas on 3 long touchdown drives to clinch the victory. The game was tied at 10-10 at intermission, but Aikman marched the Cowboys 78 yards in eight plays following the second-half kickoff. His 38-yard pass to Alvin Harper moved the ball into 49ers territory, and Daryl Johnston's 3-yard run gave Dallas a lead it would never relinquish. Smith, who also had 7 receptions for 59 yards, caught a 16-yard touchdown pass 2:35 into the fourth quarter to make it 24-13 after the Cowboys had eaten up more than nine minutes off the clock. Steve Young's 5-yard touchdown pass to Jerry Rice pulled San Francisco within 24-20 with 4:22 to go, but Harper turned Aikman's short pass into a back-breaking 70-yard gain on the next play from scrimmage. Three plays later, Aikman teamed with Kelvin Martin on a 6-yard touchdown for the clinching score with 3:43 remaining. The two teams were even in most offensive statistics, including first downs (24 each) and total yards (Dallas had 416, the 49ers 415). But the glaring difference was in turnovers, where San Francisco had 4 and the Cowboys none. Dallas turned 2 fumble recoveries into all 10 of their points in the first half, then intercepted a pair of Young passes as San Francisco tried to rally in the fourth quarter. Young finished with 313 passing yards and Rice caught 8 passes for 123 yards. Harper had 117 yards on only 3 receptions for the Cowboys.

BUFFALO 24, PITTSBURGH 3 — Frank Reich passed for 2 touchdowns to lead the Bills to a methodical victory over the Steelers. Reich, playing for injured starter Jim Kelly, completed 16 of 23 passes for 160 yards and was not intercepted, while running back Kenneth Davis added 104 yards on the ground. Pittsburgh, which led the NFL with 43 takeaways during the regular season, did not register any in this one while turning the ball over 4 times. Trailing 3-0 in the second quarter, Buffalo drove 59 yards to a touchdown after defensive end Phil Hansen recovered O'Donnell's fumble at the Bills' 41-yard line. Reich's 1-yard touchdown pass to tackle-eligible Mitch Frerotte capped that drive and gave Buffalo the lead for good. Reich's 17-yard touchdown pass to James Lofton 11 minutes into the second half gave the Bills all the cushion they would need. O'Donnell, who missed the last three games of the regular season, was rusty in his return, completing 15 of 29 passes for 163 yards, with 2 interceptions. Steelers running back Barry Foster gained 104 yards on 20 carries.

MIAMI 31, SAN DIEGO 0 — Dan Marino threw 3 first-half touchdown passes, including 2 just 79 seconds apart late in the second quarter, to break open a close game with the Chargers. Cornerback Troy Vincent's interception and 2-yard return to San Diego's 48-yard line set up Miami's first touchdown, a 1-yard pass from Marino to running back Tony Paige 6:30 before halftime. Minutes later, Vincent intercepted another pass, and it took Marino only two plays to put the Dolphins in the end zone again, this time on his 9-yard strike to tight end Keith Jackson with 1:46 left in the half. Chargers quarterback Stan Humphries then was intercepted for the third time in the second quarter, this time by linebacker Bryan Cox, who picked off Humphries's pass and returned it seven yards to the San Diego 42. Marino's 30-yard touchdown pass to Jackson with 27 seconds to go in the half put the game out of reach. Miami controlled the ball on the ground for most of the second half, with Aaron Craver adding a 25-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter. Craver finished with 72 rushing yards, while Bobby Humphrey had 71. San Diego managed only 10 first downs and 202 total yards, and Humphries suffered 4 interceptions in all. The Chargers entered the game with victories in each of their last eight games and 12 of their last 13.

Attendance: 64,991

SAN FRANCISCO 20, WASHINGTON 13 — Steve Young threw 2 touchdown passes and survived 4 turnovers as the 49ers eliminated the Super Bowl XXVI champions. Young completed 20 of 30 passes for 227 yards, including scoring strikes of 5 yards to wide receiver John Taylor and 16 yards to tight end Brent Jones that helped San Francisco build a 17-3 advantage in the first half. But the 49ers' quarterback also lost 3 fumbles, the last of which the Redskins converted into a 15-yard drive capped by quarterback Mark Rypien's 1-yard sneak for a touchdown that trimmed the margin to 17-13 with 14:36 left in the game. Moments later, Washington was driving again, and reached San Francisco's 23-yard line before Rypien fumbled while trying to hand off. The 49ers took over and ate up more than seven minutes on a 59-yard, 14-play drive that culiminated in Mike Cofer's 33-yard field goal with 2:22 remaining. Ricky Watters ran for 83 yards and Young added 73 yards on only 8 carries for San Francisco, which amassed 401 total yards. The Redskins had 323 total yards, but also were victimized by 4 turnovers. 49ers defensive end Pierce Holt recorded 3 of his team's 5 sacks.

DALLAS 34, PHILADELPHIA 10 — The Cowboys converted a balanced offense and a stingy defense into an easy victory over the Eagles. Philadelphia took a 3-0 lead on Roger Ruzek's 32-yard field goal 7:15 into the game, but Dallas countered with Troy Aikman's 1-yard touchdown pass to tight end Derek Tennell and a 7-3 advantage. Aikman's second touchdown pass, a 6-yarder to tight end Jay Novacek, gave the Cowboys a 14-3 advantage just 47 seconds before intermission. On the ensuing kickoff, Vai Sikahema fumbled, and Dallas converted the turnover into a 20-yard field goal by Lin Elliott as time ran out in the half. The Cowboys went on to build a 34-3 advantage in the fourth quarter before the Eagles got their lone touchdown in the final minute. Emmitt Smith ran for 114 yards, including a 23-yard touchdown run, as Dallas amassed 160 rushing yards. The Cowboys added 185 yards through the air as Aikman completed 15 of 25 passes. SAN DIEGO 17, KANSAS CITY 0 — Marion Butts broke a scoreless tie with a 54-yard touchdown run in the third quarter and the Chargers ground out a victory over the Chiefs. San Diego, whose lone loss over the final 12 weeks of the regular season came against Kansas City, rushed for 192 yards while limiting the Chiefs to 61. Butts had 119 yards on 15 carries, including his scoring run with 5:53 left in the third quarter. On Kansas City's next possession, Chargers defensive tackle Blaise Winter tipped a Dave Krieg pass, and end Leslie O'Neal intercepted it to set up John Carney's 34-yard field goal. San Diego put the game away in the fourth quarter with a 10-play, 90-yard drive capped by Steve Hendrickson's 5-yard touchdown run with 4:57 left in the game. Hendrickson, a linebacker who doubles as a blocking back in goal-line situations, carried for the first time all year. The Chargers' defense did the rest, limiting the Chiefs to 251 total yards. Krieg passed for 233 yards, but completed only 16 of 34 attempts, was sacked 7 times, and was intercepted twice. San Diego defensive end Burt Grossman had 2½ sacks, while O'Neal and tackle Shawn Lee added 2 each.

BUFFALO 41, HOUSTON 38 — Frank Reich threw 4 second-half touchdown passes and Steve Christie kicked a 32-yard field goal 3:06 into overtime as the Bills mounted the greatest comeback in NFL history to stun the Oilers. Houston led 35-3 after Warren Moon threw 4 first-half touchdown passes and safety Bubba McDowell returned an interception 58 yards for a score 1:41 into the third quarter. Then Reich, who as a collegian had rallied Maryland from a 31-0 halftime deficit to a 42-40 victory over Miami, began the dramatic rally by engineering a 50-yard drive capped by Kenneth Davis's 1-yard run with 8:54 left in the third quarter. Christie recovered his ensuing onside kickoff and Reich's 38-yard touchdown pass four plays later made it 38-17. After a short punt by the Oilers, Reich took only four more plays to march his team 59 yards to a touchdown on his 26-yard pass to Andre Reed. Houston's next possession ended in an interception by Buffalo safety Henry Jones, which set up Reich's 18-yard pass to Reed, the Bills' fourth touchdown in a span of 6:54. It stayed 35-31 until late in the game, when Buffalo drove 74 yards in seven plays. The drive was capped by Reed's third touchdown, a 17-yard throw from Reich that gave the Bills the lead for the first time. Moon rallied the Oilers to a short field goal with 12 seconds left in regulation to tie the score, but was intercepted by cornerback Henry Odomes on the first possession of overtime. Odomes's 2-yard return and a 15-yard facemask penalty on Houston wide receiver Haywood Jeffires positioned Buffalo for the winning field goal three plays later. Reich, subbing for injured starter Jim Kelly, completed 21 of 34 passes for 389 yards, including 8 for 136 yards to Reed. Moon, who was 19 of 22 as the Oilers built their first-half advantage, finished 36 of 50 for 371 yards. Ernest Givins caught 9 passes for 117 yards and Jeffires had 8 receptions for 98 yards and 2 touchdowns. Previously, the largest deficit any NFL team had overcome to win was 28 points, when the 49ers rallied to a 38-35 victory over the Saints after trailing 35-7 in a game in 1980. The largest postseason comeback came when the Lions erased a 27-7 deficit to the 49ers to win 31-27 in a Western Conference playoff in 1957.

WASHINGTON 24, MINNESOTA 7 — Third-string running back Brian Mitchell ran for 109 yards and added 100 yards on punt returns and receptions as the Redskins, the NFC's lowest seed in the playoffs, upset the Central Division-champion Vikings. Mitchell had carried the ball only 6 times during the regular season and 18 times in his three-year NFL career, but with backup Ricky Ervins injured, he had 16 rushes in this game. The key play was his 36-yard run from Washington's 44-yard line on a fake punt late in the second quarter. Moments later, he scored on an 8-yard run to increase the Redskins' lead to 17-7 at intermission. Minnesota took the game's opening kickoff and marched 79 yards to a touchdown, Terry Allen's 1-yard run, but then managed only 69 total yards the rest of the way. Quarterback Sean Salisbury completed 42- and 14-yard passes to Cris Carter to key the first drive, but finished only 6 of 20 for 113 yards, with a pair of interceptions. Meanwhile, Washington's offense controlled the ball on the ground, rushing for 196 yards on 47 attempts and maintaining possession for 42:43 of the game's 60 minutes. The Redskins improved their postseason record to 16-4 under head coach Joe Gibbs.

PHILADELPHIA 36, NEW ORLEANS 20 — The Eagles exploded for 26 points in the fourth quarter to rally past the Saints and win a playoff game for the first time since the 1980 NFL Championship Game. New Orleans, the only NFL team that has never won a postseason game, led 20-7 until Philadelphia's Roger Ruzek kicked a 40-yard field goal late in the third quarter to trim the margin to 10 points. In the fourth period, Randall Cunningham's 35-yard touchdown pass to Fred Barnett with 10:37 remaining sparked an Eagles' scoring frenzy against the Saints, who had allowed the fewest points in the NFL during the regular season and had not permitted any opponent more than 21 points in a game all year. On the first play from scrimmage following Barnett's touchdown, Eagles linebacker Seth Joyner intercepted a Bobby Hebert pass and returned it 14 yards to the Saints' 26-yard line. That set up a 6-yard touchdown run by Heath Sherman for a 24-20 Philadelphia lead with 6:48 left in the game. Seventy-two seconds later, defensive end Reggie White sacked Hebert in the end zone to make it 26-20, and Roger Ruzek's 39-yard field goal at the 2:36 mark made it 29-20. Cornerback Eric Allen sealed the victory 19 seconds later with his second interception of the game, returning it 18 yards for a touchdown. Sherman finished with 105 yards on 21 carries, while Cunningham passed for 219 yards and 2 touchdowns, both to Barnett. Hebert completed 23 of 39 passes for 291 yards and a touchdown, but was intercepted 3 times.

AFC 23, NFC 20 — Nick Lowery's 33-yard field goal 4:09 into overtime gave the American Conference all-stars an unlikely 23-20 victory over the National Conference. Despite being overwhelmed by the NFC in first downs (30-9), total yards (472-114), and time of possession (40:19-23:50), the AFC won because it forced 6 turnovers, blocked a pair of field goals (1 of which was returned for a touchdown), and returned an interception for a score. Special-teams star Steve Tasker of the Bills earned the Dan McGuire Trophy as the player of the game for making 4 tackles, forcing a fumble, and blocking a field goal. The block came with eight minutes left in regulation and the game tied at 13-13. The Raiders' Terry McDaniel picked up the loose ball and ran 28 yards for a touchdown and a 20-13 AFC lead. The NFC rallied behind 49ers quarterback Steve Young, whose fourth-down, 23-yard touchdown pass to Giants running back Rodney Hampton tied the game at 20-20 with 10 seconds left in regulation. Young completed 18 of 32 passes for 196 yards but was intercepted 3 times and lost a fumble when sacked in overtime. Raiders defensive end Howie Long fell on that fumble at the NFC 28-yard line, and five plays later, Lowery converted the winning field goal.

Note: From 1947 through 1958, the first selection in the draft was a Bonus pick, awarded to the winner of a random draw. That club, in turn, forfeited its last-round draft choice. The winner of the Bonus choice was eliminated from future draws. The system was abolished after 1958, by which time all clubs had received a Bonus choice.

FIRST-ROUND SELECTIONS

If club had no first-round selection, first player drafted is listed with round in parentheses.

NFL Digest of Rules

This Digest of Rules of the National Football League has been prepared to aid players, fans, and members of the press, radio, and television media in their understanding of the game.

It is not meant to be a substitute for the official rule book. In any case of conflict between these explanations and the official rules, the rules always have precedence.

In order to make it easier to coordinate the information in this digest the topics discussed generally follow the order of the rule book.

Officials' Jurisdictions, Positions, and Duties

Referee — General oversight and control of game. Gives signals for all fouls and is final authority for rule interpretations. Takes a position in backfield 10 to 12 yards behind line of scrimmage, favors right side (if quarterback is right-handed passer). Determines legality of snap, observes deep back(s) for legal motion. On running play, observes quarterback during and after handoff, remains with him until action has cleared away, then proceeds downfield, checking on runner and contact behind him. When runner is downed, Referee determines forward progress from wing official and, if necessary, adjusts final position of ball.

On pass plays, drops back as quarterback begins to fade back, picks up legality of blocks by near linemen. Changes to complete concentration on quarterback as defenders approach. Primarily responsible to rule on possible roughing action on passer and if ball becomes loose, rules whether ball is free on a fumble or dead on an incomplete pass.

During kicking situations, Referee has primary responsibility to rule on kicker's actions and whether or not any subsequent contact by a defender is legal.

Umpire — Primary responsibility to rule on players' equipment, as well as their conduct and actions on scrimmage line. Lines up approximately four to five yards downfield, varying position from in front of weakside tackle to strongside guard. Looks for possible false start by offensive linemen. Observes legality of contact by both offensive linemen while blocking and by defensive players while they attempt to ward off blockers. Is prepared to call rule infractions if they occur on offense or defense. Moves forward to line of scrimmage when pass play develops in order to insure that interior linemen do not move illegally downfield. If offensive linemen indicate screen pass is to be attempted, Umpire shifts his attention toward screen side, picks up potential receiver in order to insure that he will legally be permitted to run his pattern and continues to rule on action of blockers. Umpire is to assist in ruling on incomplete or trapped passes when ball is thrown overhead or short.

Head Linesman — Primarily responsible for ruling on offside, encroachment, and actions pertaining to scrimmage line prior to or at snap. Keys on closest setback on his side of the field. On pass plays, Linesman is responsible to clear this receiver approximately seven yards downfield as he moves to a point five yards beyond the line. Linesman's secondary responsibility is to rule on any illegal action taken by defenders on any delay receiver moving downfield. Has full responsibility for ruling on sideline plays on his side, e.g., pass receiver or runner in or out of bounds. Together with Referee, Linesman is responsible for keeping track of number of downs and is in charge of mechanics of his chain crew in connection with it· duties.

Linesman must be prepared to assist in determining forward progress by a runner on play directed toward middle or into his side zone. He, in turn, is to signal Referee or Umpire what forward point ball has reached. Linesman is also responsible to rule on legality of action involving any receiver who approaches his side zone. He is to call pass interference when the infraction occurs and is to rule on legality of blockers and defenders on plays involving ball carriers, whether it is entirely a running play, a combination pass and run, or a play involving a kick.

Line Judge — Straddles line of scrimmage on side of field opposite Linesman. Keeps time of game as a backup for clock operator. Along with Linesman is responsible for offside, encroachment, and actions pertaining to scrimmage line prior to or at snap. Line Judge keys on closest setback on his side of field. Line Judge is to observe his receiver until he moves at least seven yards downfield. He then moves toward backfield side, being especially alert to rule on any back in motion and on flight of ball when pass is made (he must rule whether forward or backward). Line Judge has primary responsibility to rule whether or not passer is behind or beyond line of scrimmage when pass is made. He also assists in observing actions by blockers and defenders who are on his side of field. After pass is thrown, Line Judge directs attention toward activities that occur in back of Umpire. During punting situations, Line Judge remains at line of scrimmage to be sure that only the end men move downfield until kick has been made. He also rules whether or not the kick crossed line and then observes action by members of the kicking team who are moving downfield to cover the kick.

Back Judge — Operates on same side of field as Line Judge, 20 yards deep. Keys on wide receiver on his side. Concentrates on path of end or back, observing legality of his potential block(s) or of actions taken against him. Is prepared to rule from deep position on holding or illegal use of hands by end or back or on defensive infractions committed by player guarding him. Has primary responsibility to make decisions involving sideline on his side of field, e.g., pass receiver or runner in or out of bounds.

Back Judge makes decisions involving catching, recovery, or illegal touching of a loose ball beyond line of scrimmage; rules on plays involving pass receiver, including legality of catch or pass interference; assists in covering actions of runner, including blocks by teammates and that of defenders; calls clipping on punt returns; and, together with Field Judge, rules whether or not field goal attempts are successful.

Side Judge — Operates on same side of field as Linesman, 20 yards deep. Keys on wide receiver on his side. Concentrates on path of end or back, observing legality of his potential block(s) or of actions taken against him. Is prepared to rule from deep position on holding or illegal use of hands by end or back or on defensive infractions committed by player guarding him. Has primary responsibility to make decisions involving sideline on his side of field, e.g., pass receiver or runner in or out of bounds.

Side Judge makes decisions involving catching, recovery, or illegal touching of a loose ball beyond line of scrimmage; rules on plays involving pass receiver, including legality of catch or pass interference; assists in covering actions of runner, including blocks by teammates and that of defenders; and calls clipping on punt returns. On punts, field goals, and point after touchdown attempts, he becomes a double umpire.

Field Judge — Takes a position 25 yards downfield. In general, favors the tight end's side of field. Keys on tight end, concentrates on his path and observes legality of tight end's potential block(s) or of actions taken against him. Is prepared to rule from deep position on holding or illegal use of hands by end or back or on defensive infractions committed by player guarding him.

Field Judge times interval between plays on 40/25-second clock plus intermission between two periods of each half; makes decisions involving catching, recovery, or illegal touching of a loose ball beyond line of scrimmage; is responsible to rule on plays involving end line; calls pass interference, fair catch infractions, and clipping on kick returns; and, together with Back Judge, rules whether or not field goals and conversions are successful.

Definitions

1. Chucking: Warding off an opponent who is in front of a defender by contacting him with a quick extension of arm or arms, followed by the return of arm(s) to a flexed position, thereby breaking the original contact.
2. Clipping: Throwing the body across the back of an opponent's leg or hitting him from the back below the waist while moving up from behind unless the opponent is a runner or the action is in close line play.
3. Close Line Play: The area between the positions normally occupied by the offensive tackles, extending three yards on each side of the line of scrimmage.
4. Crackback: Eligible receivers who take or move to a position more than two yards outside the tackle may not block an opponent below the waist if they then move back inside to block.
5. Dead Ball: Ball not in play.
6. Double Foul: A foul by each team during the same down.
7. Down: The period of action that starts when the ball is put in play and ends when it is dead.
8. Encroachment: When a player enters the neutral zone and makes contact with an opponent before the ball is snapped.
9. Fair Catch: An unhindered catch of a kick by a member of the receiving team who must raise one arm a full length above his head while the kick is in flight.
10. Foul: Any violation of a playing rule.
11. Free Kick: A kickoff, kick after a safety, or kick after a fair catch. It may be a placekick, dropkick, or punt, except a punt may not be used on a kickoff.
12. Fumble: The loss of possession of the ball.
13. Game Clock: Scoreboard game clock.

20. Own Goal: The goal a team is guarding.
21. Play Clock: 40/25 second clock.
22. Pocket Area: Applies from a point two yards outside of either offensive tackle and includes the tight end if he drops off the line of scrimmage to pass protect. Pocket extends longitudinally behind the line back to offensive team's own end line.
23. Possession: When a player controls the ball throughout the act of clearly touching both feet, or any other part of his body other than his hand(s), to the ground inbounds.
24. Post-Possession Foul: A foul by the receiving team that occurs after a ball is legally kicked from scrimmage prior to possession changing. The ball must cross the line of scrimmage and the receiving team must retain possession of the kicked ball.
25. Punt: A kick made when a player drops the ball and kicks it while it is in flight.
26. Safety: The situation in which the ball is dead on or behind a team's own goal if the impetus comes from a player on that team. Two points are scored for the opposing team.

31. Touchdown: When any part of the ball, legally in possession of a player inbounds, is on, above, or over the opponent's goal line, provided it is not a touchback.
32. Unsportsmanlike Conduct: Any act contrary to the generally understood principles of sportsmanship.

Suspension From Game

1. Illegal equipment. (Player may return after one down when legally equipped.)

Touchdown

1. When Referee determines a palpably unfair act deprived a team of a touchdown. (Example: Player comes off bench and tackles runner apparently en route to touchdown.)

Field

1. Sidelines and end lines are out of bounds. The goal line is actually in the end zone. A player with the ball in his possession scores when the ball is on, above, or over the goal line.
2. The field is rimmed by a white border, a minimum six feet wide, along the sidelines. All of this is out of bounds.
3. The hashmarks (inbound lines) are 70 feet, 9 inches from each sideline.
4. Goal posts must be single-standard type, offset from the end line and painted bright gold. The goal posts must be 18 feet, 6 inches wide and the top face of the crossbar must be 10 feet above the ground. Vertical posts extend at least 30 feet above the crossbar. A ribbon 4 inches by 42 inches long is to be attached to the top of each post. The actual goal is the plane extending indefinitely above the crossbar and between the outer edges of the posts.
5. The field is 360 feet long and 160 feet wide. The end zones are 30 feet deep. The line used in try-for-point plays is two yards out from the goal line.
6. Chain crew members and ball boys must be uniformly identifiable.
7. All clubs must use standardized sideline markers. Pylons must be used for goal line and end line markings.
8. End zone markings and club identification at 50 yard line must be approved by the Commissioner to avoid any confusion as to delineation of goal lines, sidelines, and end lines.

Ball

1. The home club must have 24 balls available for testing by the Referee one hour before game time. In case of bad weather, a playable ball is to be substituted on request of the offensive team captain.

Coin Toss

1. The toss of coin will take place within three minutes of kickoff in center of field. The toss will be called by the visiting captain. The winner may choose one of two privileges and the loser gets the other:
   (a) Receive or kick
   (b) Goal his team will defend
2. Immediately prior to the start of the second half, the captains of both teams must inform the officials of their respective choices. The loser of the original coin toss gets first choice.

Timing

1. The stadium game clock is official. In case it stops or is operating incorrectly, the Line Judge takes over the official timing on the field.
2. Each period is 15 minutes. The intermission between the periods is two minutes. Halftime is 12 minutes, unless otherwise specified.
3. On charged team time outs, the Field Judge starts watch and blows whistle after 1 minute 50 seconds, unless television does not utilize the time for commercial. In this case the length of the time out is reduced to 40 seconds.
4. Referee may allow two minutes for injured player and three minutes for equipment repair.
5. Each team is allowed three time outs each half.
6. Time between plays will be 40 seconds from the end of a given play until the snap of the ball for the next play, or a 25-second interval after certain administrative stoppages and game delays.
7. Clock will start running when ball is snapped following all changes of team possession.
8. With the exception of the last two minutes of the first half and the last five minutes of the second half, the game clock will be restarted following a kickoff return, a player going out of bounds on a play from scrimmage, or after declined penalties when appropriate on the referee's signal.
9. Consecutive team time outs can be taken by opposing teams but the length of the second time out will be reduced to 40 seconds.
10. When, in the judgment of the Referee, the level of crowd noise prevents the offense from hearing its signals, he can institute a series of procedures which can result in a loss of team time outs or a five-yard penalty against the defensive team.

Sudden Death

1. The sudden death system of determining the winner shall prevail when score is tied at the end of the regulation playing time of all NFL games. The team scoring first during overtime play shall be the winner and the game automatically ends upon any score (by safety, field goal, or touchdown) or when a score is awarded by Referee for a palpably unfair act.
2. At the end of regulation time the Referee will immediately toss coin at center of field in accordance with rules pertaining to the usual pregame toss. The captain of the visiting team will call the toss.
3. Following a three-minute intermission after the end of the regulation game, play will be continued in 15-minute periods or until there is a score. There is a two-minute intermission between subsequent periods. The teams change goals at the start of each period. Each team has three time outs and general provisions for play in the last two minutes of a half shall prevail. Disqualified players are not allowed to return.
   Exception: In preseason and regular season games there shall be a maximum of 15 minutes of sudden death with two time outs instead of three. General provisions for play in the last two minutes of a half will be in force.

Timing in Final Two Minutes of Each Half

1. On kickoff, clock does not start until the ball has been legally touched by player of either team in the field of play. (In all other cases, clock starts with kickoff.)
2. A team cannot buy an excess time out for a penalty. However, a fourth time out is allowed without penalty for an injured player, who must be removed immediately. A fifth time out or more is allowed for an injury and a five-yard penalty is assessed if the clock was running. Additionally, if the clock was running and the score is tied or the team in possession is losing, the ball cannot be put in play for at least 10 seconds on the fourth or more time out. The half or game can end while those 10 seconds are run off on the clock.
3. If the defensive team is behind in the score and commits a foul when it has no time outs left in the final 30 seconds of either half, the offensive team can decline the penalty for the foul and have the time on the clock expire.
4. Fouls that occur in the last five minutes of the fourth quarter as well as the last two minutes of the first half will result in the clock starting on the snap.

Try-for-Point

1. After a touchdown, the scoring team is allowed a try-for-point during one scrimmage down. The ball may be spotted anywhere between the inbounds lines, two or more yards from the goal line. The successful conversion counts one point, whether by run, kick, or pass.
2. The defensive team never can score on a try-for-point. As soon as defense gets possession, or the kick is blocked, the ball is dead.
3. Any distance penalty for fouls committed by the defense that prevent the try from being attempted can be enforced on the succeeding kickoff. Any foul committed on a successful try will result in a distance penalty being assessed on the ensuing kickoff.
4. Only the fumbling player may advance a fumble during a try-for-point.

Players-Substitutions

1. Each team is permitted 11 men on the field at the snap.
2. Unlimited substitution is permitted. However, players may enter the field only when the ball is dead. Players who have been substituted for are not permitted to linger on the field. Such lingering will be interpreted as unsportsmanlike conduct.
3. Players leaving the game must be out of bounds on their own side, clearing the field between the end lines, before a snap or free kick. If player crosses end line leaving field, it is delay of game (five-yard penalty).
4. Substitutes who remain in the game must move onto the field as far as the inside of the field numerals before moving to a wide position.

Kickoff

1. The kickoff shall be from the kicking team's 35 yard line at the start of each half and after a field goal and try-for-point. A kickoff is one type of free kick.
2. Either a one-, two-, or three-inch tee may be used (no tee permitted for field goal or try-for-point plays). The ball is put in play by a placekick or dropkick.
3. If the kickoff clears the opponent's goal posts it is not a field goal.
4. A kickoff is illegal unless it travels 10 yards OR is touched by the receiving team. Once the ball is touched by the receiving team it is a free ball. Receivers may recover and advance. Kicking team may recover but NOT advance UNLESS receiver had possession and lost the ball.
5. When a kickoff goes out of bounds between the goal lines without being touched by the receiving team, the ball belongs to the receivers 30 yards from the spot of the kick or at the out-of-bounds spot unless the ball went out-of-bounds the first time an onside kick was attempted. In this case the kicking team is to be penalized five yards and the ball must be kicked again.
6. When a kickoff goes out of bounds between the goal lines and is touched last by receiving team, it is receiver's ball at out-of-bounds spot.

Free Kick

1. In addition to a kickoff, the other free kicks are a kick after a safety and a kick after a fair catch. In both cases, a dropkick, placekick, or punt may be used (a punt may not be used on a kickoff).
2. On a free kick after a fair catch, captain of receiving team has the option to put ball in play by punt, dropkick, or placekick without a tee, or by snap. If the placekick or dropkick goes between the uprights a field goal is scored.
3. On a free kick after a safety, the team scored upon puts ball in play by a punt, dropkick, or placekick without tee. No score can be made on a free kick following a safety, even if a series of penalties places team in position. (A field goal can be scored only on a play from scrimmage or a free kick after a fair catch.)

Field Goal

1. All field goals attempted and missed from scrimmage line beyond the 20 yard line will result in the defensive team taking possession of the ball at the scrimmage line. On any field goal attempted and missed from scrimmage line inside the 20 yard line, ball will revert to defensive team at the 20 yard line.

Safety

1. The important factor in a safety is impetus. Two points are scored for the opposing team when the ball is dead on or behind a team's own goal line if the impetus came from a player on that team.

Examples of Safety:

(a) Blocked punt goes out of kicking team's end zone. Impetus was provided by punting team. The block only changes direction of ball, not impetus.
(b) Ball carrier retreats from field of play into his own end zone and is downed. Ball carrier provides impetus.
(c) Offensive team commits a foul and spot of enforcement is behind its own goal line.
(d) Player on receiving team muffs punt and, trying to get ball, forces or illegally kicks it into end zone where he or a teammate recovers. He has given new impetus to the ball.

Examples of Non-Safety:

(a) Player intercepts a pass with both feet inbounds in the field of play and his momentum carries him into his own end zone. Ball is put in play at spot of interception.
(b) Player intercepts a pass in his own end zone and is downed. Impetus came from passing team, not from defense. (Touchback)
(c) Player passes from behind his own goal line. Opponent bats down ball in end zone. (Incomplete pass)

Measuring

1. The forward point of the ball is used when measuring.

Position of Players at Snap

1. Offensive team must have at least seven players on line.
2. Offensive players, not on line, must be at least one yard back at snap. (Exception: player who takes snap.)
3. No interior lineman may move after taking or simulating a three-point stance.
4. No player of either team may invade neutral zone before snap.
5. No player of offensive team may charge or move, after assuming set position, in such manner as to lead defense to believe snap has started.
6. If a player changes his eligibility, the Referee must alert the defensive captain after player has reported to him.
7. All players of offensive team must be stationary at snap, except one back who may be in motion parallel to scrimmage line or backward (not forward).
8. After a shift or huddle all players on offensive team must come to an absolute stop for at least one second with no movement of hands, feet, head, or swaying of body.
9. Quarterbacks can be called for a false start penalty (five yards) if their actions are judged to be an obvious attempt to draw an opponent offside.

Use of Hands, Arms, and Body

1. No player on offense may assist a runner except by blocking for him. There shall be no interlocking interference.
2. A runner may ward off opponents with his hands and arms but no other player on offense may use hands or arms to obstruct an opponent by grasping with hands, pushing, or encircling any part of his body during a block. Hands (open or closed) can be thrust forward to initially contact an opponent on or outside the opponent's frame, but the blocker must work to bring his hands on or inside the frame.
   Note: Pass blocking: Hand(s) thrust forward that slip outside the body of the defender will be legal if blocker worked to bring them back inside. Hand(s) or arm(s) that encircle a defender — i.e., hook an opponent — are to be considered illegal and officials are to call a foul for holding.
   Blocker cannot use his hands or arms to push from behind, hang onto, or encircle an opponent in a manner that restricts his movement as the play develops.
3. Hands cannot be thrust forward above the frame to contact an opponent on the neck, face or head.
   Note: The frame is defined as the part of the opponent's body below the neck that is presented to the blocker.
4. A defensive player may not tackle or hold an opponent other than a runner. Otherwise, he may use his hands, arms, or body only:
   (a) To defend or protect himself against an obstructing opponent.
   Exception: An eligible receiver is considered to be an obstructing opponent ONLY to a point five yards beyond the line of scrimmage unless the player who receives the snap clearly demonstrates no further intention to pass the ball. Within this five-yard zone, a defensive player may make contact with an eligible receiver that may be maintained as long as it is continuous and unbroken. The defensive player cannot use his hands or arms to push from behind, hang onto, or encircle an eligible receiver in a manner that restricts movement as the play develops. Beyond this five-yard limitation, a defender may use his hands or arms ONLY to defend or protect himself against impending contact caused by a receiver. In such reaction, the defender may not contact a receiver who attempts to take a path to evade him.

(b) To push or pull opponent out of the way on line of scrimmage.
(c) In actual attempt to get at or tackle runner.
(d) To push or pull opponent out of the way in a legal attempt to recover a loose ball.
(e) During a legal block on an opponent who is not an eligible pass receiver.
(f) When legally blocking an eligible pass receiver above the waist.
Exception: Eligible receivers lined up within two yards of the tackle, whether on or immediately behind the line, may be blocked below the waist at or behind the line of scrimmage. NO eligible receiver may be blocked below the waist after he goes beyond the line.
Note: Once the quarterback hands off or pitches the ball to a back, or if the quarterback leaves the pocket area, the restrictions on the defensive team relative to the offensive receivers will end, provided the ball is not in the air.

5. A defensive player must not contact an opponent above the shoulders with the palm of his hand except to ward him off on the line. This exception is permitted only if it is not a repeated act against the same opponent during any one contact. In all other cases the palms may be used on head, neck, or face only to ward off or push an opponent in legal attempt to get at the ball.
6. Any offensive player who pretends to possess the ball or to whom a teammate pretends to give the ball may be tackled provided he is crossing his scrimmage line between the ends of a normal tight offensive line.
7. An offensive player who lines up more than two yards outside his own tackle or a player who, at the snap, is in a backfield position and subsequently takes a position more than two yards outside a tackle may not clip an opponent anywhere nor may he contact an opponent below the waist if the blocker is moving toward the ball and if contact is made within an area five yards on either side of the line.
8. A player of either team may block at any time provided it is not pass interference, fair catch interference, or unnecessary roughness.
9. A player may not bat or punch:
(a) A loose ball (in field of play) toward his opponent's goal line or in any direction in either end zone.
(b) A ball in player possession or attempt to get possession.
Exception: A forward or backward pass may be batted, tipped, or deflected in any direction at any time by either the offense or the defense.
Note: A pass in flight that is controlled or caught may only be thrown backward.
10. No player may deliberately kick any ball except as a punt, dropkick, or placekick.

Forward Pass

1. A forward pass may be touched or caught by any eligible receiver. All members of the defensive team are eligible. Eligible receivers on the offensive team are players on either end of line (other than center, guard, or tackle) or players at least one yard behind the line at the snap. A T-formation quarterback is not eligible to receive a forward pass during a play from scrimmage.
Exception: T-formation quarterback becomes eligible if pass is previously touched by an eligible receiver.
2. An offensive team may make only one forward pass during each play from scrimmage (Loss of down).
3. The passer must be behind his line of scrimmage (Loss of down and five yards, enforced from the spot of pass).
4. Any eligible offensive player may catch a forward pass. If a pass is touched by one offensive player and touched or caught by a second eligible offensive player, pass completion is legal. Further, all offensive players become eligible once a pass is touched by an eligible receiver or any defensive player.
5. The rules concerning a forward pass and ineligible receivers:
(a) If ball is touched accidentally by an ineligible receiver on or behind his line: loss of down.
(b) If ineligible receiver is illegally downfield: loss of five yards.
(c) If touched or caught (intentionally or accidentally) by ineligible receiver beyond the line: loss of 10 yards or loss of down.
6. The player who first controls and continues to maintain control of a pass will be awarded the ball even though his opponent later establishes joint control of the ball.
7. Any forward pass becomes incomplete and ball is dead if:
(a) Pass hits the ground or goes out of bounds.
(b) Hits the goal post or the crossbar of either team.
(c) Is caught by offensive player after touching ineligible receiver.
(d) An illegal pass is caught by the passer.
8. A forward pass is complete when a receiver clearly touches the ground with both feet inbounds while in possession of the ball. If a receiver would have landed inbounds with both feet but is carried or pushed out of bounds while maintaining possession of the ball, pass is complete at the out-of-bounds spot.
9. If an eligible receiver goes out of bounds accidentally or is forced out by a defender and returns to catch a pass, the play is regarded as a pass caught out of bounds. (Loss of down, no yardage.)
10. On a fourth down pass -- when the offensive team is inside the opposition's 20 yard line — an incomplete pass results in a loss of down at the line of scrimmage.
11. If a personal foul is committed by the defense prior to the completion of a pass, the penalty is 15 yards from the spot where ball becomes dead.
12. If a personal foul is committed by the offense prior to the completion of a pass, the penalty is 15 yards from the previous line of scrimmage.

Intentional Grounding of Forward Pass

1. Intentional grounding of a forward pass is a foul: loss of down and 10 yards from previous spot if passer is in the field of play or loss of down at the spot of the foul if it occurs more than 10 yards behind the line or safety if passer is in his own end zone when ball is released.
2. Intentional grounding will be called when a passer, facing an imminent loss of yardage due to pressure from the defense, throws a forward pass without a realistic chance of completion.
3. Intentional grounding will not be called when a passer, while out of the pocket and facing an imminent loss of yardage, throws a pass that lands beyond the line of scrimmage, even if no offensive player(s) have a realistic chance to catch the ball (including if the ball lands out of bounds over the sideline or end line).

Protection of Passer

1. By interpretation, a pass begins when the passer — with possession of ball — starts to bring his hand forward. If ball strikes ground after this action has begun, play is ruled an incomplete pass. If passer loses control of ball prior to his bringing his hand forward, play is ruled a fumble.
2. No defensive player may run into a passer of a legal forward pass after the ball has left his hand (15 yards). The Referee must determine whether opponent had a reasonable chance to stop his momentum during an attempt to block the pass or tackle the passer while he still had the ball.
3. No defensive player who has an unrestricted path to the quarterback may hit him flagrantly in the area of the knee(s) when approaching in any direction.
4. Officials are to blow the play dead as soon as the quarterback is clearly in the grasp and control of any tackler, and his safety is in jeopardy.

Pass Interference

1. There shall be no interference with a forward pass thrown from behind the line. The restriction for the passing team starts with the snap. The restriction on the defensive team starts when the ball leaves the passer's hand. Both restrictions end when the ball is touched by anyone.
2. The penalty for defensive pass interference is an automatic first down at the spot of the foul. If interference is in the end zone, it is first down for the offense on the defense's 1 yard line. If previous spot was inside the defense's 1 yard line, penalty is half the distance to the goal line.
3. The penalty for offensive pass interference is 10 yards from the previous spot.
4. It is pass interference by either team when any player movement beyond the offensive line significantly hinders the progress of an eligible player or such player's opportunity to catch the ball during a legal forward pass. When players are competing for position to make a play on the ball, any contact by hands, arms or body shall be considered incidental unless prohibited. Prohibited conduct shall be when a player physically restricts or impedes the opponent in such a manner that is visually evident and materially affects the opponent's opportunity to gain position or retain his position to catch the ball. If a player has gained position, he shall not be considered to have impeded or restricted his opponent in a prohibited manner if all of his actions are a bona fide effort to go to and catch the ball. Provided an eligible player is not interfered with in such a manner, the following exceptions to pass interference will prevail:
(a) If neither player is looking for the ball and there is incidental contact in the act of moving to the ball that does not materially affect the route of an eligible player, there is no interference. If there is any question whether the incidental contact materially affects the route, the ruling shall be no interference.
Note: Inadvertent tripping is not a foul in this situation.
(b) Any eligible player looking for and intent on playing the ball who initiates contact, however severe, while attempting to move to the spot of completion or interception will not be called for interference.
(c) Any eligible player who makes contact, however severe, with one or more eligible players while looking for and making a genuine attempt to catch or bat a reachable ball, will not be called for interference.
(d) It must be remembered that defensive players have as much right to the ball as offensive eligible receivers.
(e) Pass interference by the defense is not to be called when the forward pass is clearly uncatchable.
(f) Note: There is no defensive pass interference behind the line.

Backward Pass

1. Any pass not forward is regarded as a backward pass or lateral. A pass parallel to the line is a backward pass. A runner may pass backward at any time. Any player on either team may catch the pass or recover the ball after it touches the ground.
2. A backward pass that strikes the ground can be recovered and advanced by either team.
3. A backward pass caught in the air can be advanced by either team.
4. A backward pass in flight may not be batted forward by an offensive player.

Fumble

1. The distinction between a fumble and a muff should be kept in mind in considering rules about fumbles. A fumble is the loss of possession of the ball. A muff is the touching of a loose ball by a player in an unsuccessful attempt to obtain possession.
2. A fumble may be advanced by any player on either team regardless of whether recovered before or after ball hits the ground.

Kicks From Scrimmage

1. Any kick from scrimmage must be made from behind the line to be legal.
2. Any punt or missed field goal that touches a goal post is dead.
3. During a kick from scrimmage, only the end men, as eligible receivers on the line of scrimmage at the time of the snap, are permitted to go beyond the line before the ball is kicked.
   Exception: An eligible receiver who, at the snap, is aligned or in motion behind the line and more than one yard outside the end man on his side of the line, clearly making him the outside receiver, REPLACES that end man as the player eligible to go downfield after the snap. All other members of the kicking team must remain at the line of scrimmage until the ball has been kicked.
4. Any punt that is blocked and does not cross the line of scrimmage can be recovered and advanced by either team. However, if offensive team recovers it must make the yardage necessary for its first down to retain possession if punt was on fourth down.
5. The kicking team may never advance its own kick even though legal recovery is made beyond the line of scrimmage. Possession only.
6. A member of the receiving team may not run into or rough a kicker who kicks from behind his line unless contact is:
   (a) Incidental to and after he had touched ball in flight.
   (b) Caused by kicker's own motions.
   (c) Occurs during a quick kick, or a kick made after a run, or after kicker recovers a loose ball. Ball is loose when kicker muffs snap or snap hits ground.
   (d) Defender is blocked into kicker.
   The penalty for running into the kicker is 5 yards. For roughing the kicker: 15 yards, an automatic first down and disqualification if flagrant.
7. If a member of the kicking team attempting to down the ball on or inside opponent's 5 yard line carries the ball into the end zone, it is a touchback.
8. Fouls during a punt are enforced from the previous spot (line of scrimmage).
   Exception: Illegal touching, illegal fair catch, invalid fair catch signal, and fouls by the receiving team during loose ball after ball is kicked.
9. While the ball is in the air or rolling on the ground following a punt or field goal attempt and receiving team commits a foul before gaining possession, receiving team will retain possession and will be penalized for its foul.
10. It will be illegal for a defensive player to jump or stand on any player, or be picked up by a teammate or to use a hand or hands on a teammate to gain additional height in an attempt to block a kick (Penalty 15 yards, unsportsmanlike conduct).
11. A punted ball remains a kicked ball until it is declared dead or in possession of either team.
12. Any member of the punting team may down the ball anywhere in the field of play. However, it is illegal touching (Official's time out and receiver's ball at spot of illegal touching). This foul does not offset any foul by receivers during the down.
13. Defensive team may advance all kicks from scrimmage (including unsuccessful field goal) whether or not ball crosses defensive team's goal line. Rules pertaining to kicks from scrimmage apply until defensive team gains possession.

Fair Catch

1. The member of the receiving team must raise one arm a full length above his head and wave it from side to side while kick is in flight. (Failure to give proper sign: receivers' ball five yards behind spot of signal.) Note: It is legal for the receiver to shield his eyes from the sun by raising one hand no higher than the helmet.
2. No opponent may interfere with the fair catcher, the ball, or his path to the ball. Penalty: 15 yards from spot of foul and fair catch is awarded.
3. A player who signals for a fair catch is not required to catch the ball. However, if a player signals for a fair catch, he may not block or initiate contact with any player on the kicking team until the ball touches a player. Penalty: snap 15 yards behind spot of foul.
4. If ball hits ground or is touched by member of kicking team in flight, fair catch signal is off and all rules for a kicked ball apply.
5. Any undue advance by a fair catch receiver is delay of game. No specific distance is specified for undue advance as ball is dead at spot of catch. If player comes to a reasonable stop, no penalty. For violation, five yards.
6. If time expires while ball is in play and a fair catch is awarded, receiving team may choose to extend the period with one free kick down. However, placekicker may not use tee.

Foul on Last Play of Half or Game

1. On a foul by defense on last play of half or game, the down is replayed if penalty is accepted.
2. On a foul by the offense on last play of half or game, the down is not replayed and the play in which the foul is committed is nullified.
   Exception: Fair catch interference, foul following change of possession, illegal touching. No score by offense counts.
3. On double foul on last play of half or game, down is replayed.

Spot of Enforcement of Foul

1. There are four basic spots at which a penalty for a foul is enforced:
   (a) Spot of foul: The spot where the foul is committed.
   (b) Previous spot: The spot where the ball was put in play.
   (c) Spot of snap, pass, fumble, return kick, or free kick: The spot where the act connected with the foul occurred.
   (d) Succeeding spot: The spot where the ball next would be put in play if no distance penalty were to be enforced.
   Exception: If foul occurs after a touchdown and before the whistle for a try-for-point, succeeding spot is spot of next kickoff.
2. All fouls committed by offensive team behind the line of scrimmage and in the field of play shall be penalized from the previous spot.
3. When spot of enforcement for fouls involving defensive holding or illegal use of hands by the defense is behind the line of scrimmage, any penalty yardage to be assessed on that play shall be measured from the line if the foul occurred beyond the line.

Double Foul

1. If there is a double foul during a down in which there is a change of possession, the team last gaining possession may keep the ball unless its foul was committed prior to the change of possession.
2. If double foul occurs after a change of possession, the defensive team retains the ball at the spot of its foul or dead ball spot.
3. If one of the fouls of a double foul involves disqualification, that player must be removed, but no penalty yardage is to be assessed.
4. If the kickers foul during a kick before possession changes and the receivers foul after possession changes, the receivers will retain the ball after enforcment of its foul.

Penalty Enforced on Following Kickoff

1. When a team scores by touchdown, field goal, extra point, or safety and either team commits a personal foul, unsportsmanlike conduct, or obvious unfair act during the down, the penalty will be assessed on the following kickoff.

Procedures to Terminate or Temporarily Delay Completion of a Game

The National Football League holds to the position that all games should be played to their conclusion. However, if in the opinion of appropriate League authorities, it is impossible to begin or continue a game due to an emergency, or a game is deemed to be imminently threatened by any such emergency — e.g., severely inclement weather, lightning, flooding, power failure, interference by spectators, or other non-participants — then the following procedures will serve as guidelines for the Commissioner and/or his duly appointed representatives. The Commissioner will have the power to review the circumstances of each emergency and to adjust the following procedures in whatever manner he deems appropriate. If, in the Commissioner's opinion, it is reasonable to project that the resumption of an interrupted game would not change its ultimate result, he will be empowered to terminate the game.

1. The League employees vested with the authority to define emergencies under these procedures are the Commissioner, his representatives, and the game Referee. In cases where neither the Commissioner nor his representatives are present, the referee shall have sole authority, but he must make every effort to contact the Commissioner or representative for consultation. In all cases of significant delay, the League authorities will consult with the management of the participating clubs.
2. If, due to an emergency, a regular-season or postseason game is not started at its scheduled time and cannot be played at any later time that same day, the game, nevertheless, must be played on a subsequent date to be determined by the Commissioner.
3. If there is deemed to be a threat of an emergency (e.g., incoming tropical storm) that may occur during the playing of a game, the starting time of such game will not be moved to an earlier time unless there is clearly sufficient time to make an orderly change.
4. If an interrupted regular-season or postseason game cannot be completed on the same day, such game will be rescheduled by the Commissioner and resumed at that point.
5. In instances which require the Commissioner to reschedule a regular-season game, he will make every effort to set the game for no later than two days after its originally scheduled date, and if possible, at its original site. If unable to do so, he will schedule it at the nearest available facility. If it is impossible to schedule the game within two days after its original date, the Commissioner will attempt to schedule it on the Tuesday of the next calendar week in which the two involved clubs play other clubs no earlier than Sunday.
6. If an emergency interrupts a postseason game and such game cannot be resumed on that same date, the Commissioner will make every effort to arrange for its completion as soon as possible. If unable to schedule the game at the same site, he will select an appropriate alternate site. He will terminate the game short of completion only if in his judgment the continuation of the game would not be normally expected to alter the ultimate outcome.
7. In all instances where a game is resumed after interruption, the resumption will begin at the point at which the game was interrupted. The referee will call time out when it is necessary to declare an emergency interruption, and he will make a record of the team possessing the ball, position of the ball on the field, down, distance, time remaining in the period, and any other pertinent information required for an efficient and equitable resumption of play.

Note: In recent history, only two games, both preseason, have been terminated. In 1976, the Chicago College All-Star game was terminated due to thunderstorms with the Steelers leading the All-Stars 24-0, and the 1980 Pro Football Hall of Fame Game at Canton, Ohio, was called with 5:29 remaining due to severe thunder and lightning with the Chargers and Packers tied 0-0.
